MILITIA CALLED OUT BY GOVERNOR KIMBALL

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Pawtucket, R. I., June 12.—For the first time in the history of the city bayonets in the hands of soldiers ordered out by the governor of the state to suppress riotous disturbances glistened in the streets of Pawtucket today.

The astonishing increase in the number of lawless acts directed against the United Traction Company, whose union men have been on strike since June 2, and the inability of the limited police force and deputy sheriffs to suppress rioting induced Gov. Kimball to call out the militia. Numerous scenes of disorder occurred during the day, and more than a score of persons were injured, one fatally.

In the presence of about 1,000 persons and the militia this evening, Adjt.-Gen. Sackett read the riot act.

The city was taken possession of by the militia. A provisional regiment was formed, composed of companies from the First and Second regiments, with the First battalion of cavalry. The regiment responded to an emergency call promulgated by Gov. Kimball, and Brig.-Gen. Herbert S. Tanner assumed command. In the afternoon orders were issued calling out the Third division of the naval reserves and the machine gun battery.

Crowd Angry at Deputies.

The first disturbance was at the city line. Pursuing the custom followed during the strike the United Traction Company's cars were started from the Pawtucket avenue car house near the line dividing Pawtucket and Providence and on one car was a number of deputy sheriffs. This car was followed at intervals by three others.

When the cars reached the junction of Pawtucket and East avenues trouble began. The presence of the deputies on the cars angered the crowd which had gathered and a fusillade of stones, tin cans and other missiles followed. The cars were badly damaged. The motorman of each car saw that his only chance was to start the car at full speed and run through the crowd without stopping. Each car was assailed and soon all were stalled at Haymarket square. Then Chief of Police Rice informed Gen. Tanner that the conditions were such that his force of men was unable to handle the mob, and he sought the aid of the militia.

A company of the First regiment was sent out and met the cars at Haymarket square. It preceded them to East and Pawtucket avenues, where the militiamen guarded the cars in front and rear. There was a noisy demonstration. For a minute the soldiers were cheered and then a few rocks were thrown. One of these struck Deputy Sheriff Horton, cutting his face.

Horton Uses His Revolver.

On a trip from Providence to Pawtucket Deputy Sheriff Horton had discharged his revolver four times, and although no one was hit this act made the crowd angry.

The cars were run through to the city limits without further trouble. Then the street where the trouble occurred was picketed off by Troop A, and the troopers maintained peace for an hour or more. During this interval cars were not run. In the meantime High Sheriff White asked that three companies of militia be sent to Pawtucket avenue, and this was done, with Maj. Johnson in command. But before this order was carried into effect the most serious trouble of the day occurred.

A car was started from the Pawtucket avenue car house, on which were a score of deputy sheriffs. At Pawtucket and East avenues a big crowd was in waiting and it was prepared to give the deputies a warm reception.

Maj. Maynard had the first battalion of cavalry as a guard to the cars, the troop being divided by platoons, front and rear. The deputy sheriffs were ordered to keep their revolvers in their pockets by Maj. Maynard, who said if there was to be shooting done the militia would do it.

Strikers Counsel Peace.

Chief of Police Rice was present and advised the people to disperse and a number of the striking conductors and motormen practically endangered their own safety by endeavoring to prevail on the people to leave.

Before the people turned their attention to the car they cheered the troopers. Immediately after, however, a rain of stones, brickbats and every conceivable form of missile fell upon the electric car. The troops were hemmed in by the mob and with great difficulty succeeded in working their way out, the motorman of the car bravely facing the mob and getting the car through.

But when the turmoil was at its height fully a dozen shots were fired from the car through the drawn curtains, all of which did no damage save one, which lodged in the neck of Venner Peterson, aged 12 years, son of John Peterson of this city. The boy had been carrying dinners and was returning home, when attracted by the crowd. The shot struck him when he was standing some distance from the car.

The shooting made the mob wild and only the presence of the troops prevented the demolition of the car and the serious injury to some of the deputies.

Maj. Sweet, surgeon of the cavalry, examined the boy and pronounced him fatally hurt. The boy was taken to the Emergency hospital, where it was announced tonight that he would die.

Passenger Hurt by Fall.

The wounding of the boy sobered the crowd which, after the car had proceeded, became more temperate, but many threats were made to kill a deputy sheriff in retaliation.

At this time a Providence passenger, Benjamin P. Bosworth, becoming alarmed at the shower of stones, jumped from the car, which was being pushed by the mob, and sustained serious injuries by falling. He suffered a concussion of the brain. It is thought he will recover.

The situation during the rest of the afternoon, after the militia officers had been over the field and had mapped out plans of campaign and the proclamation of Gov. Kimball had been published, was such that Gen. Tanner determined to have all the soldiers available. After consulting with Gov. Kimball additional companies were called out.

On arrival of these commands there were 720 men and 60 officers on duty.

After the militia had been stoned in the morning ball cartridges were served out, each private carrying 40 rounds and each officer 50 rounds of revolver ammunition.

The city has not been placed under martial law, as that cannot be announced save through an act of the general assembly. Under the statutes martial law would mean suspension of all civil function, even to the courts, and the dealing with all offenders by military authority.

Deputy Is Under Arrest.

The militia will serve as policemen and will strictly enforce all orders given. Arrests will be made by the militia and the people will be kept in motion at all times.

Detective Haberlin of the Pawtucket police force has arrested William J. Welsh, a deputy sheriff, who is accused of shooting the Peterson boy. When taking the prisoner to police station the detective and Special Officer Hannigan were roughly handled and were followed to the door of the station by a mob that stoned the officers and made great effort to get the prisoner from them. The man was searched and on him was found a revolver which had four cartridges in it. With Welsh, the officers brought Adams Saunders, a private of the Eighteenth heavy artillery of Fort Adams, who declared he saw the sheriff lean over a seat and fire the shot that hit the boy. Welsh maintained that he did not shoot.

Later Welsh was arraigned on a charge of assault with intent to kill. He pleaded not guilty, and was held in the sum of $1,000 for a hearing. He is locked up.

Mayor Fitzgerald, who was married Tuesday and who, at Pittsfield, Mass., on his wedding journey was informed by telegraph of the conditions, returned tonight.

Has Been Frequent Trouble.

From the time the strike was declared, on June 2, there has been frequent trouble in this city. Appeals were made to Mayor Fitzgerald to increase the number of police, but he declined to act, declaring that the city's financial condition would not permit him to employ additional men. Finally the governor was appealed to with the result that the militia were ordered out this morning.

The action of the governor was precipitated by a serious disturbance which took place last evening, when a detachment of 16 special deputy sheriffs were attacked by a crowd which had held up and demolished a street car. The officers were stoned and a number of persons injured.

Twenty-Five Thousand Miners Said to Have Quit Work in West Virginia.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., June 12.—There is no change in the strike situation in the southern portion of the state today. On the Chesapeake & Ohio 12,000 miners are out and 2,000 are at work. On the Norfolk & Western out of 14,500 men 1,500 are at work.

FAIRMONT, W. VA., June 12.—The trial of the strike leaders was the event of the day in the Fairmont region, and a decision by Squire Emid was withheld until tomorrow. The organizers gave bond this evening and are at liberty. United States marshals are serving the miners at Monongah with injunction papers.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., June 12.—A few men have returned to work at some mines, but others have come out, and nearly all the mines are practically idle.

CUMBERLAND FLOODED.

Cloudburst Cripples Street Car Traffic and Damages Much Property.

CUMBERLAND, MD., June 12.—(Special.)—There was a cloudburst here at a late hour tonight, flooding the streets and doing great damage. The storm, accompanied by an electrical display, was sudden and terrific. The town was thrown into a state of darkness and street car traffic was crippled.

Reports from the surrounding territory are hard to obtain, as telephone and telegraph wires are in a crippled condition. Many people attending places of amusement were caught in the storm and are unable to reach home, the streets being in an impassable condition. Prior to the storm the weather was very sultry. The downpour was accompanied by a high wind.

The back of his head was crushed in by a gun, which lay broken in two beside the body. The pockets had been rifled.

FISH NET DRAGS TWO MEN DOWN TO AWFUL DEATH

Third Victim May Not Survive Terrible Struggle.

CROWD ON SHORE SAW THE DROWNING

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Kittanning, Pa., June 12.—Before the horror-stricken gaze of wives and children, two men lost their lives by drowning at Rosston, about seven miles from this place, this afternoon. Another man is so badly injured that his life is despaired of.

The Dead.

ANDREW HILEMAN, aged 55, married; taken to his home at Rosston.
KIRK BAILEY, JR., aged 19, single; body removed to the home of his father, Dwight Bailey.

The Injured.

DWIGHT BAILEY, aged 48, married; taken to the home of a farmer, near the scene of the drowning.

The Bailey and Hileman families, about sixteen in all, left their homes in Rosston and went to the banks of Crooked Run, a short distance away, about 4 o'clock this afternoon. They had a fishing net and began to fish for minnows, with great success. The net, after being taken out several times and cast back, finally become entangled on a snag. The water at this point is about ten feet deep, the location being familiarly known as the "sink hole."

After vainly endeavoring to release the net, young Kirk Bailey said he would swim out and get it loose. He jumped into the water and swam out toward the net. As he approached the part above water, he was suddenly perceived to become white and called for help. Those on the bank could not tell what the trouble was, but lated discovered his feet had been entangled in the net. Andrew Hileman, seeing that the boy could not continue his struggle for life much longer jumped into the creek. He swam rapidly to the boys' side. The lad seemed to be making final efforts to keep above water. Every once in awhile he would grasp the net, go under and rise again. Just as Hileman was approaching the trapped boy, he, too, was seen to throw up his hands and make desperate struggles to go forward. The fatal net had also wrapped around his feet, and he was caught in the same plight as the boy. The women on the shore began to cry and the lad's mother, half crazed with fear, made desperate efforts to get into the water. Others in the party held her back.

Dwight Bailey, father of the boy, who was first caught in the net, now jumped into the water and started to release the two imprisoned men. The screams of the women and yells of the imprisoned men were heard for some distance and a crowd began to gather. Friends endeavored to take the women away from the scene. The father, Dwight Bailey, just as he neared the net, was caught as his son and Mr. Hileman were, and with a last mighty effort to move forward, he was seen to stop. He waived his hand and yelled to the crowd on the bank, that he could do nothing more, that his feet were caught in the net, the same as the other two men.

Kirk Bailey, who entered the water first, was exhausted by this time, and his efforts became more and more feeble. Hileman's condition was little better, but he succeeded in giving a little support to the drowning youth. Finally, A. B.

COMPANY CHARTERED TO GIVE PITTSBURGH PUREWATER SUPPLY

Indian Creek to Be Utilized and Plans Have Been Matured.

LOCAL MEN INTERESTED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Greensburg, Pa., June 12.—The plans of an immense company, which will have at its disposal unlimited capital and whose purpose is to supply pure mountain water for Pittsburgh and suburbs and all the towns in the Monongahela valley, were partially revealed here tonight.

The company will be known as the Mountain Water Supply Company, and has just been chartered. Its general manager is S. F. Potter, now general manager of the Continental Water Works Company, which owns many water works in the states of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio. The names of the main stockholders of the big concern have not been revealed, but they are New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh people of large means and resources.

The company proposes to construct at once an immense storage reservoir on Indian creek, in Fayette county, which will have sufficient capacity to supply all the territory mentioned, including Pittsburgh, and a sufficient elevation to furnish all the district with water by gravity. The company has appropriated the entire flow of water in Indian creek, the watershed of which comprises about 125 square miles, lying in the mountain districts of Westmoreland and Fayette counties.

The company has purchased a large body of land along the creek. The watershed, it is estimated by competent engineers, will provide not less than 100,000,000 gallons of water per day, which will enable the company to take care of all the demands for water which may be made on it for a great many years. It is expected that the entire system will be completed and in operation within a comparatively short time, when the purest mountain water will be within reach of Pittsburgh. Work is to begin at once.

NOT A GRAIN OF CORN, PHILADELPHIA'S CRY

For the First Time in Many Years This Export Center Is Entirely Bare.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—To the surprise of every one on 'change today there was not a solitary bushel of corn received in this city, and for the first time in many years in this exporting center the stock of corn was entirely bare.

The cause for this condition of affairs was attributed to the shortness of the old corn crop, and the high prices asked, as 70½ cents is now demanded for No. 2 mixed. A year ago this date, corn was plentiful at 48¼ cents per bushel.

During the year 1899 nearly 50,000,000 bushels of corn were sent to foreign countries from Philadelphia. The elevators here were loaded to bursting, and a single day's export trade varied from 200,000 to 1,500,000 bushels.

Chicago's Hottest Day.

CHICAGO, June 12.—This was the hottest day of the year, the mercury touching 91 degrees. There were four prostrations, one of which, Charles Campbell, proved fatal. A violent windstorm swept over the city tonight, blowing down numbers of trees and business signs.

Gunboat in Distress.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., June 12.—The gunboat Manila arrived from Manila tonight in distress. Her high pressure piston was broken.

QUAY WILL NOT SHUN THE WORK OF LEADERSHIP

Will Personally Conduct the Campaign in the State.

HE PUTS CONNELL IN A BETTER HUMOR

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
906 Fifteenth St., N. W.,
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.

Senator M. S. Quay returned here this afternoon from Harrisburg. When seen at his house tonight he looked tired, but was evidently well pleased with the result of his efforts in preventing the party from making a sad mistake that might send it down to defeat.

The senator will remain here until his legislative duties are out of the way, and will then go to Maine, where he will remain in the forests until September. He will then return to Philadelphia and take active charge of the campaign. Contrary to reports, he will not place the burden of the work upon the vice chairman, but will look after matters himself. It is his last great battle, and he purposes to roll up a majority that will surprise everyone. He intends that the legislature shall be Republican by a large majority and re-elect Senator Penrose, and that 28 of the 32 Pennsylvania congressmen shall be Republicans.

The senator declined tonight to talk for publication, saying he had done all the talking necessary at Harrisburg. He had only the kindest words for those who had opposed him in the convention, and if there are any disaffected ones he will, as state chairman, endeavor to placate them.

Representative Connell was on the same train with the senator, and for a while the sage of Scranton was glum and downcast over the defeat of his favorite, Mr. Elkin; but before long he and the senator occupied reserved seats on the rear of the car and were engaged in earnest and pleasant conversation. Harmonizing had begun.

Among the Republican members from Pennsylvania in the house general gratification is expressed over the ticket nominated at Harrisburg, and the prediction is made that an enormous Republican majority will be rolled up for it. The few adherents of Mr. Elkin accept defeat gracefully and announce that with their leader they will be found hard at work for the ticket. The Star, which heretofore has fought Senator Quay, approves the ticket in this editorial:

"There is good reason to believe that the result at Harrisburg yesterday will make for better government in the state of Pennsylvania. The Republican nominee for governor deserves and commands the respect of the best men in the commonwealth, regardless of party.

"He accepts his party's leadership with full understanding of what the occasion calls for and his character is assurance that if elected—as he is reasonably certain to be—he will exert the full influence of the governorship toward giving the people the reform in the administration of their affairs for which for some years they have been clamoring. The majority by which the nomination was made was large, and while led by Mr. Quay, was composed of many men who have long been identified with vigorous opposition to ring rule in Pennsylvania. Judge Pennypacker, therefore, may be accepted as a leader under whose banner men of highest ambitions for the state may fight with pleasure and confidence."

CHARLES W. METZGAR.

QUAY LEAVES J. O. BROWN TO SINK OR SWIM

No Harmony Deal in Prospect Between Victor and Vanquished, but Von Bonnhorst Is Out of the Wet.

WATRES WILL STUMP THE STATE FOR PENNYPACKER

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Harrisburg, Pa., June 12.—An effort has been made to show that Senator M. S. Quay and Recorder J. O. Brown of Pittsburgh are in accord. A report was circulated yesterday that they had a conference, settled their differences and decided to work in harmony in the future, but this turns out to have been altogether untrue.

Quay and Brown did not meet. They have nothing in common. The senior senator is through with the Pittsburgher for good. From one of the original anti-Elkin men Brown was converted into one of the most ardent of Stone's followers. Quay had no business to transact with Brown and made no attempt to have a meeting with him. To callers at the Quay mansion the senator freely expressed his opinion about the course of the Pittsburgh recorder and intimated very strongly that he would never trust him in the future.

It is different with Recorder George M. von Bonnhorst. Two months or more ago he promised Quay that he would attempt to secure the six delegates from his district for the anti-Elkin candidate. There was no deal then and there is none now. He told Quay he thought the local organization would be benefited if a candidate other than one so closely affiliated with Stone could be nominated. Von Bonnhorst knew the intense feeling in the county against the governor and could see beyond his nose.

Labored With Brown in Vain.

The county recorder endeavored for the last two months to make Brown and the other leaders of the old organization see that they should cut loose from Stone, and by nominating another candidate, Stoneism to a considerable extent might be eliminated from the county fight this fall. Some of them took this sensible advice of Von Bonnhorst as an attempt upon the part of the county recorder to set up as a boss. There was a time when it appeared as though the 15 delegates from the country districts would follow the leadership of Von Bonnhorst. When this was discovered by Brown he immediately set to work to prevent it under orders from Stone.

Although Brown threatened and begged Von Bonnhorst to turn in for Stone, the county recorder was determined, and the six delegates from the Sixth district saw the wisdom in his reasoning. They served notice that they would vote for Pennypacker regardless of the orders of Stone and Brown. On Wednesday they carried out their agreement with Von Bonnhorst and the attempts to construe their action as a deal is a scheme to injure the county recorder and his friends.

Quay appreciates what Von Bonnhorst has done and naturally feels under obligations to him. It is probable that in the future the county recorder will be consulted in all political matters pertaining to Allegheny county.

As for Brown, he can have no reason to expect anything from Quay. He elected to stick with Stone after appealing to Quay to oppose Elkin, and he will be allowed to remain with the governor and "sink or swim."

Pennypacker to Elkin.

Attorney General Elkin this morning received the following telegram in answer to the one of congratulations sent to Judge Pennypacker:

"I appreciate your generosity and have a sense of pain that your fight, made with so much courage and skill, should have failed."

Col. L. A. Watres and John P. Elkin left here this afternoon on the same train. Watres was going to Illinois on business and Elkin to his home in Indiana, Pa. They did not ride together and probably had no conversation during the five hours they rode on the same train. Mr. Elkin said he had nothing to add to his statement of last night.

Congressman William Connell remained here until this morning. He surprised Col. Watres by paying him a visit. The rival leaders of Lackawanna county were closeted for quite a while, but they declined to say what the conference was about. It is probable that in the future there will be more harmony in Lackawanna county.

There was a report today that Watres had quit the fight for governor after receiving a promise that he would be secretary of the commonwealth under Gov. Pennypacker. He said he had heard many reports about jobs he was to have. He wanted to be governor, and when he could not get that office he had no desire for any other. Neither the lieutenant governorship nor the secretaryship of the commonwealth has any attraction for him.

Watres to Take the Stump.

The colonel believes the ticket named yesterday will be a winner and will help heal many sore spots in Pennsylvania. Watres is ready to go on the stump for Pennypacker and probably will make a number of speeches.

There is talk of W. A. Andrews for active chairman of the state committee. The appointment will be made by Quay, who was yesterday elected chairman.

"I do not know that the position will be offered me," said Andrews today, "but if it is I am ready to serve. I am always ready to work and I never have to be drafted. I know the immense amount of labor connected with the office, but I am a soldier."

RECUPERATING AT SEASHORE.

A Party From Pittsburgh and Allegheny at Atlantic City.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 12.—(Special.)—Just to recuperate from too much Harrisburg, they say, a party of Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Allegheny politicians arrived this morning to stay a few days.

They are at the Bleak house. In the party are Andrew C. Robertson, assistant city attorney; Robert Osterrieder, delinquent tax collector; F. J. Klumpp of the assessors' bureau; L. J. P. Schneider and Henry Berg, all of Pittsburgh; David H. Lane, the Philadelphia leader, and James G. Wyman of Allegheny. All deny that the trip bears any political significance.

ELKIN SAYS FIGHT IS ONLY JUST BEGUN

Makes This Declaration When Greeted at Indiana Station by Neighbors and Friends.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

INDIANA, PA., June 12.—Attorney General John P. Elkin arrived home on the evening train. His arrival was expected by only a few intimate friends, yet many of his fellow-townsmen were at the train and when they saw him they crowded around him, calling him their leader.

After greeting his wife, he started to speak to his friends, when Col. John McGaughey, ex-assemblyman from this county, proposed three cheers for Indiana's plowboy, John P. Elkin." Mr. Elkin then said:

"My friends and neighbors, thank you for this reception. I was defeated after a hard fight, yet like Paul Jones, I can say I have just begun the fight for clean politics in Pennsylvania."

After thanking the Indiana people for their loyal support an informal reception was held. Men of all ages grasped the hand of their favorite and told him they would be true to him. Many women and girls were in the throng, and they all showed a similar spirit.

After making remarks to many local leaders, Elkin went to his carriage, and after greeting his daughter and wishing all farewell, he was driven to his house. It is expected that Elkin will take a short rest, as it has been a strenuous campaign for him.

CREASY PREPARING FOR THE CAMPAIGN

Democratic State Chairman Says His Party Has Gubernatorial Timber.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WILLIAMSPORT, PA., June 12.—Democratic State Chairman W. T. Creasy was here today to attend a conference of the chairmen of the counties represented in the Sixth division. The meeting was for the purpose of planning an effective gubernatorial campaign.

Chairman Creasy addressed the chairmen and explained that a "schoolhouse system" is to be established throughout the state, which, it is believed, will result beneficially to the party. This system means the appointment of a Democratic worker in every voting district throughout the state. These men will be additional workers, who will see that every Democrat is registered and that he gets to the polls to vote. The county chairmen were notified to prepare their lists for appointments. By the time the gubernatorial campaign begins it is expected the entire state will have been completely organized in this line.

When questioned as to who would be the Democratic nominee for governor, Mr. Creasy replied:

"I am not able to answer that at this time. I do not care to be quoted on that particular point. There is plenty of good timber among those already mentioned in the papers as candidates, but as to which one will receive the nomination I do not care to venture an opinion."

During his stay Chairman Creasy called on State Senator J. Henry Cochran, whose name has been prominently mentioned as a candidate for governor. Mr. Creasy left this evening for Ridgway, where he will attend a meeting of the chairmen of that district.

TO HONOR MR. BROWN.

Republican Ratification to Be Held in New Castle Tonight.

NEW CASTLE, PA., June 12.—(Special.)—A ratification meeting and Republican rally on a huge scale will be held here Friday evening in honor of the nomination of the Hon. William M. Brown of New Castle as Republican candidate for lieutenant governor.

The Young Men's Republican club, 1,000 strong, will parade, and Republican clubs from every town in the county will be present. The crowd will gather at the residence of Mr. Brown, where addresses will be made. Fireworks will be displayed on the line of march.

FRICK MAY ENTER.

Likely to Become a Director of the Chicago & Northwestern.

NEW YORK, June 12.—(Special.)—In connection with the 5 per cent advance in Chicago & Northwestern it was again repeated today that H. C. Frick of Pittsburgh will soon become a director of the road. Wall street also heard a report that a deal was being made with the Vanderbilts whereby the Moore-Leeds-Reid holdings in Northwestern are to be sold to the party now in control. This, however, met with an official denial.

St. Paul, which was bought by traders on the expectation that the dividend rate would be increased as a result of the action of the directors of the Northwestern and Omaha railroads, was slightly reactionary today, due to statements made by the directors that the matter had not been considered.

WHY DR. PATTON GAVE UP OFFICE AT THIS TIME

Decision Hastened to Head Off Candidacy of Moderator Van Dyke.

WISH TO QUIT NOT SUDDEN

Opposition to the Retiring President in the University Not Strong Enough to Unseat Him—New Executive Is Conservative.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Princeton, N. J., June 12.—The mystery of President Patton's sudden resignation has been partly explained. It has been asserted by some people in Princeton since the resignation that President Patton was forced out of the presidency and that at the moment he entered the trustees' meeting last Monday nothing was farther from his mind than to give up his office. This story is unfounded.

It may be true that President Patton came to his decision to retire from the faculty somewhat suddenly, but it is altogether likely that the object of the step was to nip in the bud the presidential ambitions of another than the man who was actually selected, Prof. Woodrow Wilson.

The way in which the general assembly of the Presbyterian church selected its moderator is still fresh in the memory of the people of New York city. They remember that it was declared again and again in the course of the preliminary canvassing that there was no wire-pulling and no electioneering in behalf of the candidate who in the end had the greatest number of votes. But laymen who saw the whole process chuckled.

Dr. Van Dyke's Candidacy.

Since the Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dyke settled on a professorship at Princeton as his calling there have been those who have spoken of him at all times as "the logical successor" of President Patton. It has been said in the last few weeks that Dr. Van Dyke regarded his election as moderator of the general assembly rather as a stepping stone to the presidency of Princeton than as an independent honor.

Dr. Simon J. McPherson, the headmaster of Lawrenceville school, has been spoken of frequently as one who might well follow Dr. Patton. In the Princeton faculty perhaps, the one man on whose name the student of presidential possibilities would linger longest is that of Prof. Andrew F. West, best known outside of academic circles as one of the great and good friends of ex-President Grover Cleveland. And there have been others.

President Patton has been a very progressive president in the last few months. He has advocated the broadening of the curriculum, especially as regards the choice of electives. He has faced a faculty which, when he first made his propositions, has been at times apparently directly opposed to him. The force of his personality and his logic has brought the faculty into accord with him again and again at such times to the great surprise of some of those who have not been President Patton's followers.

It may be gathered from this that the Princeton faculty has not been altogether harmonious of late.

Patton's Educational Ideas.

President Patton has represented some very advanced educational ideas. His speech at the installation of President Butler at Columbia a few weeks ago was significant of the trend of his theories. He said then that it was time for college authorities to realize that young men nowadays do not go to college to become scholars, but to get a broadening view of life, a certain social training and a store of memories that will last them all through life. Time and money and men, he said, were being wasted in the effort to make scholars out of men who did not come to college to become scholars.

Coming from the president of a university as conservative as Princeton has always been held to be, these views seemed almost revolutionary. But they were indicative merely of the change in the spirit of Princeton which President Patton more than any one man has been responsible for in the last few years and months.

Before the trustees' meeting was convened last Monday, President Patton had told one or two of his closest friends, under the strictest injunctions to secrecy, that he was going to resign then and there. Only one of these friends, so far as is known, was a member of the faculty. One of President Patton's friends told another friend as early as last Saturday that the resignation would come Monday. The friends to whom the president made this statement knew why he was going to resign.

Opposition to Patton.

There were one or two trustees who desired to see another man in President Patton's place. There were others who were prominent among the alumni and one or perhaps two in the faculty. They made friction. Their schemes were not in harmony with the schemes President Patton had formed for the future of the college and university.

But had the election of the next president been deferred for 12 hours, so all students of the faculty politics of Princeton are now agreed, there would have been precipitated the most undignified scramble for President Patton's shoes that ever an American university saw.

In selecting Dr. Wilson, President Patton found a man of such conservative tendencies that the opposition clique was robbed of the avenue of attack labeled "too much progressiveness." On the other hand, Dr. Wilson is sure to have a definite policy that will be independent of the cabaling that is apt to grow up in a college community. Dr. Wilson has been distinguished in the recent differences of opinion in the faculty by his consistent silence. The hotter the debates the tighter have his lips been held together.

THE KING AND QUEEN REHEARSED CORONATION

Their Majesties Were Escorted Quietly Through Westminster Abbey Unnoticed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, June 12.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra were engaged today in what was practically a rehearsal of the coronation ceremonies.

Accompanied by Princess Victoria and a suite their majesties drove to Westminster abbey. There they were quietly received by the duke of Norfolw, carl marshal and chief butler of England, who escorted them through the abbey. In order to prevent the possibility of a hitch in the proceedings on coronation day, all the details of the procession and ceremonial were explained to them.

The royal visit to the abbey was accomplished very quietly, and but a few of the persons about the building were aware of the presence of their majesties.

AFTER GLASS PLANTS.

American Company's Offer to Buy the Baur Factory in Indiana Gas Belt Is Rejected.

MUNCIE, IND., June 12.—(Special.)—From an offer made by a representative of the American Window Glass Company to buy the Baur window glass plant of Elwood, Ind., local window glass workers and manufacturers believe the trust is planning to buy all the independent concerns in the Indiana gas belt, if possible. The Baur plant is an independent factory. The offer of $125,000 cash was promptly rejected by Mr. Baur.

It is understood that similar offers for the purchase of other independent plants in the Indiana gas belt have been made.

THIEVES FALL OUT.

Prisoners Endeavor to Fight While on Trial for Robbery.

PARIS, June 12.—The trial of George Miller, "Eddie" Guerin of Chicago and May Churchill, known as "Chicago May," who were arrested in Paris last summer, the two former charged with having entered the offices of the American Express Company here the night of April 29, 1901, and stolen 30,000 francs, and May Churchill with being their accomplice, began here today, and will probably last for three days.

In the dock today Miller accused Guerin of the theft, whereupon the latter became furious and endeavored to strike his accuser. Guards were obliged to separate the two men.

CANAL BONDS PROPOSED.

New Phase of the Isthmian Question Which Excites Senator Morgan's Opposition.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—After considering the London dock charges bill for an hour and a half today without completing it, the senate resumed consideration of the isthmian canal question. Mr. Morgan of Alabama occupied the floor, discussing particularly the diplomatic phases of the question.

From this point he was diverted by an amendment introduced by Mr. Fairbanks of Indiana, providing for the issue of bonds for the construction of the canal. Mr. Morgan vigorously attacked the amendment, maintaining that the expense of the canal's construction should be paid from the treasury's current receipts.

Incidentally Mr. Morgan again opposed the Panama route and assailed the right of the new Panama company to dispose of the concessions it held from the old company.

Bank of France Loses 450,000 Francs by Making a Loan.

PARIS, June 12.—An employe of the Bank of France, who was entrusted with the care of collateral securities, abstracted a number of these documents, and through the help of a friend, borrowed money on them from the Bank of France itself.

The papers this evening say that the sum lost by the bank amounts to 450,000 francs.

STEAMER UPSET BY FIERCE WIND, FOUR DROWNED

Captain Locked in Wheelhouse and Caught as in a Death Trap.

FIFTEEN MEN RESCUED

Passing Steamer Has Fierce Battle Against the Gale to Reach the Survivors—Some Swim to Shore and Escape.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Dubuque, Ia., June 12.—A tornado today overturned and sank the steamer Ravenna at Maquoketa chute, four miles up the river. The captain and three others were drowned. The steamer Teal rescued 15 men, who clung to the bottom of the Ravenna.

The Dead:

CAPT. JOHN HOY, aged 52, Stillwater, Minn.
CLERK BYRON TRASK, aged 42, Stillwater, Minn.
LOUIS WALKER, aged 19, Rhodes Landing.
——— DELL, aged 23, La Crosse.

The tornado struck the steamer without warning and it keeled over to starboard. The crew was thrown into the water, but some of them managed to crawl up on the bottom of the overturned steamer. Capt. Hoy was at the wheel with all the windows in the pilot house closed, and was caught as in a trap.

Clerk Trask was in his office and likewise had no chance to save himself. Capt. Hoy's son was asleep in a stateroom, and, awakened by the overturning of the boat, kicked open a skylight and escaped.

The men huddled together on the overturned hull, and clinging to the slippery sides, peered eagerly through the rain for a boat of some sort to save them.

After nearly an hour of anxious waiting they sighted the steamer Teal coming down on her daily trip. Coats, handkerchiefs and everything available were waved at it. Finally the Teal sighted the unfortunates and then turned toward them. The course against the shifting wind was a hard one, but the Teal succeeded in coming alongside and making fast long enough for the men perched on the hull of the overturned steamer to climb to safety.

Three survivors were picked up from the Iowa shore by a gasoline launch and three others from the Wisconsin shore. These men, unable to see the boat, reached land by swimming across the river.

ELGIN, ILL., June 12.—Three persons injured and much property damaged are the results of a tornado which swept Elgin and vicinity tonight. Hundreds of persons took refuge in cellars and out of way places.

TOWBOAT RELIEF SINKS.

Turned Turtle in Rising Sun Harbor While Assisting to Raise Barge Laden With Rails.

RISING SUN, IND., June 12.—(Special.)—The towboat Relief, which came here today to assist in the raising of the barge laden with steel rails sunk by Jim Wood last spring, "turned turtle" tonight at 7:30. There was no loss of life. The accident was caused by the boat striking a sunken barge at the lower end of the dyke.

The Relief was in command of Capt. Bradford Williams, who, with his crew, escaped by leaping to barges which were within striking distance. In the escape Mrs. Thomas Olien, wife of the steward, was struck in the head by a flying timber, which inflicted a slight scalp wound.

At the time of the accident the Madison packet, Golden Gate, which left Cincinnati at 3:30 p. m., hove in sight and did timely work in rescuing the barges which contained the escaping crew. The Relief drifted about 400 yards and sunk keel up across the channel.

The Relief was built in Pittsburgh in 1895. She is the property of the Monongahela Coal and Coke Company.

MICHIGAN WIND-SWEPT.

Lightning and Hurricane Do Much Damage in Several Counties of the State.

DETROIT, MICH., June 12.—A windstorm of great force, accompanied by lightning and heavy rain, passed over Lower Michigan late today, doing thousands of dollars' worth of damage to growing crops. In Montcalm county hailstones almost two inches in diameter fell. At Ensley, that county, a woman is reported killed by lightning, and at Munith a man was killed in the same manner.

From all parts of the state reports of great damage by wind have been received. In some sections the storm took the form of a hurricane, cutting a swath for miles through fields of grain and fruit orchards.

RHODES IGNORED FIVE PROVINCES

MARITIME STATES OF CANADA WANT HIS WILL AMENDED.

Their Memorial Asserts That the Exclusion Probably Was an Oversight. College Men Believe Executors Have Power to Include Petitioners.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

HALIFAX, N. S., June 12.—It is authoritatively said that a memorial to the executors of the will of Cecil Rhodes is under preparation, and that it will be signed by the president and faculties of all the Canadian universities except those of Ontario and Quebec. The protest will be forwarded this week.

The complaint made is that Rhodes left provisions only for the participation of Ontario and Quebec in his scholarship plan, and that, while every state in the union is provided for, five Canadian provinces and all the territories are excluded.

The memorial sets forth that Rhodes doubtless intended that each province of Canada, as well as each state of the union, should have the benefit, and it also furnishes statistics showing the results of the competition for the Gilchrist scholarship and the creditable positions obtained by the scholars from the maritime provinces. Dalhousie and University of New Brunswick have sent their protests to Lord Strathcona, the Canadian high commissioner in London.

It is believed by college men that the Rhodes executors have considerable discretionary power, and that they can amend the will in the manner sought. Gen. Laurie, British M. P., will aid Strathcona in his efforts.

Bailey, a brother of Dwight Bailey, arrived on the scene with the increasing crowd. He took the situation in at a glance and waded out in the water. Friends endeavored to hold him back, while others urged him on. After carefully swimming around and fishing down in the water, locating the net, the rescuer was at last enabled to seize his brother, Dwight Bailey. He clutched the drowning man, and finally succeeded in getting him to shore.

Just as Dwight Bailey was rescued his son had disappeared beneath the water for the last time, and Hileman, seeming to make a last attempt to rescue the youth, sank beneath the surface. A. B. Bailey once more dove in the water and attempted to rescue his nephew, but the lad was dead. Hileman's body was also recovered.

A physician arrived and gave his attention to Dwight Bailey, but up until a late hour this evening could give no hopes of his recovery, as he was still unconscious.

All persons connected in the drowning are prominent and are descendants of the oldest settlers in Armstrong county. Hileman and Dwight Bailey are well known and quite wealthy. Both own large farms and are interested in other business in the county. A. B. Bailey, who rescued his brother, is a resident of Ford City.

The net, which proved to be a death trap, was taken from the creek, and the broken cords clearly show the terrible struggle the imprisoned men made to gain their freedom. Andrew Hileman resided at Rossion, where he is survived by a widow and three children.

HAMILTON IS NO 4.

Tries to "Loop the Loop" on His Bicycle and Goes Way of His Predecessors.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 12.—Clarence Hamilton, a trick bicyclist brought here from New York to "loop the loop" at the Elks' fair, followed the example of his three predecessors and fell today from the giant wheel on the inside of which he tried to steer a bicycle.

Hamilton, in his second attempt, left the rim of the big loop just as he neared the top, and was riding head downward. He was hurled with terrific force among the spectators and had several ribs fractured beside suffering internal injuries. He is now at a hospital in a serious condition.

Though the management of the fair has witnessed the successive failure of the four who attempted the feat and narrowly escaped death, the effort to give the performance has not been abandoned.

FINDS HIS DAUGHTER.

She Was Kidnaped at the Age of Four and Is Now Sixteen and Married.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Mrs. Nathaniel Bloom, 16 years old, and her father, M. Nathan, a wealthy business man in New York, from which the girl was kidnaped when she was 4 years old, met in Chicago today for the first time since she was stolen from her home in Hoboken, N. J., in 1890. She was identified by a scar on her face.

A Mrs. Greene, who recently died in Aurora, while delirious, said that the child was not her daughter, and related some of the facts concerning the kidnaping of the child, who recently became the wife of a carpet dealer in Englewood.

The husband, on learning of the statements of the Aurora woman, communicated with the father in New York.

POLITICS CAUSES A FISTIC BATTLE

CONGRESSMAN CAMPBELL'S SON IS KNOCKED OUT.

Son of Senator Clark of Montana Said to Have Refereed the Fight—Seasoned Athlete Is Pitted Against a Boy.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

BUTTE, MONT., June 12.—All Montana is stirred up over a sensational bare knuckle fight which took place last night between Roy Campbell, a son of ex-Congressman A. J. Campbell, and William G. Mangan, an athlete of some local repute and said to be a protege of W. A. Clark, Jr.

The affair is said to be an outgrowth of the bitter political fight made against Senator W. A. Clark in Washington several years ago, in which Congressman Campbell was a leading figure. There has been considerable ill-feeling between partisans of the two factions ever since.

Campbell and Mangan met at a ball game yesterday and Mangan is alleged to have insulted Campbell, who promptly knocked him down. Later in the day Campbell was waited upon by friends of Mangan and told that he must fight the latter. Campbell, who is but 20 years old, 10 years the junior of Mangan, referred the matter to his father. The ex-congressman is said to have told his son he he must meet Mangan and beat him.

A number of friends of the contestants drove some distance out from Butte, where a ring was pitched. The two men stripped to the waist and the battle began. It was a bloody affair and lasted but three rounds. Campbell landed frequently upon Mangan, but his blows lacked steam, and were ineffectual. Near the end of the third round the more experienced pugilist landed on the jaw and knocked him out. Young Clark is said to have been the referee.

ORDERS OVERLOOKED AND TRAINS COLLIDE

Three Men Killed and Two Fatally Injured Near Chattanooga.

No Passengers Hurt.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., June 12.—Three men were killed and about 15 injured, two fatally, in a collision between a fast mail train from Nashville and the Jasper accomodation on the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railway this afternoon, about 12 miles from this city. The dead:

L. A. RANKIN, fireman of the accommodation train.
JAMES BERNARD, fireman of the fast mail.
——— WEBB, express messenger of the fast mail.

Fatally injured:

GEORGE ROLLINS, engineer of the accommodation train, legs crushed and large holes made in his head and side.
GEORGE J. RAY, engineer of the fast mail, left side and head crushed and body badly bruised.

None of the others injured is seriously hurt and the passengers escaped with a shaking up and a few bruises.

The trains met at a curve, the accommodation train being the lighter, was telescoped, the engine of the mail plowing its way through the cars and splintering them into kindling wood. Both locomotives were thrown 40 feet from the track.

Fireman L. A. Rankin of the accommodation train was horribly mangled and died almost instantly.

James Bernhard, fireman of the mail train, was caught under the smaller engine and literally burned to death. A handful of cinders and charred flesh was all that could be found of him.

Messenger Webb of the fast mail was caught under the debris and died soon after being removed.

The mail train was behind time and the wreck, it is said, was due to the fact that one of the engineers overlooked his orders.

NEELY EXPECTED HOME.

His Muncie Neighbors Divided on How to Receive the Pardoned Man When He Returns.

MUNCIE, IND., June 12.—(Special.)—From the friends of "Farmer Neely," as C. F. W. Neely is known in this, his home town, it is learned that Neely may be expected in Muncie not later than next week. His nephew, Clarence Russey, who has been more closely associated with him than any other man since the Cuban scandal was made public, has been in the city to arrange Neely's affairs preliminary to his return.

Neely has many friends here. Some of his neighbors are inclined to be a little cold toward the pardoned man. Others are enthusiastic over his release.

"This is the happiest day of my life," said an old friend of Neely today.

Neely's reception will be unostentatious. His relatives are keeping the exact day of his arrival a secret.

THREATENED BY MOB.

Striking Street Car Men Use Torpedoes to Frighten Passengers.

FRANKLIN, PA., June 12.—(Special.)—The Trades council of this city has printed a notice calling on all union men, their families and friends to refrain from patronizing the street cars of the Venango Power Company, as a result of the discharge of union men by the company for the reason, it is alleged, that they belonged to organized labor.

Sheriff McCollum has sworn in all the conductors and motormen in Oil City and Franklin as deputies to protect the property of the company. The company operates the trolley systems in this city and Oil City and the line connecting the two places.

The employes of the company in this city do not belong to the union, and last night a mob of several hundred men and boys lined the tracks until the cars ceased running at midnight, jeering the employes and endeavoring to dissuade passengers from riding. Torpedoes were placed on the track, frightening women passengers, and Mayor Foster issued a warning tonight which has had the effect of causing the union sympathizers to cease this mode of attacking the company.

SURPRISE FOR MRS. ROOSEVELT.

Lightning Rod Agent Had Surreptitiously Wired Her Country Home.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., June 12.—(Special.)—Mrs. Roosevelt was surprised on her return to her country home at Sagamore hills, to find lightning rods sticking up from all parts of the house. There were enough up to catch all the lightning, political or otherwise, in Long Island. When she was told an energetic agent had "wired" the house surreptitiously, she ordered that the rods be removed at once. All the lightning the Roosevelts need hereafter can strike without the assistance of rods.

It was "home, sweet home," indeed for Mrs. Roosevelt and the children today, and they visited every nook and cranny of the homestead. In a strawberry patch in the garden this afternoon, Mrs. Roosevelt saw a luscious Long Island berry which measured seven inches in circumference. It is being carefully preserved under straw for the president.

School Superintendent Elected.

BEAVER FALLS, PA., June 12.—(Special.)—The board of education this evening elected Prof. Edward Maguire of Angelica, N. Y., as superintendent of the schools to succeed Dr. C. C. Murphy, who resigned before taking charge of the office on account of sickness. The board also elected 45 teachers. The millage was fixed at 6 mills. One-half per cent is for the maintenance of the Carnegie library.

LARGE TRACT OF COAL LAND CHANGES HANDS

Washington County Farmers Receive $100 an Acre for Property.

THE SALE TOTALS $150,000

Pennsylvania Mining Company Is the Purchaser—Belief That the Wabash Railroad Will Build Lines to Tap the Territory.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, Pa., June 12.—A big coal deal, involving the transfer of 1,500 acres of land in Canton and Chartiers townships, has been closed here, the Pennsylvania Mining Company being the purchaser. The sale was made by Clerk of Courts Charles E. Baker, who has been handling the land for the farmers for several months, and the Pennsylvania Mining Company was represented by V. McDowell of Midway, who has engineered several important deals in Washington for the purchasing company.

Under the terms of the sale the farmers receive the uniform price of $100 for their coal, and each farmer has received the first payment of the sale. The sale will put about $150,000 into the pockets of the farmers, who are very much elated over the sale.

The lands of the following farmers were included in the purchase: W. D. Woods and R. D. Nesbit, Chartiers township; J. A. Nesbit, D. W. Smith, C. L. Taggart, Margaret Taggart, W. J. Connor, Isaac H. Briggs, A. A. Taggart, Linn brothers, J. C. Garrett, and W. H. Martin of Canton township. The coal land sold was embraced in the block which the farmers of the county several months ago agreed to hold until they could get $100 an acre, and the selling price is shown to have advanced about $50 an acre since that time.

The sale of the coal land in a part of the county where there are no railroads, the purchasing of the land by the Pennsylvania Mining Company, and the comparatively large price paid is believed to indicate here that the Wabash system will branch into Washington from its main line in the northern part of the county. There are no signs of any other road building through the coal territory just sold, and as the Wabash has been working in this direction it is believed that a line will eventually be built into this city.

LEMLY HANKERS FOR SEA

Judge Advocate Who Managed Case Against Schley to Be Put in Command of Gunboat.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—Capt. Samuel C. Lemly, judge advocate general of the navy and judge advocate of the court of inquiry which investigated the conduct of Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, will be ordered to sea shortly. This action will be taken in compliance with Capt. Lemly's request, and despite the fact that he still has two years to serve before his present term of office expires. He has not been to sea since 1890, having been judge advocate general since 1892.

It is said Capt. Lemly has only been waiting to reach the actual rank of commander before submitting his official application for sea service. He holds the rank of captain under the law, giving that rank to the incumbent of the office of judge advocate genral, but his actual position on the navy list is No. 3 on the list of lieutenant-commanders. It is expected that he will be promoted in the course of a few months, when he will be placed in command of a gunboat on the North Atlantic station.

Capt. Lemly was unwilling to go to sea in a subordinate position, because he has found it necessary in the office he occupies to reprimand many officers guilty of infraction of the naval regulations. His successor has not been decided upon.

SANTOS-DUMONT'S PLANS.

His Airship Will Be Housed at Brighton Beach, From Which He Will Make His Flights.

NEW YORK, June 12.—(Special.)—It was announced today that M. Santos-Dumont will return to New York the latter part of this month and make flights in his airship, now on its way to this country, at Brighton Beach.

Work will begin next Monday on a large building at the Beach, in which the airship will be housed and from which the Brazilian aeronaut will start on his overhead trips around Greater New York. The building will be west of the Brighton Beach theater and will be 175 feet long, 125 feet wide and 60 feet high. The exhibition will be under the auspices of the Aero club of America.

WANT LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

Ohio Democrats Insist on Appointment to Fill Vacancy.

COLUMBUS, O., June 12.—The question whether a lieutenant governor shall be elected next fall, owing to the resignation of Lieut. Gov. Nippert, will be decided in the courts.

At the request of the Democratic state central committee Judge Okey tomorrow will file a petition in mandamus to compel the governor to fill the vacancy. Under the state law the governor is required to make an appointment, but it will be good only until the next general election, when a lieutenant governor must be elected.

STOCKYARD MEN AGAIN AGITATED

TEAMSTERS DECLARE PACKERS BROKE THEIR AGREEMENT.

Discharged Men Not Reinstated as Promised—Meeting Called for Sunday to Talk Strike Again—Union Officials Investigate Case.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Stock yard teamsters are again making threats. They charge that the packers have not lived up to the terms of the compromise, which closed the big strike, and a call has been issued for a general meeting of the union next Sunday to consider the situation.

The men say that the conditions at the yards are worse than before the strike of two weeks ago. They say their positions are in danger, that many of the men have been unable to get work, and that the barn superintendents who were discharged because they refused to take out the strikers' wagons have not been reinstated.

Roused by the complaints of the men, the officers of the union started an investigation. They declare the three barn superintendents who refused to do the packers' bidding during the strike were told they would not be taken back.

A committee of teamsters visited the superintendents of the firms, who have thus far refused to recognize the union, and say they received no satisfaction.

An indignation meeting of the leaders was hurriedly called and strike talk again became prevalent. The men fear the packers are ready to begin transporting their goods for local consumption by the various railroads and are anxious to force an issue before the system shall be adopted permanently.

ELKES' GREAT RIDING.

Broke All Bike Records From One to Forty-One Miles.

BOSTON, MASS., June 12.—Harry Elkes tonight broke all accredited world's bicycle records from one mile to 41, in riding 41 miles, 250 yards in the hour, against Stinson's 40 miles, 330 yards, made at Brockton last year. Elkes' fastest mile was 1:25¼.

Women Routed Burglars.

Burglars were prevented from looting the residence of Reed Kennedy, Fifth avenue and West street, Homestead, at 10 o'clock last night by Mrs. Kennedy and her guests appearing at the door of the room where the burglars were getting in the window. Mr. Kennedy was away from home last night, and there was not a man in the house. About 10 o'clock Mrs. Kennedy and her guests on the second floor heard a noise at a window. Instead of screaming the ladies armed themselves with various weapons and went down stairs. They saw a man on the window sill in the act of getting in. His partner was on the outside. When the lights were turned on they disappeared.

Big Industrial Parade.

WASHINGTON, PA., June 12.—(Special.)—Thursday was the big day in the street fair and carnival is being held here this week under the auspices of the local Knights of Pythias. It was "Merchants' day" and the attendance was estimated at nearly 50,000. This morning a big industrial parade was held, covering the principal streets of the town and extending almost a mile in length.

ANTHRACITE MEN ANXIOUS FOR HEARING

Would Like Fuller Statement of Their Side of Case to Reach President.

WRIGHT MAKES NO REPORT

Will Be Some Time Before He Is Ready to Tell What He Discovered. Mr. Roosevelt Desires Only Publicity.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., June 12.—President Roosevelt, upon returning to the White House tonight, found ample evidence that the operators of the coal railroads were very much worried over the situation and wished a further hearing for a more complete statement of their side of the case.

The president, however, is not taking testimony, and there will be no opportunity for the operators to present to him personally the situation as they view it. The president's representative in this matter is Labor Commissioner Wright, who has been in New York during the week for the sole purpose of learning all the facts on both sides of the conflict. If either the operators or the miners have anything new to present it will be necessary for them to get another hearing with Mr. Wright.

The labor commissioner has gone to Massachusetts without making any report to the president, and so far as the White House connection with the strike is concerned the situation remains unchanged. Mr. Wright, however, will complete his report as soon as possible and will forward it or bring it to the president.

Friends of the administration insist that this is done solely for the purpose of giving the president full information concerning the strike, its causes and results. His only desire is to give publicity to the fact brought out by this official investigation. What action, if any, will be taken, has not yet been decided.

SUPERINTENDENT FIRED ON FROM AMBUSH

Strikers' Officials Are Unable to Control Their Men at Duryea and Vicinity.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WILKESBARRE, PA., June 12.—A number of unknown men lying in ambush attempted to take the lives of six men on a locomotive coming from the William A. colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company at Duryea last night. That they did not succeed was because of the promptness with which the party dropped to the floor of the engine and tender, thus escaping the bullets and buckshot. The details of the affair were made public today. The company for the last four days has been annoyed by crowds gathering on a hill overlooking the colliery and throwing stones at the men within the place. Superintendents who have had occasion to go in and out of the colliery have been using a locomotive to carry them safely through the settlement. Last night as Division Superintendent Thomas, an engineer, fireman, conductor and two brakemen were coming from the colliery on a locomotive unknown men opened fire when the engine was about 300 yards from the breaker. The throttle was pulled wide open by the engineer and the engine was soon out of range. The engine and tender were pretty well marked up by the bullets and buckshot and the window glass in the cab was broken.

The mine workers' officials have been making a strong effort to keep the strikers at Duryea and vicinity from violence. Several men have been sent there to talk to the strikers and this afternoon District President Nicholls went himself to see what he could do.

The Wyoming valley today was unusually quiet. The strike leaders and mine superintendents reported the situation unchanged.

COAL FAMINE FEARED.

Cincinnati Running Short of Fuel as Result of the Strike in West Virginia.

CINCINNATI, June 12.—The coal situation in Cincinnati growing out of the West Virginia strike is assuming a serious aspect, and if the strike is long continued there may be the worst coal famine ever known here. The news from the soft coal districts that the strike is likely to last all summer has caused the greatest consternation among the local dealers, as it is estimated that the supply of coal on hand here is enough for only 60 days' consumption. It will last that long only by the most economical methods.

The situation is aggravated by the demand for soft coal from the large eastern cities, where formerly hard coal was used exclusively. Many shipments consigned to dealers in this city have failed to be delivered, the railroads having diverted them to their own use in self-protection against a tie-up from lack of fuel.

At a meeting of the wholesale coal dealers of this city in the chamber of commerce this afternoon it was decided not to advance prices at present, but to wait for a time the developments in the strike district. The river is so low that boat shipments are out of the question, and no relief from this quarter is expected under the prevailing weather conditions.

BELIEVES IT'S ECONOMY.

Commissioner Lederle Thinks New Yorkers Can Get Anthracite.

NEW YORK, June 12.—(Special.)—Practically no anthracite coal is being used in this city at present in the larger manufacturing plants and the result is a clouding of the atmosphere such as never before has been seen here. Commissioner Lederle still believes that anthracite coal may be had if consumers are willing to pay an increased price for it, and that a large part of the consumption of bituminous coal is due to reasons of economy.

Report More Miners Working.

ROANOKE, VA., June 12.—The officials of the Norfolk & Western Railroad Company today said that the situation in the Pocahontas coal field has gradually improved and that the outlook for a final and early settlement of the trouble is considerably brighter. Forty mines out of 46 are working today. Some of them have small forces.

Aid for the Strikers.

TWO VICTIMS WERE OVERCOME BY HEAT

SUDDEN RISE IN TEMPERATURE CAUSED MUCH SUFFERING.

The Mercury Climbed to 88 Yesterday and Remained at That Point for Two Hours—Excessive Humidity Helped Make the Day Uncomfortable.

The highest temperature of the month, four degrees less than the hottest day of the season, was experienced in Pittsburgh yesterday. There were two prostrations from heat, and general discomfort was felt from the temperature combined with the excessive amount of humidity in the atmosphere. The thermometer reached the altitude of 88 degrees. A day in May was the hottest one of the season, when the mercury mounted to 92 degrees.

The heat was particularly noticeable because the weather for several days had been quite cool. Straw hats became more popular, negligé shirts and belts were seen numerously, and many wilted collars sat on citizens boarding trolley cars for home in the early evening.

Between 8 and 10 p. m. the air was sultry and a heavy thunderstorm seemed imminent, to judge from the oppressiveness of the air. Lightning was seen in the distance and at 11 o'clock a breeze sprung up, cooling the air 10 degrees by midnight, but there was no rain at that hour.

John Hagan of Mayflower street was walking along Larimer avenue, when he was suddenly overcome and fell to the sidewalk. He was unconscious from the heat, and made his condition worse by striking his forehead against a trolley pole and cutting a gash several inches long. He was taken in the police patrol wagon to St. Francis hospital.

Frank Delemty, a Hungarian, of No. 108 Woods Run avenue, Allegheny, was overcome by the heat while at work in the Pennsylvania car wheel works. He was taken to his home by a patrol wagon.

FOREIGN CAPITAL IN ELECTRIC ALLIANCE

New Purchasers of Stanley Company Will Be Formidable Competitors of Old Concerns.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, June 12.—A party which included several foreigners paid a visit to the Stanley Electric Manufacturing Company's plant near Pittsfield, Mass., today, headed by M. G. Starrett, chief engineer of the Metropolitan Railroad Company. Inquiry in this city brought out the fact that an alliance had been formed which will prove of great importance in the history of electrical development in this country.

A combination has been effected between the Whitney-Elkins-Ryan-Dolan syndicate, which purchased the Stanley company's plant a few weeks ago, and Ganz & Co. of Budapest, Hungary, the largest manufacturers of electrical appliances in Europe. When the extension of the Stanley plant is completed this alliance will make that corporation probably the most extensive electrical company in America. In the control of the syndicate are railroads in this city, Philadelphia, Chicago, New Jersey and Connecticut, which furnished 37 per cent of the business done last year by the Westinghouse and General Electric companies. Mr. Dolan is president of the United Gas Improvement Company, which operates 150 lighting plants in as many cities and large towns. This company and the other lighting companies in the control of the syndicate supplied 30 per cent more of the business of the Westinghouse and General Electric companies. The syndicate intends to turn all this business over to the Stanley company.

PTOMAINE POISONING.

A Chorus Girl Is Dangerously Ill From Eating Veal at Dinner.

Miss Allie Marshall, a member of the chorus at the Duquesne Garden, may die from ptomaine poisoning. She was very low at midnight and had been under the almost continual care of a physician for nearly 12 hours.

Miss Marshall is boarding at No. 3 Mawhinney street and yesterday one of the articles for dinner was veal. Miss Marshall partook of it and soon after going to her room was taken with violent cramps. Simple remedies were at first tried, but as they gave no relief Dr. H. Davis of Fifth avenue was sent for.

He gave the young woman the usual remedies, but they did no good. He pronounced her suffering from ptomaine poisoning, but could not account for the severity of the attack and the peculiarly complicated symptoms. The fact that none of the others who had partaken of the meal were made ill was also mystifying.

It was several hours before Miss Marshall showed any signs of relief. For many hours she was on the verge of collapse and at midnight was still in danger. Dr. Davis said that there was no doubt but that the poisoning was caused by the veal.

Miss Marshall is 23 years of age and her home is in New Haven, Conn. Her mother was notified last night of her condition.

PROMINENT MEN INDICTED

Leading Citizens of Birmingham Accused of Embezzling Large Sums in Business.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., June 12.—Capt. Ruben F. Kolb, Henry B. Gray, George A. Blinn, Jr., and W. L. Dodd, prominent citizens of Birmingham, have been indicted on charges of embezzlement.

The indictments followed an investigation by the grand jury of the affairs of the Continental Security Redemption Company, and the Birmingham Debenture Company, both defunct, and the funds alleged to have been embezzled belonged to these concerns. The amounts alleged to have been fraudulently converted by each man, ranged from $2,000 to $30,000.

Capt. Kolb was the leader of the Kolb movement in Alabama some years ago, being twice a candidate for governor, and is one of the most prominent men in the state. Mr. Gray is treasurer of Jefferson county, and president of a local banking house. Mr. Dodd is president of the Southern Mutual Aid association, while Mr. Blinn is a prominent business man.

All parties deny the charges, and claim they will be vindicated upon trial.

Boy Suffocated to Death.

JOHNSTOWN, PA., June 12.—(Special.)—Harry Beam, 8 years old, son of Abraham Beam, was suffocated to death in the corn hopper of McDermott & Wertz's flour mill, this city, this afternoon. The lad had been accustomed to playing in the hoppers. The corn, passing into the hopper to be ground, drew the little fellow in. It was an hour before the boy's body could be recovered, a ton of corn covering it.

PLAYING BABE WAS DROWNED IN WASH TUB

Two-Year-Old Annie Schmutzer Was Found Dead by Her Mother.

CORONER'S GRIM RECORD

Many Other Deaths Were Reported to Him Yesterday—Lineman Was Electrocuted on Bridge and Engineer Was Killed.

While playing with a tub of water in the kitchen Annie Schmutzer, 2 years old, fell in the water and was drowned, at the home of her parents, at No. 17 Martin street, Mt. Washington, yesterday evening at 5 o'clock. The child was not found for a half hour. She was discovered by her mother, who was horror-stricken when she pulled the little girl out of the water dead.

Mrs. Schmutzer had been washing in the kitchen during the afternoon, and the baby was playing about her. She went to the store later and left her daughter Katie, eight years old, to watch over the little one. As soon as her mother left the house, Katie left the child and went to play with some children in the next yard.

While she was gone Annie was reaching over the side of the wash tub and lost her balance. She fell in the water. Her head and shoulders were submerged and she drowned. Her mother returned later and found her dead. Deputy Coroner Charles Campbell held the inquest last night.

John P. Link, 30 years old, lineman of the American Telegraph and Telephone Company, was electrocuted while working on the bridge at Dravosburg yesterday. He lived in McKeesport.

While cleaning his engine in the yards of the Pennsylvania railroad, near Twenty-eighth street, yesterday afternoon William Roland, 55 years old, married, an engineer, was killed by another passing engine. He had just left the cab to oil and clean the engine and was standing between the tracks. While working he failed to notice an engine coming in the opposite direction. The engine struck and killed him instantly. He lived at No. 1308 Adams street, Allegheny.

George Tinko, 15 years old, of No. 8 Pecock street, McKeesport, died at the McKeesport hospital yesterday morning of injuries received on Wednesday, by being run over by a train on the Monongahela Connecting railroad. His brother denied to the coroner that he was jumping on the train, as alleged by the trainmen. He said the switchman told his brother to throw the switch. He stepped on the wrong side of the track and the train passed over him.

Margerate Carroll, of No. 218 Stoddard street, died at her home yesterday, of injuries received on June 4, by being run over with a traction car at Anderson and Robinson streets, Allegheny. She was crossing the street at the time and was caught by the passing car. The wheels passed over her right foot. Blood poisoning set in, and she died at 7 o'clock last night. She was 59 years old.

George Cobert, 76 years old, real estate dealer of Fourth avenue, was found dead in bed at his boarding house at No. 5745 Parker street, East End, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. He had taken ill since Tuesday night, but refused to have medical aid summoned. Mrs. James Blaney, with whom he boarded, attended him, and yesterday morning she found him dead.

IRRIGATION TALK OPENS.

Will Be Ready for Amendment Today—Olmsted Defends the Rule Committee's Work.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—The house today adopted a special rule presented by Mr. Dalzell, for the consideration of the irrigation bill, which passed the senate some time ago, and devoted the day to general debate of the measure. Tomorrow the bill will be read for amendment under the five-minute rule. Several representatives spoke today in favor of the bill, but Mr. Ray, chairman of the judiciary committee, made a long legal argument against it.

Mr. Olmsted of Pennsylvania enlivened the proceedings with a humorous speech in reply to Mr. Cushman's recent attack on the committee on rules. Mr. Olmsted defended the machinery of the house, arguing that present legislative methods are necessary for the transaction of public business. Fourteen thousand bills had been introduced at the present session. The house would have to sit night and day for 10 years to consider and pass on all of them.

Mr. Ray, chairman of the judiciary committee, asked unanimous consent that Monday after the consideration of bills under suspension of the rules, and Tuesday be set apart for the bill to amend the bankruptcy act. There was no objection and the order was made.

CABLE APPROACHES.

First Actual Move Made in San Francisco—Seek Permit for Conduit Under Streets.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—The first actual move in the direction of establishing cable communication from San Francisco to Honolulu and Manila was made today, when the Commercial Pacific Cable Company asked the supervisors' permission to use the streets for a conduit from the proposed landing at the western end of Fulton street to the company's office on Market street, near Montgomery.

The petition asserts that it is the intention of the promoters to lay and operate a submarine cable between San Francisco and Honolulu and Manila, and that the enterprise will be ready for operation during November of this year.

Work on the project has already begun, it is declared, and the laying of cable will begin within 90 days.

CONVENT PROPERTY SEIZED.

The Catholic Church of Porto Rico Asks for Its Restoration.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—(Special.)—Bishop Blenk of Porto Rico conferred with Secretary Hay today regarding the return of what were formerly convent lands of the Roman Catholic church. During the Spanish occupation, and just before the American invasion, the buildings and lands of two convents were seized and put to military use by the Spanish. One of the convents is valued at $70,000 and the other at $100,000. On the surrender this property was seized by the United States.

Bishop Blenk on behalf of the Roman Catholic church recently appealed to Gov. Hunt to return the property to the church. Gov. Hunt considered the application with considerable favor, but he was of the opinion that the governor was not vested in authority sufficient to make a decision. He referred Bishop Blenk to the state department. The probability is that Secretary Hay will recommend to congress that the property be restored to the church.

YANKEE CRUISERS PREPARED TO SAIL

HELD AT SAN JUAN FOR POSSIBLE SERVICE AT LA GUAYRA.

Germany Has Not Been Asked to Explain Presence of Her Warships in Venezuelan Waters—Caracas Not in Imminent Danger.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—While no information has been received to lead the state department to believe the insurrection in Venezuela is about to become more sanguinary than usual, two warships, the Topeka and Cincinnati, are at San Juan, Porto Rico, ready to steam to La Guayra. The navy department is holding them for any request which the state department may make.

Herr von Holleben, the German ambassador, called at the state department today, but it was said later he had made no explanation to the department regarding the mission of the German cruisers Falke and Gazelle, which left St. Thomas suddenly on Wednesday for La Guayra. The department did not regard the action of sufficient importance to warrant inquiry. Herr von Holleben said later the Falke and Gazelle were sent on no particular mission, save that of a regular cruise, and that their stay at La Guayra had no bearing on the collection of the German debt, over which there was a great furore last December, when this government requested Germany to explain her aggressive tactics.

Gen. Matos has, according to private advices received by a legal representative of a Venezuelan company here, driven the governor of Bolivar from his stronghold. The governor fled and at once threw obstructions across the Orenoco above Cuidad Bolivar, which is at least 400 miles distant from Caracas, and much further than that by the winding and rough roads of Venezuela. How effective the blockade of the river is, is not definitely known; but, doubtless it will check the advance of Matos, temporarily, at least. Hence it is not believed that he is near enough to Caracas to awaken imminent fear of a clash with the government forces.

BERLIN, June 12.—The foreign office here is without details of the reported bombardment of the seaport of La Guayra, Venezuela, by the forts and Venezuelan warships in consequence of a revolutionary movement in the suburbs.

The foreign office, however, takes the occasion of this inquiry to say that the German cruisers Gazelle and Falke were ordered to La Guayra simply to safeguard German interests there and that their presence in Venezuelan waters is in no way connected with Germany's long-pending claims against Venezuela. As soon as order is restored the cruisers will leave Venezuela.

Emperor William has ordered the training ships Charlotte and Stosch to cruise in the West Indies and the training ships Stain and Moltke to cruise in the North Atlantic.

INNES SEEKS DIVORCE.

Wife Denies Bandmaster's Charges and Retaliates by Seeking Decree Against Him.

NEW YORK, June 12.—(Special.)—Mrs. Georgia F. Innes, wife of Frederick N. Innes, the bandmaster, bit her lip and looked pleadingly at a jury in the supreme court today while A. H. Hummel, her husband's counsel, was reading a letter purporting to have been written by her to E. H. Crowhurst of Philadelphia, addressed, "My Beloved Ernest," containing many affectionate expressions.

Mr. Innes asks an absolute divorce, and while in his complaint he named several co-respondents, the evidence was confined to her relations with Mr. Crowhurst. Each co-respondent was represented by counsel, having put in a denial to the charges made.

Mrs. Innes not only says she is wrongfully accused, but makes counter-charges against her husband, which he in turn denies. She asks for a divorce from him.

James J. Corbett, former pugilist, was named as one of the co-respondents in the action, but before the trial began it was stated that, as he was not in the city and could not be present, the charges against him would be withdrawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Innes were married in Philadelphia about nine years ago. They separated last summer, when, he alleges, he received evidence of her indiscretions.

DEATH LIST GROWS.

Child Killed by Cyclone in Illinois—Picnickers Hurt in Iowa.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., June 12.—Wire communication through McLean county is being resumed and additional details of Tuesday night's tornado are coming to light. One more death is added to the list of McLean county victims, Cora Reynolds, 2 years old.

DES MOINES, IA., June 12.—For the first time in two days telegraph and telephone communication with Washington has been obtained.

Four wagonloads of students enjoying a picnic at Coppoc were caught by the storm. One wagon containing nine members of the high school class which had just graduated, sought shelter in a schoolhouse, which was blown to pieces, burying all in the debris, and all were injured, one fatally.

CAPT. BARROWE'S SURPRISE.

Though Under Conviction He Finds Freedom Awaiting Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Among the passengers who arrived on the transport Warren was Capt. Frank W. Barrowes, late of the Thirtieth Infantry, United States volunteers, one of the officers who was court-martialed in Manila a little more than a year ago for alleged frauds committed in the commissary department.

Barrowes was convicted and sentenced to a term of five years' imprisonment in the United States penitentiary, but, although he has served only a small portion of his sentence, he finds an order for his release from custody awaiting him here. This release is due to the supreme court decision in the Deming case.

Panama Railroad Deal.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Announcement was made today that a three-year contract had been signed by the Pacific Mail Steamship Company and the Panama Railroad Company, by which the first named company will control traffic originating at and destined to points on the Pacific coast north of Panama.

YAQUIS LINED UP AND MASSACRED

TUCSON, A. T., June 12.—A special from Lacananea tells of the shooting of 14 Yaqui miners Tuesday by Mexican rurales. The miners had been working for the Green Consolidated Mining Company and were camped two miles below the works. A squad of rurales marched to their tents and the officers in command told them that there was a Mexican official two miles below their camp who was to register them. They marched down to a designated spot, where they were lined up and shot.

POLITICIANS HOME FROM THE CONVENTION

Defeated Ones Are Bearing Their Disappointment With Fortitude and Victors Are Gracious.

The Pittsburgh and Allegheny politicians and delegates to the state convention at Harrisburg returned home yesterday. Many reached the city during the morning, but not a few stayed over in the state capital and did not reach home until last night.

The first party that came arrived at 2:15 o'clock yesterday morning. Several of the delegates came on this train and Recorder J. O. Brown was also a passenger. Tired but very enthusiastic over the results of the convention, the politicians were busy all day yesterday discussing the prospects for the election of the Republican candidates this fall.

The overwhelming victory of Judge Pennypacker over Attorney General Elkin came as a surprise for many of the Allegheny delegates, but they accepted their defeat with good grace and there appears to be very little discord or soreness as the result of the selections.

The first gun of the campaign will be fired in a few days, and from this time on all the party representatives have stated they will work hard for the election of the whole ticket at the November election.

The politicians generally expected some warm statements to be issued from Recorder Brown and County Recorder George M. von Bonnhorst over the split of the Allegheny delegation at the convention, but both Recorders Brown and Von Bonnhorst were as evasive as possible in their utterances.

Recorder Brown said he was still a Republican and would support the Republican county ticket this fall and use his every effort for the betterment of the party. He stated also that Senator Quay had taken charge of the campaign and that no doubt the state committee would open up a fight that would be favorable to all.

County Recorder George M. von Bonnhorst said that there were no differences between Recorder Brown and himself and that without any deal the delegates from the Sixth legislative district had voted for Judge Pennypacker because they thought it was for the best interests of the Republican party.

The organization candidate for sheriff, Archibald Mackrell, was disappointed over the result of the convention and stated that the general sentiment in Allegheny county had always been for Elkin, as he, in his opinion, was the strongest candidate for the gubernatorial office.

Both Thomas S. and E. M. Bigelow stated they were entirely satisfied with the nomination of Judge Pennypacker and Dr. Cadwalader Evans expressed himself as being delighted with the selection. Attorney William J. Brennen believes Judge Pennypacker will be a harder candidate for the Democratic forces to defeat than Attorney General Elkin would have been.

MURPHY MAY TRY TO GET REVENGE ON CITY OFFICERS

Reported That He Will Dismiss Director McAfee and John Francis.

NO NOTICE SERVED TO DATE

The Recorder Refuses to Announce Publicly His Intentions, but Says He Is a Republican and Will Be for the Ticket This Fall.

Director Robert McAfee of the department of public works of Allegheny will, it is expected, lose his official position during the coming week. Although Recorder John R. Murphy has not said publicly he will dispense with Director McAfee's services, he has intimated as much to several of his personal and political friends.

Recorder Murphy gives as his reasons for taking this step that his director of public works is not a Republican and he says that he is swinging the ax for the benefit of the party on the North Side. Director McAfee, who has been ill for the past week, has not been giving any attention to politics, and was informed yesterday for the first time of Recorder Murphy's intention to dismiss him.

Recorder Murphy is a much disappointed man as a result of the state convention. He went to Harrisburg with the delegates from the North Side, whom he is said to have pledged solid to the postscript governor for Attorney General Elkin. The desertion from the Elkin ranks of Councilman U. H. Stauffer has incurred the recorder's enmity and he is determined to have several scalps as the result.

It is said to be the intention of Recorder Murphy when he makes the proposed changes in the officials of the North Side to appoint friends to the positions who will help him in his fight in the November election. The Citizens party is a source of great worry to the recorder and he is determined to have his political slate pulled through at the coming election at almost any cost.

"I am a Republican and a straight Republican at that," said Recorder Murphy to a Gazette reporter last night when asked if he had made a statement to the effect that Director McAfee and John Francis, who has charge of the market house, were to be dismissed.

"When you say you are a Republican, do you mean to infer that Director McAfee is not a Republican?" was asked.

"I have nothing to say. I am a Republican," was the curt answer.

"Have you notified Director McAfee of his dismissal?"

"I have nothing to say. I am a Republican."

"Recorder, how does the nomination of Judge Pennypacker for governor suit you?"

"I have told you I have nothing to say. I am a Republican and intend to vote the straight Republican ticket this fall."

For the first time in several weeks Director McAfee was able to be about his home in California avenue, Allegheny, yesterday. He was averse to talking politics last night but said that he had learned of Recorder Murphy's statements during the day.

Director McAfee said that he had not received as yet any official notice from Recorder Murphy that he had been deposed as director of public works. He stated that he had not seen the Allegheny chief executive since his illness and that he had not learned positively of any of his political intentions.

Beside the proposed removal of Director McAfee, from the department of public works, and also of John Francis, as custodian of the Allegheny market house, it was rumored in the North Side last night that Gov. Stone's recorder would make many more changes in the next few days.

"Recorder Murphy is just whetting his ax now," was the expression of a prominent Allegheny politician last night, "and when he gets it sharpened to a razor edge, the official heads of many on the North Side pay roll will drop off."

NEW COMPANY WILL INCREASE ITS STOCK

The New Process Steel Company Proposes a Jump From $100,000 to $3,000,000.

J. H. Kendin of No. 133 West Fifteenth avenue, Homestead, advertised in Homestead yesterday that there will be a meeting on Monday of the New Process Steel Company for the purpose of increasing the capital stock from $100,000 to $3,000,000, the increase to be used for the purpose of erecting three steel foundries, a forge shop, blast furnaces and coke ovens, and to purchase coal, ore, gas and limestone properties, now under option.

Mr. Kendin is employed in the open hearth department of the Homestead Steel works. He refuses to give any information about the New Process Steel Company further than to say that the eastern stockholders want no publicity until the company is fully organized, as proposed in the advertisement.

Pittsburgh Capitalists Interested in Enterprise at Derry, Pa.

FIFTY HOUSES PROJECTED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., June 12.—William J. Hervey, late general manager of the Shenango China Company of New Castle, Pa., is in the city placing orders for machinery for five potteries which are to be erected at Derry, Pa. The potteries will each be of seven-kiln capacity.

The company which will build the potteries has been organized at Pittsburgh and has secured a charter. Its capital is $100,000, and the officers are as follows: President, Patrick Ridge of Keeling & Ridge of Pittsburgh; secretary and general manager, William J. Hervey; treasurer, Joseph Keeling. Gov. William A. Stone and Judge Potter are reported to be interested.

The company has purchased 500 acres of land lying along the Pennsylvania railroad at Derry and will erect a large brickyard to manufacture brick to build the new factories and houses for the workmen. Work is to start by July 1 on the first of the pottery plants and also on 50 houses to accommodate the workmen.

The new plants will all be of the most modern design and each of them will be 132x500 feet. They will employ from 1,000 to 1,200 operators. INCENDIARY FIRE DOES MUCH DAMAGE

Wheeling Factories Burned Causing Loss of About $150,000.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WHEELING, W. VA., June 12.—An incendiary fire this morning in the preserve factory of Exley Watkins & Co. on Nineteenth street entirely destroyed the building and its contents, causing a loss of $85,000. The Acme box factory and the Wheeling mattress works, 50,000 feet of lumber, owned by J. W. Beltz & Sons Company, were also burned. The aggregate loss is about $150,000, and the insurance about $100,000.

The buildings were in ashes within an hour after the fire was discovered, the fire department being delayed by clogged water plugs.

Charles Abrams, a boy, was rescued from the box factory, where he tried to save the books. He was badly burned and unconscious. The box factory and preserve works were destroyed by fire a few years ago.

HUSBAND WANTS MONEY.

Suit at Ebensburg for Alienating Wife's Affections.

JOHNSTOWN, PA., June 12.—(Special.)—Conrad Keim, the former Johnstown sculptor, in court at Ebensburg today was the principal witness in a suit in which he seeks to recover $10,000 from Contractor William H. Smith of Johnstown for the alienation of Keim's wife's affections.

The sensation of the trial was the appearance of Keim's 10-year-old daughter on the stand. She testified that Smith gave her money to induce her to say nothing of his visits to her mother. Smith denies the allegations against him. A letter produced in court and alleged to have been written by Smith says:

"Meet me at the old place. Will look for you. Be careful."

ALL REFUSE TO BURY A CORPSE

Remains of a Smallpox Victim Lies Uninterred in Maryland.

TEN CASES IN ONE SECTION

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CUMBERLAND, MD., June 12.—John McCloskey, aged about 40 years, died last night from smallpox, at his home seven miles from Hancock. He helped to bury his brother Jacob, who died a month ago from the same disease. No one would touch Jacob's body until the county health board sent Andrew Hoffman from Hagerstown, who with the assistance of John McCusker took the body out on the farm on a two-wheeled drag and buried it. While removing the body the brother contracted the disease.

Efforts are being made to have Mr. Hoffman bury the second victim, but because of the abuse heaped on him by people in the community because he described his experience to a newspaper man, he hesitates, although he was paid $161 for the first interment.

There are 10 other cases of smallpox in that vicinity, and it is said the first one was carried from Pinto, this county.

RECORD AGAIN BROKEN IN COKE PRODUCTION

Output of the Connellsville Region Increases With Advanced Prices Offered.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., June 12.—The Courier will say tomorrow:

Coke production in the Connellsville region breaks a record every week now. The tonnage last week exceeded 250,000 tons for the first time in the history of the region. Including the tonnage of the Lower Connellsville region, production last week was close to 300,000 tons. The almost liberal supply of cars being furnished by the railroads is attributed to the anthracite coal strike. The coke sold to former consumers of anthracite is not noticeable in the markets, despite the frequent reports of trade papers to the contrary. Prices for spot delivery coke continue high. Offers of $2 50 are frequent, and $2 75 and $2 80 a ton for furnace has been refused in several instances. The quotation is still $2 25 and most of the coke which is being sold on long contracts is being delivered at that figure.

The detailed report of the operation and output of the region for the week ending on Saturday, June 7, shows a total of 21,425 ovens, of which 20,659 were active and 772 were idle. The total production for the week exceeded all previous records, being 250,884 tons, compared with 249,995 tons the previous week. There were no changes in the active and idle list of ovens, 772 being reported. The region made what would be called a six days run. There were but two or three works that failed to get in full time.

Shipments for the week aggregated 12,065 cars, distributed as follows: To Pittsburgh and river tipples, 4,155 cars; to points west of Pittsburgh, 4,045 cars; to points east of Connellsville, 2,865 cars. This was a decrease of 319 cars compared with the shipments of the previous week. The western shipments fell off considerably, while Pittsburgh and eastern shipments showed substantial gains.

The average time made in the Lower Connellsville region last week was better than during the previous week and tonnage was higher than it has been before. The output estimated at 75,150 tons, compared with 74,935 tons the previous week. Shipments were 776 cars.

New Prices on Some of the Men's and the Boys' Clothing.

Just our own stock, made expressly for us. It is refreshing, we believe, to hear that at least one store offers its own best clothing for reduced prices. Not all of it, to be sure, but enough to make lively times in the fourth floor department devoted to the sale of Men's and Boys' Clothing, today and tomorrow.

The monotonous weekly sameness about gobbled stocks is a very pretty song, but the trouble is it is sung in one key by many voices, and in time the discordant jangle becomes laughable.

Today and tomorrow from a stock containing every kind of clothes worn by elderly and young men, big and little boys, there is an opportunity to buy light, cool Summer Suits for much lower prices than we usually charge.

Men's Suits: Two hundred Suits for $12.50 each that we formerly charged $15 and $18 for. There are fancy patterns in cheviot and worsted; there are blue serges and plain black and blue cheviots. The lines are broken, but collectively there are all sizes.

Young Men's Suits: A large lot for $8.50 a suit that are worth and sold for more money. About everything young men affect—fancy checks, gray and brown indistinct stripes, plain blue serges and cheviots and fancy mixtures in medium and light colors.

In our better grade of young men's suits we have a special offer for today and tomorrow at $12. In the collection are some suits that sold for $20. Scotch tweeds, gray striped French flannels, serge cheviots, blue serges and black thibets, and there are fancy mixtures and brown and gray mixtures.

Boys' Suits—We take a number of the Joseph Horne Co. Special Suits which always sell for $5 and mark them to $3.50. Double and single breasted styles in fancy dark and light mixtures, and special blue serge suits. When it is known these J. H. Co. suits for the regular price are the equal of most $7.50 suits in the Pittsburg market, the remarkable reduction will be best understood.

Young Fellows' Wash Vests—8 to 16 years—fancy checks, stripes and plaids—sold for $2.25 and $2.50—are down to the even $1.

Boys' Wash Suits—different materials and color effects—sold for $2.50 and $3.50—today for $1.50. You'll find them a little mussed.

P. S.—This is a remarkable postscript. We have a limited number of Boys' Outing Suits that sold for $6, $8 and $10. We will close the line for $2 the suit. The coat alone is worth double the price. Sizes for boys 7 to 19 years of age but not a great many of them. Light-weight skeleton suit, the knee-trousers in bloomer style. Splendid for any kind of athletic game.

Half Prices and Less for Shirtwaists.

Yesterday 2,400 Shirtwaists went on sale for Half Prices and less. There are not so many now, but the assortment is practically intact, for that is a great number of shirtwaists. Probably double the number one could find elsewhere.

So either today or tomorrow you should own several of these waists, for we candidly believe there will not be such another opportunity this present Summer.

Fine Madras Waists, 75c instead of $1.25 and $1.50. A large group of pretty stripes and figures. All sizes. Arranged conveniently for easy selection.

Fine Ingrain Waists, $1 instead of $1.75 and $2. A remarkably interesting collection of stylish waists—unquestionably the greatest offer of fine waists we ever made.

English Cheviot Waists, $1.50 instead of $2.50. Representing our fast selling styles. Makers are out of material and cannot deliver any more this season.

Fine White Lawn Waists, $1—sheer materials with cluster tucks and rows of fine inserting; full sleeve, narrow tucked cuffs.

White Lawn Waists, $1.50 instead of $2.50. Prettily trimmed with inserting and tucks. The shipment came in a bit late, but the maker stands the loss.

White Jacquard-Weave Waists, $2.50. New effects in lace stripes and small figures. Soft stocks. Correct waist for cool evenings or early morning. Lots are not large. None to be had after these are sold.

White Waists, $5 instead of $6 and $6.50. Quite a few of our exclusive waists in white with embroidery and lace trimmings. Smart styles that are so generally admired.

Girls' Traveling Coats and Dresses.

For $8—$12 and $15 grades—Girls' three-quarter length Traveling Coats of tan covert cloth, lined throughout with satin. The sleeves are in the raglan style. Sizes 12, 14 and 16 years.

For $12—Girls' Russian and Gibson Dresses of blue mohair. Just the thing to wear when traveling or when running about in the country. Sizes 6 to 12 years.

Come to the Parasol Sale

News of Dress and Walking Skirts.

Several new styles in Skirts will be on sale today, representing the newest conceits of skirt-making, and at prices for rapid selling.

By the way, we are showing an entirely new effect in a Shantung Pongee Walking Skirt at $12.50. And in Mohair and Sicilian our stock is exceptionally complete. These fabrics are extremely popular and justly so. While a scarcity of good cloths exists, we have anticipated the demand and are—Ready.

Young People's Shoes.

Mothers know that the feet of growing children require more precision in fitting than do the feet of persons who have reached maturity. For that very reason we are overly zealous of our shoes for young people. Nothing but the best for the least satisfies us, with a particular regard for correctness in fit.

Boys' Shoes and Oxfords that will stand the wear that boys know how to give shoes. All the leathers and all the sizes, $2 to $3.

Misses' and Children's Shoes and Oxfords, made over natural foot lasts, comprising every style that is worn—any and every size, $1.25 to $3.

Barefoot Sandals—the Summer fad. Women wear them, girls wear them, boys wear them. A big stock—but selling fast.

Don't forget that tomorrow is Flag Day, celebrated the country over, and that the American Flag Association asks you to fly the American Flag from your home. Nothing but best Silk and Bunting Flags here in all sizes.

SMALL BOYS WERE THE BEST FIGHTERS IN THE BOER WAR

Many of the Surrendering Soldiers Are Youngsters of Eleven Years.

BURGHERS BECOMING LOYAL TO THE KING

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THIS GAZETTE.]

PRETORIA, June 12.—In all 10,225 Boers have surrendered to date. Many are youngsters of 11 years and upward. The majority of them are under 20, though some of the burghers who have surrendered are septuagenarians.

Reports from all the districts say that the burghers are increasingly friendly. The only bitterness observable among the leading Boers here is against France and Germany. They declare the war was protracted unnecessarily owing to hopes held out by the French and German press. Some of the Boers are so incensed that they have expressed the hope that some day they will fight on the side of the British against one of these powers.

The anticipated friction between the surrendered Boers and their former comrades of the national scouts has not materialized to any extent. The Boers admit they received ammunition through Portuguese territory.

Gen. DeWet says the youngsters were his best fighters and frequently held positions after the older burghers had cleared out.

The Boers of the Orange River Colony are handing in only a small percentage of their ammunition. They explain that they used most of it in hunting game since the peace agreement was signed.

Addressing the surrendered Boers at Kroonstadt, Orange River Colony, Gen. Elliott said the only wish of King Edward, his government and the British people was to help the burghers and get them back to their farms so soon as possible. The king, the general added, had telegraphed, congratulating the burghers on the good stand they had made. This announcement was greeted with lusty cheers for the king and for Lord Kitchener.

Consul General Says After Pension Experience, He Braves Anything.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

(Copyright, 1902, by the New York Herald Co.)

LONDON, June 12.—H. Clay Evans, the new United States consul general for London, arrived this morning, having reached Southampton last night on the St. Paul. With him were Mrs. Evans and his two daughters.

Mr. Evans' welcome to English shores was a peculiar one. As he stepped from the ship at Southampton a tall, lank man stepped forward and shook hands. Mr. Evans told me tonight he though it was a reporter and nerved himself for an interview, but the unknown said:

"General, I am from the Salvation Army and come to give you our blessing in God on your future work."

"I was amazed," continued Mr. Evans, "at the apparently small volume of Atlantic travel. At dinner on the first day the saloon was not two-thirds full. I shall take charge of the consulate next Monday, and tomorrow I expect to call on Ambassador Choate.

"When I left Washington some friends asked me if I was not afraid to leave the country, in view of the volcanic eruptions and other disturbances of nature going on. I told them that after six years at the pension office, even volcanoes had no terror for me."

Gen. Wilson, accompanied by Mrs. and the Misses Wilson, Admiral Watson, with Lieut. Edmund Watson, and Capt. W. M. Cowles, members of the special American coronation embassy, also arrived on the St. Paul and came up to London in a special car. The Wilsons went to Claridge's and there found cards for the royal court tomorrow. The Misses Wilson at once dashed off to a prominent West End dressmaker, who promised to turn them out in court costumes in time for the function. This probably is the quickest preparation for attending royal court on record.

VESSEL BURNED AT SEA.

No Signs of Life Aboard and No Marks to Identify Ship.

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—An unknown sailing vessel on fire far to the eastward of Nantucket shoals was sighted on June 9 by Capt. Stabell of the Norwegian steamship Nora, which arrived at Chester, Pa., today, for Hillsboro, N. C. The Nora's course was changed toward the burning craft, but the work of the fire had been so complete that it was impossible to identify the vessel. There were no signs of the crew and it is thought that all on board perished.

COL. HENRY'S WIDOW WINS DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST AN EDITOR

Settlement of a Case Growing Out of the Dreyfus Trial.

WOMAN AND HER SON GET 500 FRANCS EACH

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PARIS, June 12.—As a result of the suit begun in January, 1899, by Madame Henry, widow of Lieut. Col. Henry, against Joseph Reinach, former editor of the Siecle, and against that paper, 200,000 francs damages being claimed for alleged injury to herself through the accusations made against her deceased husband by M. Reinach in the Siecle, the court today condemned M. Reinach and the manager of the Siecle to pay 500 francs to the widow, 500 francs to her son and the costs of the action.

Lieut. Col. Henry committed suicide in prison after having confessed to the forgery of a document in the Dreyfus case.

The court said it took into account the good faith of the defendants and the absence of any intention on their part to injure the widow and orphans, and also the circumstances under which they acted "after the revelation of the odious crime committed by him against whose memory they produced their imprudent allegations."

MORE SMALLPOX WAS DISCOVERED

SIX NEW CASES FOUND YESTERDAY, MAKING 26 THIS WEEK.

Municipal Hospital Is Overcrowded and Victims May Have to Be Housed in Tents—Out-of-Town Physicians Will Soon Be Prosecuted.

Smallpox continues to increase in this city. Twenty-six cases have been sent to the Municipal hospital this week. Yesterday six more cases were sent there. The hospital is overflowing with smallpox victims. The officers said yesterday that they would be compelled to quarter them in tents if the epidemic was not checked in a few days.

At the present time there are 80 cases at the hospital. Most of these are colored people. In addition to these over 100 persons are held in quarantine at various places about the city. City Physician B. A. Booth said if many of these persons develop the disease it would be very difficult to quarter and treat them on account of the inadequate facilities.

The district physicians are working steadily every day vaccinating the residents in their districts. Some 1,800 persons submitted themselves to the virus point yesterday, and 2,800 virus quills were distributed among physicians in the city. Dr. Booth said that the health officers were doing everything they could to check the spread of the disease. Most of the victims now are residents of the city. A month ago there were very few of the inmates of the Municipal hospital that lived in the city limits. Most of them came from the surrounding townships.

Director A. H. Leslie said he intended to enter proceedings against the various physicians in the adjoining counties for sending smallpox patients here to be cared for by the city health department.

Just as soon as some of these patients at the Municipal hospital recover sufficiently they will be taken before Police Magistrate Bernard McKenna and make affidavit with reference to the manner in which they were sent to this city. Informations will then be made against the physicians who sent them, and they will be arrested.

Most of the cases taken to the Municipal hospital yesterday were from quarantined houses. Gertrude Grogan, 7 years old of No. 2228 Tustin street, was removed to the Municipal hospital yesterday afternoon, and Mable Reed, 18 years old of No. 346 Main street, was taken there. Both girls are white.

John Gum, 20 years old, colored, of No. 526 Stockholm street, was taken to the hospital yesterday. John Dillard, 21 years old, and Samuel Hamlin, 30 years old, both colored, were taken to the hospital from the same house.

Mary Greer, white, of No. 5403 Friendship avenue, was also taken to the hospital. She had been ill for a week, and the physicians discovered yesterday she had smallpox.

NINETEEN NURSES WERE GRADUATED

Successful Commencement Exercises Held at West Penn Hospital Last Evening.

Nineteen nurses, composing the class of 1902, were graduated last night with appropriate exercises by the medical and surgical department of the West Penn hospital. The management had made elaborate preparations for the event, and it passed off very successfully. Many prominent Pittsburgh and out-of-town persons were in attendance, and among the guests was Dr. Charles O'Reilly, general superintendent of the Toronto (Can.) General hospital, who is the personal guest of Charles S. Howell, superintendent of the West Penn hospital.

The Rev. F. W. Sneed, D.D., opened the exercises with prayer, and the address for the evening followed, being delivered by J. T. Duryea, M. D., general medical superintendent of Kings County hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y. His talk was complimentary to the hospital management and the graduating nurses, whom he impressed with the great importance of their calling. Mr. Robert Pitcairn presented the diplomas to the class, supplementing the presentation with a few remarks. The badges of the hospital were presented by M. C. Cameron, M. D. The Rev. Dr. McKee closed the exercises with a benediction. A ball followed the exercises. Gernert's orchestra furnishing the music.

The following were graduated: Lillian L. Johnson, Bessie Stallings, Josephine S. Zahniser, Elizabeth Meckbach, Leigh A. Thompson, Agnes Macpherson, Margaret McCray, Carrie B. Robertson, Gertrude B. Johns, Clara E. Boyd, Anna W. Force, Anna L. Purdy, Nora Hickey, Florence E. Hanran, Martha MacMurray, Genevieve Tassey, Alice Thomas, Winnifred M. Baker and Belle L. Falconer.

WAGE ADVANCE GRANTED.

More Furnace Owners Accede to Demands of the Men.

The Ella and Fannie blast furnaces at West Middlesex, near Sharon, went into blast yesterday, the company having granted the men an advance of 10 per cent in wages, and reduced the laborers' working time to nine hours.

It was announced in Pittsburgh yesterday that the blast furnacemen employed at the furnaces of the United States Steel corporation had received the advance in wages granted to the blast furnace workers of the Shenango and Mahoning valleys, which was a 10 per cent increase. The Shenango furnace in Sharpsville is running in full, the only furnace running in that neighborhood. The furnace is paying the increase in wages asked by the strikers, but has refused to discharge the non-union men employed at the beginning of the strike. Other furnaces owners in the district are willing to pay the advance, but their employes will not work until the Shenango furnace has agreed to discharge its non-union men.

SURVEYING LAST LINK.

Cleveland Engineers Work on Line to This City.

A survey is being made for the eastern link in the traction system which is to reach from Pittsburgh to Cleveland. The new line, which has so far been laid out, begins on the hillside above the Panhandle tracks at Corks run and extends along the hill through Esplen, crossing Chartiers creek and proceeding along Grant street, McKees Rocks.

From there a long viaduct will be built across the yards of the Pittsburgh, Cleveland & Youngstown railroad to Fruit way, which it follows to Island avenue and the McCoy road. Here it will connect with the line for which right of way has been secured to Coraopolis. Surveyors are from Cleveland.

SOMETHING ORIGINAL.

Clay Clement's New Play "Ping-Pong" Is Full of Fun.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Clay Clement's new comedy, "Ping Pong," was produced at the Studebaker theatre tonight by a cast including W. J. Ferguson, Wilfred Clarke, Charles Harbury, Charles Canfield, Bert Haverly, Kerra Kenwyn, Mabel Strickland and Grace Griswold.

The piece is a highly original conceit that has the source of its fun in a brisk travesty on pseudo spiritualism. The characters are quaint and well defined types, and the important situations bounce from one difficulty into another so constantly that the name "Ping Pong" is well chosen.

THE PIANOLA

The Only Perfect Piano Player

Briefly stated, the Pianola is an instrument by means of which anyone can play upon the piano any pianoforte selection ever composed—no matter how difficult. The player controls the expression and therefore experiences all the pleasure of hand-playing.

The popularity of the piano, despite its thousands of compositions locked behind a baffling technique, makes the enthusiasm created by the Pianola readily understood.

Music is desirable under all circumstances. If there are guests to entertain, an impromptu dance suggested, or for a college "sing," the Pianola will be found an ever-ready accompanist. Perhaps you prefer a concert with Paderewski or a Hofmann, or would like to run over the airs you heard at last night's opera. With the Pianola every taste may be gratified, whether it calls for grand or light opera, rag-time favorites, old-fashioned melodies, or accompaniments for solo or chorus singing, violin or "'cello."

The price of the Pianola is but $250, yet it makes the piano worth all it was intended to be worth. It may be purchased by moderate payments.

Uniting on Pennypacker.

It is a gratifying tribute to honest manhood and a fine example of sane principles to find men who were a little while ago in the throes of hot contention uniting in expressions of satisfaction over the results of the convention at Harrisburg on Wednesday. Judge Pennypacker's name and record as a jurist and as a private citizen without spot or blemish has had the effect of stilling all factional clamor. Even the enemies of the Republican party stand amazed at the elements of strength already displayed by the ticket put forward by the convention. The bitterest critics of Senator Quay have to admit that his political foresight and sagacity were never more soundly vindicated than in the urgency with which he sought to have the convention name a candidate against whom no personal or factional objection could be urged.

Judge Pennypacker meets this requirement with admirable fullness. He commands respect from every class of citizens because of his lifelong probity of character and his entire disassociation throughout his public career with all political trickery. Never a politician, he yet possesses the very highest elements of successful political service—honest, straightforward conception of public duty, coupled with a broad knowledge of men and affairs. The very fact that such a man is to be the standard-bearer of Pennsylvania Republicans this fall has brought unity to the party and reinvigorated its strength, while it has spread dismay among those who hoped to profit through any blunder that might have been made at Harrisburg.

Much-Needed Funds.

It is sincerely to be hoped that the disagreeing city fathers will put aside their differences of opinion on law and procedure in councils long enough to make the transfer of certain much-needed funds from the contingent fund to the health fund, discussion of which has been a feature of legislative debates for several days. Of the $17,500 that it is proposed to make available for use of the health fund every cent is most urgently needed in actually safeguarding the health of the public.

The immediate introduction of a more elaborate system of disinfection for buildings that have housed contagious or infectious diseases is a prime necessity at this critical juncture, when the health board is bending every energy to hold at bay an incipient epidemic of smallpox. The same cause makes equally important the appropriation of $10,000 of the above-named sum for the purpose of adding to the capacity and efficiency of the municipal hospital, an institution that is struggling to meet the present needs under disadvantages that sorely handicap its work.

The money to carry out both these schemes for public protection should be speedily provided. It will represent possibly several human lives in the end.

Pass the Reciprocity Bill.

Reciprocity with Cuba is having rough sledding in congress, but it begins to look as though the administration's purpose would finally prevail, and that the sugar beet people would not succeed indefinitely in holding up this necessary legislation. Gentlemen in the senate who are trying to defeat the measure will be wise to take notice how the sentiment of the country is crystallizing in favor of reciprocity. The Pennsylvania Republican state convention has followed hard upon the heels of that of Ohio in support of the proposed measure. Here is what the Harrisburg platform says on this point:

To the end that our past contributions to the cause of Cuba may not be imperiled, but that prosperity and independence may go hand in hand, we endorse the recommendation of President Roosevelt that the United States should enter into reciprocal trade relations with the Republic of Cuba that shall be mutually advantageous to it and to the United States, and all efforts to that end of our representatives in both houses of congress we cordially endorse.

The beet sugar people know very well that the United States is morally bound to assist Cuba in getting on her feet and learning how to walk as an independent republic, but their plan of aiding the new nation is radically wrong. They propose a gift of money from the federal treasury. They call it a "rebate," but what they propose is really a gratuity. Setting aside all question as to the constitutionality of such procedure, the grant of money to a foreign government would be an exceedingly bad precedent to set. A thoroughly legal way, and a thoroughly honest way, of helping Cuba is to enter into reciprocal trade relations with her. In this way we can help ourselves, too, for the reciprocal terms proposed are advantageous to both governments. The plan is one by which both the United States and Cuba will profit. The subsidy project would hurt the Cubans' self-respect by making them think we thought it necessary to help them along by means of gratuities. All Cuba needs is proper encouragement, and this can be extended in a way that will not injure the self-respect of the Cubans, nor do the slightest damage to American interests, by the adoption of the reciprocity plan.

Proper View of Gov. Longino.

Gov. Longino of Mississippi has called attention to himself in two ways lately—first by inviting President Roosevelt to visit his state, promising the attraction of a bear hunt by way of emphasizing the invitation; and second by his defeat of a recent attempt at lynching. The governor's determination to curb the mob-murder spirit is most commendable. He does not resent the condemnation of lynching by President Roosevelt in his Memorial day address, as do so many critics in the southern states. He does not take it as an affront to the south. Nor did the president intend his remarks to be sectional. He declared the prevalence of lynching to be a disgrace to the United States, and so it is. Lynching is a disgrace to any community in which murder by mobs takes place, whether it be in the south or in the north, in the east or in the west.

It cannot be denied that lynching is far more prevalent south of Mason and Dixon's line than it is north of it. But that is no reason for southern resentment of the president's earnest words upon the subject. It is a reason for greater effort to educate the public mind to recognize the enormity of the offense, and for the law's officers to use more precautions to prevent its recurrence. The governor of Mississippi evidently takes this view, and he is to be commended for his application of the principle.

An Up-to-Date Enoch Arden.

The village of Ararat, Pa., has come to the front with an Enoch Arden story which is in striking contrast with that so pathetically related in Tennyson's famous poem. Seven years ago Simon Eustace started from home to buy a beefsteak, but he mysteriously disappeared and finally was given up for dead. Eventually Simon's wife remarried, but three years later she became a widow and was still in mourning when, several days ago, Simon reappeared, carrying a beefsteak.

It is the old story of a sudden return of mental vigor after years of torpidity, during which Simon wandered about the country, but there is a new feature in the mental connection with that thought of a beefsteak which was desired seven years ago. Enoch Arden was animated entirely by love when he sought his old home, but Simon Eustace made a happy combination of duty and love by stopping at the butcher shop on his way home. Considering the present price of beef there is a large share of applause coming to Simon for his action, but it would have been money in his pocket had he bought and delivered that steak seven years ago, when meat was cheaper.

Co-Education Gets a Setback.

Should the board of trustees of the Chicago university follow the course outlined in the meeting yesterday the co-education of the sexes in that representative institution will come to an end and the system, which has been tentatively in operation in many schools throughout the country, will have received its most serious setback. The board is to definitely decide the future action of the university on Saturday next, but it is said that a majority of both the faculty and the governing officers is against the system. This action will be robbed of some of its significance by reason of the fact that the Chicago university is to become the recipient of a bequest of $1,500,000 upon the stipulation that co-education shall be eliminated from its system of instruction. Apart from this, however, the action of the Chicago university may be accepted as indicative of the general sentiment against co-education which the alleged successful experiments in a number of leading educational institutions of the country have in no way succeeded in allaying. It is urged that the disadvantages to both sexes in the system far outweigh whatever good may be secured through opening the doors of higher education more widely to women.

This latter claim is the principal argument of the co-educationists. It is based upon the popular but mistaken theory that the opportunities for higher education in this country are much more numerous for men than for women. But experiment proves that to share the imagined advantages under the same roof and by means of the same curriculum does not meet the demand for the women and places a bar in the way of the men.

In a limited way co-education may prove successful, and certainly in many cases it may commend itself upon the ground of economy, but when the principle is applied upon any broad basis its defects quickly disprove the enthusiastic claims of its advocates. The highest educational interests of each sex demand a distinct system of instruction adapted to its special needs and qualifications.

A Search for Jack Tars.

The addition to the United States navy of many new ships has necessitated a search for sailors to man them. There appears to be a scarcity of desirable men in the coast cities, and the naval authorities have been forced to send recruiting officers to towns in the interior, one of the principal objective points being the anthracite coal region of Pennsylvania, where so many mine workers are idle as a result of the strike.

A search for seamen so far inland seems rather anomalous, but experience has demonstrated that land-lubbers can quickly adapt themselves to seafaring life. Many of them sought the service in the Spanish-American war, and they acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner. It is one of the characteristics of Americans to feel at home under all sorts of changed conditions, and, with the alluring prospect of travel and adventure on the rolling deep and sight-seeing in foreign lands, it is more than likely the mission of the recruiting officers will be successful. Uncle Sam has the ships and the money, and he will have the sailors, too.

Those skeptics who doubt that the American people are by nature patient and long suffering should witness some of the telephone trials to which Pittsburghers have been subjected recently.

It may also be remarked in passing that our Democratic contemporaries seem to have received quite a severe jolt by the results of the Harrisburg convention.

The Republican nominee for governor, Judge Pennypacker, represents the high water mark of honest, clean, cultured manhood and statesmanship.

Messrs. Rathbone and Neely doubtless feel that there is one kind of Cuban reciprocity to which they can subscribe with unhesitating enthusiasm.

Pittsburgh has nominated the next Fourth of July as the greatest ever, and a unanimous election is already assured.

The Democrats seem to feel very much cut up over the fact that the Harrisburg convention failed to follow their advice.

Col. Arthur Lynch should remember that it is never wise to trifle with a hungry lion.

There will be considerable doing under the London date line during the next few weeks.

There will be a grateful lull in the prophecy business.

Immigrants Guarded from Powers That Prey

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, June 12.

Among the profitable callings in New York are those of purveying to and helping immigrants in various ways. When the strangers from other countries are emptied from the steerage of a big steamship into the barge office they are generally as helpless as children. If there was no fence placed around them by a paternal republican government, few of them would get away from Battery park with a cent of money or a rag to their backs. As it is, the powers that prey are kept at a distance, and only authorized men of fair reputation are allowed to do business with the immigrants. For this privilege there is something guaranteed to Uncle Sam in the way of a promise of a reasonable charge to the people from across the sea. The importance of this is self-evident. It is believed that in this month of June there will be a larger number of immigrants landed in New York than ever has been known, and these immigrants are all more or less at the mercy of the men with whom they must do business as soon as they are ashore. So those who desire to feed the newcomers, to change their money or to move their baggage, are compelled to send in regular bids to the commissioner of immigration, who makes his selections. Bids for the fiscal year beginning on the 1st of July next were opened at Ellis island yesterday, and Commissioner Wilson is pleased at the number of responsible bidders and the low prices for which they are willing to do the services required. While few of the immigrants appreciate all that is done in their behalf by the government, they would find the difference if the business were thrown wide open. At one time in the history of Castle garden the hangers-on of the water front, the money changers, boarding house keepers and others who were ever on the lookout for what they could get out of foreigners ignorant of the English language and American ways, robbed immigrants through thick and thin. Even today, when once a foreign-tongued immigrant is outside the jurisdiction of the immigration bureau, he is liable to be picked up by some rascal and swindled; but detectives are on the watch and the heartless scoundrel does not always "get away with the goods," as the police say. New York takes pretty good care of its strangers from over the sea nowadays.

Wires Must Go Underground.

Brooklyn will not be a "trolley town" many more years, according to present indications. The commissioner of the department of water supply, gas and electricity has served notice upon all corporations in Brooklyn having overhead electric wires within two miles of the bridge that they must put the wires under ground. The commissioner has legal authority for his action, and no one disputes it. He does not expect that the wires will be buried within one year, but says that the work of putting them out of sight must begin as soon as possible, with the view of having them all hidden eventually. Brooklyn has become so used to be criss-crossed with wires up in the air that it will hardly know itself when these obstructions are abolished. There is little doubt that they will be done away with in the course of time. The feat was accomplished in Manhattan and there is no reason why it should not be done in Brooklyn.

Can't Do Without Croker.

Tammany is at sixes and sevens. The general committee had a stormy meeting tonight and no one seems to know what will be the end of the ruction. That Richard Croker is laughing in his sleeve over in Wantage is generally believed. He is a shrewd man, and it must please him to see that his strong hand is missed at the helm of the local Democratic ship. As for the three regents, they are rapidly becoming a joke, even to the element that has no use for Croker. The triumvirate issued a proclamation yesterday that was almost as funny as a resolution of the board of aldermen, and the rank and file of Tammany are asking what it all means. It is unfortunate for the braves that their organization should be so disrupted at this time, with an important election coming in the fall. It looks as if the only salvation for Tammany would be the rising of some strong man to take the reins from among those who have not been known or considered. Failing that the "Old Man" must come back from Wantage and take hold himself.

Trouble Coming for Some Policemen.

The strain between the police and the district attorney grows more tense. Jerome had 15 cases on the calendar for trial today, all of which depended on the evidence of policemen. None of the police witnesses were present, and Judge Newburger in part III. of general sessions had to adjourn court. Jerome frowned and said: "I'll see about this," which is understood to mean that there will be some hot talk at police headquarters so soon as the district attorney can get at Commissioner Partridge.

Golfers Proud of Miss Hecker.

Golfers here are wild with enthusiasm over the fine play of Miss Genevieve Hecker, the present champion. Miss Hecker has played so much on the links around New York that she is well known in this city and is looked upon as a New Yorker, of which every Gothamite must be proud. The trains to Orange have been loaded with visitors to the links for the last two days, and there is likely to be a continuous stream from New York as well as other centers of population until the end of the week. Golf is a popular game here, the more so as there is no city in the country within easy reach of such a number of splendid links. At least, so golfers here declare.

The Peril of Quagmire.

Among the perils of Hoboken, that mysterious burg across the North river, quagmires must be counted. Perhaps they are quicksand, although the natives call them plain "bogs." At all events, a man tried to walk across one of these marshes last winter and was buried alive. There was another disaster there today, although, happily, without fatal consequences. A team of valuable horses got out of their stable in some way and made for the bog. The owner thought they were stolen, until he chanced to think of the bog. He could just discern the heads of his horses, slowly going down in the marsh. With the help of the police force and some neighbors he built a boardwalk to the dangerous spot and got a derrick. After a few hours of hard work the horses were hauled out and are eating hay tonight as calmly as if nothing had disturbed them.

Bessie Bonehill Said to Be Dying.

Bessie Bonehill, the vaudeville actress, who has always been a great favorite in Pittsburgh, is said to be dying of cancer of the stomach in London. Her two daughters, Leona Hilbon and Dapha Gray of Weber & Fields' company, received a cable message to this effect today. They will sail for Europe at once. Miss Bonehill, who is Mrs. William Seeley in private life, is English, but she liked this country so well that she bought Deerhull farm, near Sayville, Long Island, and has made it her home for years. The cable message said that she would like to pass her last hours there, but is not strong enough to bear the ocean voyage.

Saved by Cool Heads.

When the Empire State express on the New York Central railroad ran full tilt into a local train today there was an opportunity for a first-class sensation; but, happily, the safety devices of both trains were in good order, the engineers kept their wits about them and the brakes did the rest. There was a jolt and some badly scared passengers, but that was all. This is the trainmen's report, at least.

Negro Cook Scared White.

Capt. Thompson of the schooner Fred A. Small of Maine, which has reached this port after weathering a terrific gale, is responsible for the statement that a full-blooded negro can turn white. In telling of the storm, which almost destroyed the vessel, the skipper said: "I had heard of a negro turning white from fright, but it was the first time I ever saw such a transformation. Herm Blanco, our cook, is as black as night; but for three days he was almost as white as I am. We were blown far out of our course that I decided to make New York, if possible, which I did with two of my sailors in their bunks with broken limbs. They are now in the Marine hospital in Brooklyn." The ship is in dry dock in Hoboken, and the old tars cannot understand how her captain ever got such a badly used-up craft into harbor. The negro cook has resumed his old color and is as black as ever he was.

Electric Chair for Sweetheart-Slayer.

Aaron Hall, the young man who shot his sweetheart dead across the counter of an East End department store two years ago, will go to the electric chair August 4. Hall has been sentenced to death twice before, but his attorney, Abe Levy, had staved off the execution in one way or another. The condemned man went into the store where the girl, Mamie Erantgan, was employed as a clerk and shot her dead in the presence of a score of shoppers and fellow clerks. It was the most sensational murder of the spring of 1900, but, as often happens, the case had dropped out of the public eye so entirely that many persons supposed Hall had been executed or released long ago, while the rest of the community had forgotten all about him and his crime.

Hot Weather Amusements.

"The Show Girl" was to have closed at Wallack's on Saturday night, but Edward Exuberant Rice has contrived to hold the theater for some weeks longer, and expects to remain there with his tuneful and bright little entertainment until Frank Daniels gets out of the theater at Manhattan Beach. Then Rice will establish "The Show Girl" there and try to keep her at the seashore until it is too cold for her. Manhattan Beach will open for the season on Saturday of this week, with Shannon's Twenty-third Regiment band as the first attraction. Frank Daniels, with "Miss Simplicity," will take possession of the theater on Monday week, the 21st.

Printers Respect Cummings' Memory.

A memorial service in honor of the late Amos J. Cummings, under the direction of Typographical union No. 6, will be held in Carnegie Music hall, June 22. Invitations have been issued by Marsden G. Scott, president, and Jerome F. Healy, secretary.

Princeton Honors Artist Alexander.

The degree of master of arts was conferred yesterday on John W. Alexander, the artist, by Princeton university. The presentation was made by Prof. Andrew F. West, who referred to Mr. Alexander as follows: "He is universally acknowledged as an artist of the first order in mural decoration, especially in portraiture. The brilliancy of his work, tempered by an even finer restraint, and the engaging beauty of his conceptions, mark him as a master in his chosen art of painting."

A Police Captain's Good Record.

Capt. O'Reilly of the Oak street station is the most talked-of policeman in New York tonight. He has shut up pool rooms and policy shops in his precinct and is credited with having the cleanest district in the borough of Manhattan. Talking about his duties this afternoon O'Reilly said, with a smile: "My business in the police department is a pleasure, not a labor. The good citizens of New York provide the police with grand houses and give them life positions and pensions to them and their widows when they die. I don't know any other city in the country that takes such good care of the police, and because of this he should receive the faithful service of every officer in the department." No wonder husky young immigrants from Ireland and Germany like to get on the force here when it has such a reputation.

Hardships for the Soldiers.

Grumbling over the accommodations furnished to officers of the national guard by the state can be heard all over New York. There are a great many soldiers from this city in camp at Peekskill, and when they are disarmed their friends here know all about it. The father of a junior officer in one of the Manhattan regiments remarked to a group of sympathizers in the cafe of the Waldorf-Astoria this evening: "It's next to impossible for a man in camp to get a camp chair or a candlestick or a good cot this year. This state is getting hard up when it cannot afford to furnish the national guard with enough stuff to go around the camp. I have made inquiry and find that there are only 960 camp chairs in the whole outfit. There are over 1,100 in camp all of the time. Next week there will be more than 1,200 men in camp." Statements of a similar tone have been heard frequently this week. None of the men are suffering, but the equipment is old, inadequate and patched up. Many of the tents saw service in the Spanish-American war and show age. Nothing new has been provided for the camp for over two years, and each year considerable equipment has been lost. But the boys are reported to be having a good time nevertheless and Cornelius Vanderbilt is enthusiastic over his soldiering experiences.

PERSONALS

A party of 15 librarians from various points in Indiana stopped off here yesterday for a few hours en route to the national convention of the American Library association at Magnolia, a suburb of Boston, Mass. The party visited the Herron hill branch of the Carnegie library and other points of interest. They were accompanied by George Danforth, librarian of the Indiana State university, and C. B. Galbreath, librarian of the Columbus library. They traveled in a special car, which was attached to the limited last night. The party will stop off at Washington and visit the congressional library.

M. C. Davis of the Figaro, Paris, and M. Maurice Sartiaux, a noted mining engineer of the North of France, are registered at the Seventh Avenue hotel. Both accompanied the Rochambeau commission to this country, but propose to tour the entire south and part of South America before returning home. Both will embody their impressions in America and its resources in a book to be published by a French house. M. Sartiaux is interested in the mining resources of this country. He says that this is undoubtedly one of the most resourceful countries, from a mineral standpoint, in the world.

T. Shinoda of Kobe, Japan, is a guest of the Monongahela house. He is a member of the Kawasaki Dockyard Company. This company makes a specialty of building steamships for ocean traffic along the eastern shores. "Our company," he said, "will break its record this year for output. We expect to build 80 steamships this year. The demand is much greater of late years on account of the improved methods, which to a certain extent, we have borrowed from American constructors. We have four American constructors in our employ whose sole duties are the studying of designs and improvements and seeing to it that the steamships are built properly."

Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, state superintendent of schools, went to Harrisburg last night on the limited.

Justice George Shiras and his wife arrived in the city last night from Washington, D. C. They will remain here for some days, then go to their summer home in Michigan.

The Parson Was Wise.

From the Washington Post.

"Out in a Colorado town," said Representative Shafroth to a party of colleagues in the cloak room, "there was a hotel keeper who liked to play poker, and also went to church with his wife on Sunday. One morning when the plate was passed he had nothing in his pocket except a penknife and a round bit of celluloid marked with the figure 5. Thinking to have a joke on the parson, he put the poker chip in the plate.

"'I fooled the preacher this morning,' he remarked to his wife when they reached home.

"The next morning the preacher came around to see the hotel keeper. 'Brother Smith,' he said, 'I noticed you put this chip in the contribution plate yesterday. Does the figure stand for 5 cents or $5?'

"'Five dollars, of course,' answered the hotel keeper.

"'Thank you, Brother Smith,' said the preacher, 'and will you redeem it this morning?'

"There was nothing else for the hotel keeper to do except to shell out his $5 into the preacher's hand. And when he told his wife that night what had happened it do not seem funny at all."

Dr. Barrows' Place Filled.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., June 12.—The vacancy in the program of the national educational convention, to meet here July 7 to 11, which was caused by the death of Dr. John Henry Barrows, late president of Oberlin college, will be filled by Michael Sadler, chairman of the board of education, London, England. Mr. Sadler has been in America for some weeks inspecting public school systems of the principal cities.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Joseph F. Cox.

Joseph F. Cox, a pioneer resident of Homestead, and a member of one of the oldest families in Western Pennsylvania, is dead at his late home in Fifth avenue, Homestead, after a long illness resulting from general debility. river, his parents having settled there many years before. In July, 1842, with his parents, he moved to a farm, where the present Cox homestead stands in Mifflin township. He remained there until 1856, when he joined a large party of prospectors and went to California in search of gold. While in California he met and married Miss Emma Sweeney, a daughter of a prominent family of that time in Nevada City. In 1878, with his wife and family, he returned to Mifflin township and located on the farm of his father, where he resided until a few years ago, when he moved to Homestead borough. He is survived by his widow and the following children, all of whom are well known in business and professional life: William R., Edward M., Joseph A., David C., Thomas W., Mrs. Susan Lloyd and Miss Emma, all of Homestead. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Attorney John F. Cox, of Homestead; Thomas Cox, William Cox, Mrs. Catherine Kelly of New Wilmington; George Cox of Homestead, and Mrs. Elizabeth Ashley of Washington D. C.

James Otis Watson, Sr.

FAIRMONT, W. VA., June 12.—(Special.)—James O. Watson, Sr., the pioneer coal operator of West Virginia, died at his home here this evening, aged 87. He was born in Marion county, W. Va., in 1815. He received a liberal education and in early life entered the mercantile trade, with which he combined agricultural pursuits, and which he successfully followed for several years. The completion of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad to this point in 1852 first directed Mr. Watson's attention to the possibility of developing the coal interests in the region, and this took a practical form when he acquired a small tract of coal land and began active operations. Meeting first with a gratifying degree of success he bought additional property, opened new mines and built coke ovens in the immediate neighborhood. As quickly as new machinery was devised and tested he put it to use in his mines. In a comparatively few years he laid the foundation of the industry which later developed into such giant proportions. He lived to see the industry in which he was the pioneer develop into an important factor in the commerce and manufacture of the world. The climax to the efforts initiated by James Otis Watson & Son, vastly extended by his sons and other large operations, was reached when on June 18 of the present year the organization of the Fairmont Coal Company was effected the result of the effort of C. W. Watson, the youngest son of J. C. Watson.

Y., after which he entered the West Point military academy. After graduating from the academy, in 1872, he was assigned to service in the Sixth United States cavalry, under the command of Gen. Miles. Later Mr. Nichols became a member of Gen. Miles' staff. In 1876 he resigned from the army with the rank of lieutenant. He then went to Bogota, United States of Colombia, and entered into a contract to establish a government military school. While in Bogota he suffered the stroke which ultimately caused his death. For three years Mr. Nichols was assistant manager of the Union mills of the Carnegie Steel Company. In 1879 Mr. Nichols married Miss Ella C. Slagle, a daughter of John Slagle of Allegheny, who, besides the following brothers, survives: William W., of Plattsburg, N. Y.; Dr. J. A. of New York, and C. M. Nichols of Chicago.

PRESS OPINIONS OF THE TICKET

The Outcome at Harrisburg.

From the Philadelphia Ledger.

The action of the Republican state convention at Harrisburg yesterday demonstrates the singular facility with which Senator Quay is able to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat. Cool, resourceful, self-reliant, he possesses a mastery of politics rarely equaled in American history. To attain success he commands every agency and employs every weapon that serves the purpose. Attorney General Elkin went down to defeat in the hour when triumph seemed about to crown his efforts, and it is clear that with all his political skill he was overconfident of the strength of his cause. For his victory Senator Quay is chiefly indebted to the solid vote of the Philadelphia delegation and the fidelity of Israel W. Durham, and to the reinforcements supplied in the hour of need by ex-Lieut.-Gov. Watres.

Judge Samuel W. Pennypacker, the Republican nominee for governor, possesses abundant qualifications to perform the duties of that high office with credit to the commonwealth and to himself. He has been an ornament to the judiciary, a man of unsullied integrity, of sound scholarship and of thorough acquaintance with public affairs. Of irreproachable personal character, he may be depended upon, if chosen to be the state's executive, to conduct the affairs of his office with dignity, prudence and regard for the public interests. If Senator Quay had determined upon the nomination and election of a candidate that he could control as a part of the machine, Judge Pennypacker would not have been his selection. The nomination of Judge Pennypacker is a distinct deference by the machine to the advocates of good government.

His Name a Tower of Strength.

From the Oil City Derrick.

Gen. Elkin made a gallant fight for the gubernatorial nomination, but he lost. The majority of the convention was against him and Judge Samuel W. Pennypacker was nominated by a decisive majority on the first ballot. Elkin is a young man, and the superb statesmanship he has displayed will prove a powerful factor when he aspires to future political honors.

Judge Pennypacker is an upright and honorable man, a great and pure-minded jurist, and a close student of men and public affairs. He has enjoyed a long and honored career and is highly esteemed in Philadelphia and the southeastern portion of the state. His name in itself is a tower of strength throughout the commonwealth, and his worst political enemies will be unable to urge anything against him. In many respects, he is an ideal candidate, although all his life he has been more of a student than a politician.

Ex-State Senator William M. Brown of Lawrence county, who was named for lieutenant governor without opposition, is a man of broad views and liberal tendencies, and his success is particularly gratifying to the western end of the state. Maj. Isaac B. Brown of Erie is another of the old guard in the northwest, whose long experience in public life makes his services almost indispensable in the interior department. Since 1887 he has been deputy secretary of internal affairs and acting superintendent of the bureau of railways, etc. Maj. Brown has likewise served in the legislature for several terms and his activity in the affairs of the Grand Army of the Republic have made him known and loved to every old soldier in the state. The ticket is a strong one through and through, and will receive the cordial support of all true Republicans in the Keystone state.

His Life an Open Book.

From the Philadelphia Inquirer.

In Judge Pennypacker himself Pennsylvania will have a governor whose life is an open book, every page of which can bear the closest scrutiny. A man of learning, a close student of public affairs, a Pennsylvanian who loves Pennsylvania and glories in its greatness, he is a safe guide to place at the head of the administration. There is nothing that will advance the interests of the commonwealth that he will not do; there is nothing in the way of vicious legislation that will escape his veto.

Let us present a solid front to the enemy, therefore, and not only elect the state ticket in its entirety, but see to it that the close legislative districts are carried.

A Distinguished Jurist.

From the Johnstown Tribune.

Judge Pennypacker is a distinguished jurist, honored throughout the state for his eminent ability in his profession and as a soldier of the republic who served faithfully and well in the civil war. Cambria county Republicans preferred another man as the nominee, but as good citizens they bow to the wisdom of the majority, and will be found loyal as ever, supporting the ticket next fall.

Makes Success Certain.

From the New Brighton News.

The election of the ticket is now beyond doubt, which would not have been the case had Mr. Elkin been nominated. In saying this the News makes no reflection on Mr. Elkin, who is an able man and a good Republican, but his connection as attorney general with Gov. Stone was his undoing, and would have followed him to the polls in November. The fear that his nomination would lead to the defeat of some Republican congressmen and members of the legislature, was what led Senator Quay to oppose the nomination of Mr. Elkin. Had the latter repudiated Gov. Stone in his attacks on the reform movement in Pittsburgh, no power could have prevented his nomination and election as governor. The result of the convention is not so much the defeat of Mr. Elkin as it is a rebuke to Gov. Stone.

The party has now a good ticket of able and representative men, and can move forward to the usual majority.

Only Her Arm Was Tired.

From the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Here is another anecdote told by Bismarck. Speaking of the work of the governess in the royal family he said: "One day the poor, bird lady, after having administered a severe correction to Wilhelm, said, 'Believe me, your highness, it hurts me more than it does you when I have to punish you so.' The boy shrugged his shoulders, looking somewhat incredulous. A little later, at luncheon, when all the family was gathered 'round the table, he suddenly said to the governess, 'Is your back better?' On which Princess Victoria kindly asked her what was the matter with her back. 'Not much, I hope,' quickly answered the mischievous boy who is now emperor, 'for I scarcely feel mine now, but you see, mother, Fraulein H. has such a sympathetic back that it begins to hurt her directly she commences to cane me, and she performed on me this morning.'"

CADETS GIVEN THEIR DIPLOMAS BY PRESIDENT

He Makes No Address, but Warmly Grasps Each New Officer by the Hand.

GOOD ADVICE BESTOWED

Gen. Miles, Secretary Root and Gen. Dick of Ohio Make Brief Speeches to the Graduates—Many Distinguished Guests Present.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

West Point, N. Y., June 12.—The centennial celebration of the West Point military academy was ended today with the presentation of diplomas to the graduating class. The weather was fine and the ceremony took place out of doors on that part of the parade grounds known as "Cavalry Plain." An open tent over a platform had been erected for the speakers and officials, and standing at the front of the platform President Roosevelt presented each new officer with his diploma.

It was expected the president would make a few remarks, but he simply shook hands with each cadet. On the platform besides the president were Gen. Horace Porter, Gen. Miles, Secretary Root, Secretary Moody, Postmaster General Payne, the Chinese minister, Wu Ting Fang, and other distinguished guests.

The speakers were Gen. Dick of Ohio for the board of visitors, Secretary Root for the government, and Gen. Miles for the army. Gen. Dick said in part, after giving advice to the cadets:

"The wars conducted by the United States never have been for conquest. Cuba is now a sister republic, and Porto Rico has more freedom and contentment than ever. The war with Spain was unavoidable and we came into the possession of the Philippines as a result. Our authority there must be as absolute as our responsibility. That we will succeed gloriously in the work we have taken up in the Philippines the world now knows."

Secretary Root said it was a fundamental principle that the military branch of the government should be subject to the control of the civil. He told the cadets to bear in mind that their education was not by any means complete, and that they could go on learning to be good soldiers until they retired, if they were lucky enough to live until the age of 64. The regular army in time of war, he said, was a nucleus of a greater organization including the militia and National guard, and he avised the cadets to get the good will of these bodies and of citizens interested in the army.

The secretary told how an old officer in the late war happened to come under the command of a young volunteer officer and yet continued to do his duty without giving any sign of the feelings he must have had as an old and faithful soldieer. "His conduct attracted attention, and the president," said the speaker, "picked him out to lead the American army to Pekin —Gen. A. R. Chaffee. It was because he ruled his own spirit that the president thought he could take a city."

Gen. Miles' remarks were chiefly those of an older to younger officers, and referred almost wholly to the business of war. He said there were supreme moments in the life of a soldier, one when an officer knows he is doing just what the enemy thinks he is not, and when he feels one more victory has been added to American glory. Gen. Miles was loudly cheered when he arose to speak.

President Roosevelt left this afternoon for Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—President Roosevelt and party reached here at 9:29 from West Point.

ROSE TREE

Grows in a Few Minutes in W. H. Keech Co.'s Window.

An interesting feature of the display, in one of the windows of W. H. Keech Company, 923 to 931 Penn avenue, is the exhibit by Miss Rheda—a performer in Japanese magic—who shows in clear view of all many of the most difficult tricks in the art of magic. Among them are several new acts that mystify those who think they are well up in the art.

The blooming rose bush is one of the most popular with the people and commands the plaudits of all. In this trick she plants the seed in a flower pot filled with earth, and from this she not only grows a natural rose bush, right before the eyes of the spectators, but to cap the climax, she cuts the flowers off and presents them to the ladies present.

Miss Rheda will perform both today and tomorrow and tomorrow evening. It is worth the while of everyone to go and see this exhibit—which is free to all—for Miss Rheda is undoubtedly one of the most clever magicians in the country.

THE chancellor's reception to the members of the graduating class of the Western University of Pennsylvania, always one of the most enjoyable events of the closing weeks of the school year, was held last evening at the residence of Prof. John A. Brashear, acting chancellor of the university. The reception hours were from 8 until 12 o'clock, and the pretty cottage home of Prof. and Mrs. Brashear on Observatory hill, Allegheny, was filled with guests. There were nearly 100 present, the guests including the trustees and their wives, the members of the faculty of the university and their wives, and the students in the graduating class. Fifty-three students graduate from the university this year, of whom eight are young women, thus bringing to the reception last night several more young girls than have been in attendance in seasons past.

Prof. Brashear and Mrs. Brashear received their guests in the parlors, and standing with them were Daniel Carhart, dean of the university, and Mrs. Carhart, while assisting were Mrs. Samuel M. Kintner and Mrs. James B. McDowell, Prof. and Mrs. Brashear's daughter. The decorations were in pink and white, with a background of deep green, and fragrant garden roses were used throughout the house in great profusion. Though Mr. and Mrs. Brashear received in the parlors, their guests soon found their way to the lawn and the gardens, where chairs and tables were placed and where the heat of the warm summer evening was forgotten in the pleasant breeze which swept over the hill. The grounds were as light as day, the tall electric lights hiding nothing, and the majority of the guests remained out-of-doors and upon the piazza. The music was even more enjoyable out-of-doors.

The Fair in Thomas Boulevard.

The garden party and steet fair in Thomas boulevard last evening was a brilliant success. The boulevard was gay with prettily decorated booths which occupied the lawns on both sides of the street, houses were invaded for the purpose of conducting the varied entertainments presented by the many committees, and the walks were crowded with people. Everything was in gala attire. The trees and the flower gardens, with their variegated blossoms, afforded an unusual decoration as effective as it was novel. The garden party opened at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and during the earlier hours the principal amusements were for the entertainment of the children. A Punch and Judy show, rides in pony carts and automobiles, balloons and a hurdy-gurdy were among the many features. In the evening a concert was given.

The different houses in the boulevard were thrown open for the day and housed many of the attractive features. There were refreshments for sale, flowers, candy and lemonade; all kinds of needlework, both useful and fancy and of plain, everyday sort; there was an art gallery, with many interesting articles on exhibition, and not the least of the attractions was a baby reception, conducted under the direction of Miss Nannie J. Gillespie. The little ones were received in their dainty frocks, some carried by their white-capped nurses, some arriving in carriages of their own, and others toddling beside their mothers or older brothers and sisters. They were pretty babies, exquisitely dressed in their best bib and tucker for the occasion.

The automobiles did a rushing business through the later afternoon and in the evening, many friends of the Willing Workers' Mission band of the Point Breeze Presbyterian church, under whose auspices the entertainment was conducted, offering their motor carriages as an additional attraction and one which contributed quite largely to the funds which went into the treasury. In the evening the boulevard was brilliantly decorated with electric lights and with fantastic lanterns and the effect on the crowds of people and artistic booths was bewildering in its beauty.

Strawberry Festival.

The Union Sabbath school that has been conducted at the Obey school house, West Pittsburgh, during the past six months, will give an entertainment at the school house this evening for the benefit of the Sabbath school. A very interesting literary and musical program has been arranged by Mr. Osborn, the superintendent, and his assistants, Miss Blanch Green, Miss Pearl Gormley and Miss Pearl Fossett. Among the attractions will be music by Mrs. Roberts and readings by Mrs. E. D. Steinman, Miss Bella Gliespia and Mr. Robert Chess. Mr. Osborn has arranged to have a committee at Carlin station on the line of the Carnegie and Crafton, Scenic and to meet parties from the two cities, Carnegie and Ingram, and conduct them to the grounds.

Refreshments, for which a nominal sum will be charged, will be served by the refreshment committee, Miss Ella Watt, Miss Jessie Croft and Miss Ollive Green, together with the young men of the Sabbath school.

Lawn Fete at Christ Church.

The Epworth League society of Christ Methodist Episcopal church last evening conducted one of the prettiest lawn fetes of the season on the church grounds at Center avenue and Rebecca street, Shadyside. The grounds were brilliantly lighted and tables and booths were erected upon the lawn. Refreshments were served out of doors and before the patronage of the church people and their friends the strawberries and ice cream rapidly disappeared. The booths were placed near the ivy-covered walls of the handsome church and were gaily decorated with bunting, vines and flowers. The flower booth was one of the most beautiful on the grounds. Refreshments were served at long tables and at small ones and the committee in charge was aided by scores of the young girls in the church and Sunday school, who were kept busy throughout the evening. The lawn fete was one of the most successful ever given by the Epworth league.

TO TEMPT THE APPETITE BY SUGGESTION.

Want and abundance seem to be pretty equally balanced at this season. The want being supply in perverse ratio to the ability to supply the appetite with much more than mere necessities. The law of contraries rules that we shall not enjoy what we are so fully in possession of; therefore the appetite condemns and passes by what it has been so completely in command of and turns its fickle fancy to a new arrangement of diet.

The sense of seeing, smelling or even hearing such things as suggest hearty, substantial foods, heated kitchens and the general discomfort which attacks this too, too solid flesh in warm weather, impart a distaste and disinclination for many of the necessary viands. If then be'ves, the family purveyor to study well the power of suggestion which will entice the appetite by first appealing to the outward senses which guard the taste with such pregnificed care.

This power of suggestion finds quick response in those possessing vivid and active imaginations and the wise housewife will put it to good use these days when the old order changeth and necessity as well as season forces meat to be non-essential. Some one tells us that if we but believe everything is right we will see it so in every action and for the best. Therefore we may look upon the beef trust as a public benefaction, however unwilling they may be to pose as promoters of vegetarianism. There is nothing tentatingly suggestive in meat diet in hot weather, but quite the reverse. Let us suggest, instead, such foods as remind us of the pure air and water, birds and bees, fragrant breezes blowing across blossoming clover and new mown hay, until we imagine ourselves cooled and refreshed and enjoying in reality what these things suggest. Let the early fruits and fresh green vegetables be as much in evidence as possible and served in daintiest manner and freshness. Fresh eggs always suggest country scenes and springtime; while of meats we have fish and poultry.

A dish of ripe fruit, fresh eggs, dainty crisp toast, and a cup of delicious coffee is certainly inviting and does not suggest heat. An artistically arranged salad of crisp lettuce, shrimps and fresh tomatoes with mayonnaise, bread, dainty rolls or butter cakes should be served with home-made nut, entire wheat bread, dainty rolls or butter cakes and perhaps strawberry shortcake and lemonade for lunch will surely win instant approbation from those least hungry, and let the dinner be a fitting climax to any well ordered fast.

In "The feasts of Antolyeus" the author describes the plain, prosaic macaroni as a dish of sunshine, and presents such realistic pictures, such sweet, vivid visions in connection with this inestimable product, that one agrees with her that "in a dish of macaroni lies all Italy for the woman with eyes to see or a heart to feel. And she uses her art to combine and create flavors and trick the eye with her gentle, graceful art.

MACARONI AND CHEESE.—Boil half a pound of macaroni and arrange it in alternate layers in a baking dish with a quarter of a pound of fresh cheese and quarter of a pound of butter; season with salt and pepper. Place in the oven and heat, then arrange four or five slices of toast, cut in small shapes, on the top; melt a quarter of a pound of grated cheese with quarter of a cup of cream and add the yolk of an egg. Four this over the toast and serve.

FRIED CHICKEN WITH CAULIFLOWER.—Joint a young chicken as for fricassee, leaving the breast whole. Parboil, drain and season with salt, pepper and a little melted butter and lemon and onion juice, and when cold roll in flour and fry a nice brown in deep, hot fat, arrange nicely on a round chop platter, with a nice, boiled cauliflower in the center. Boil and drained, break off the flowerets and arrange a border with them and sprays of fresh curly parsley. Place a bunch of parsley and thick slice of lemon on top of the dish. Serve a cream sauce from separate dish.

STUFFED TOMATO SALAD.—Select smooth round tomatoes of equal size; peel, cut a slice from the stem end and carefully scoop out the center. Set on ice to chill, then dust inside with salt and pepper and fill with finely minced celery mixed with mayonnaise. Put a spoonful of mayonnaise in center of crisp lettuce leaf and place tomato on this. Arrange them on a flat salad dish.

SPINACH WITH CROWN OF EGGS.—Cook a peck of well washed spinach in boiling salted water until tender, drain and chop fine. Cook, without browning it, in two tablespoonfuls of butter, add a sprinkling of nutmeg and half a cup of hot sauce made with stock. Form into a pyramid mould, garnish the base with hard-boiled eggs, cut into slices lengthwise. Make a star-shaped design on top with white and yolk of egg pressed separately through a sieve.

CHICKEN RECHAUFFE.—Make a sauce with from a cup each of butter, flour, stock and milk and season to taste with salt and pepper. Have ready two cups of chicken cut into dice and three cupfuls of mashed potatoes. Beat the latter light with a fork, adding in three tablespoonfuls of butter, three beaten egg yolks and salt and pepper to taste. Make a border around the dish of potato roses and fill the center with the chicken. Add sauce, cover with coarse buttered bread crumbs and brush the potatoes with little yolk of egg and brown in oven. Place bunch of parsley and a small red radish, cut into a flower, on top of the dish and serve.

INQUIRIES ANSWERED.

Miss H. T. T. writes: Can you give a recipe for sunshine strawberries and cream scona?

Sunshine Strawberries.

Select perfectly ripe berries; make a syrup of three pounds of granulated sugar and two cups of boiling water until it threads. Put in the berries and cook 15 minutes after they come to a boil. Then pour out on a large platter and let stand in the sun for two days, or until the syrup is very thick. Cover with gauze netting to keep out insects. Put away in tumblers or jars and cover with paraffine or waxed paper.

Eighteenth Ohio Congressional District Has Numerous Candidates.

MAHONING IS DIVIDED

Because of Factional Strife Among Youngstown Politicians the Nomination May Go to Either Stark or Columbiana County.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Columbus, O., June 12.—Much heat is being injected into the congressional fight in the Eighteenth Ohio district. Congressman Robert W. Tayler, who declined the nomination, has again become a member of the law firm of Billingsley, Tayler & Clark of Lisbon, and has reiterated the statement he made when he resigned that he is out of politics for good. There are candidates galore to succeed him. Mahoning county has a dozen or so, but they are less numerous in Stark and Columbiana counties. Mahoning has not had the congressman for over 20 years and is anxious to name the candidate, but will probably not be accorded this privilege.

Factionalism is rampant in the county, which will prevent any candidate from securing a solid delegation. The candidate who wins will have to enter the convention with the undivided support of his county. A leading Youngstown politician stated in this city this week that the bitterness existing between the Mahoning county candidates would stand in the way of the adoption of the unit rule. Their differences are irreconcilable and will doubtless lose them the nomination once more.

Senator Benjamin F. Wirt, who has been a member of the legislature for four years, and Attorney James Kennedy, both of Youngstown, are the most prominent candidates in the county for the nomination. Stark county's leading candidates are T. Harvey Smith, county treasurer, and Attorney James Grant, of Canton. Smith is a Daugherty man, which may or may not help him. He might be able to draw from the Daugherty influence in Columbiana county. Grant is a fine orator and has plenty of ability. He is not the candidate of any faction and in this lies his strength.

But State Treasurer I. B. Cameron, whose home is in Columbiana county, must be reckoned with. He is a shrewd manipulator of politics and controls the situation in his county. His friends are importuning him to enter the congressional race and he has the matter under advisement. It is believed he will be a candidate.

There is a story in circulation that Cameron and Smith have formed an alliance for their mutual benefit, but little credence is given it. The story is that Smith is to be made state treasurer and Cameron congressman. While it looks plausible those in a position to know declare it is absolutely without foundation.

Stark and Mahoning counties will select new delegates to the convention, while it is barely possible that the Tayler delegates will be chosen to serve again from Columbiana county. This would be the least expensive plan. The convention will be held at Salem, Columbiana county, July 23.

At present Stark and Columbiana seem to have the best of the situation, with the chances favoring the latter county. Unless the Mahoning candidates can get together, that county will hardly have a look in. Congressman Tayler will act as temporary chairman of the convention.

MET TO CHOOSE THE CANDIDATES

CITIZENS' EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE IN SESSION YESTERDAY.

No Announcement Was Made of the Names Decided Upon, but They Will Be Made Public Next Tuesday—A Joint Meeting Will Be Held Then.

At the joint meeting of the committees of the Democratic and Citizens parties, to be held next Tuesday afternoon, will be officially announced the complete fusion ticket.

The meeting of the executive committee of the Citizens party, which was scheduled for yesterday afternoon, to consider candidates for their allotment of places on the fusion ticket, was held in Citizens headquarters in Third avenue.

Previous to this meeting a preliminary conference of several of the leaders of the Citizens party was held in the office of Thomas S. Bigelow. Dr. Cadwalader Evans, David E. Oliver and other leaders attended this meeting, which lasted for over an hour.

The candidates for the various offices were considered and at the conclusion of this preliminary meeting an adjournment was taken to Citizens headquarters.

Nearly every member of the Citizens committee of 32 was present at the meeting yesterday afternoon. The session lasted for over two hours, and at its conclusion it was announced that every member of the committee had been pledged to secrecy and that no information concerning the candidates considered and selected would be given out until the joint meeting next Tuesday.

Dr. Cadwalader Evans, who acted as chairman, said that nothing would be given out for publication; that all the plans of the committee had not yet been completed and that absolutely nothing could be announced until it was done so officially. Thomas S. Bigelow stated that the meeting had been entirely satisfactory in every way, but the committee was not yet ready to announce the result.

Before the meeting yesterday afternoon Mr. Bigelow was quoted as saying that the candidates for congress on the fusion ticket would be George Shiras III., to oppose Congressman William H. Graham for re-election; James W. Brown against Dr. A. J. Barchfeld, and that either H. Kirk Porter or William C. McElowney would oppose James Francis Burke.

It was stated last night that the Citizens committee had heard from George Shiras III., who is proposed as a candidate for Congressman Graham's seat, and that he has stated he is perfectly willing to run against the representative of the Twenty-ninth congressional district.

There is reported to be a hitch in the Citizens party over the selection of a candidate for the Thirty-second district to run against Dr. A. J. Barchfeld. James W. Brown has been selected for the place and a number of other possible candidates have also been prominently mentioned.

It is not known definitely whether Mr. Brown was selected yesterday or not. It may be that this was the only place that was not filled at the committee meeting. The principal leaders of the Citizens party are said to be in favor of Brown, but the definite selection of him has met with some opposition.

The favorite candidate in the Thirty-first district, from all sentiment, appears to be H. Kirk Porter, the millionaire locomotive manufacturer, who lives in Fifth avenue, Oakland.

Denial was made last night that W. B. Hays had been selected as the candidate on the fusion ticket for sheriff.

LESLIE REFUSED TO TALK

When Asked to Take the Stand He Pleaded Off on Principle That No Accused Man Can Be Forced to Testify Against Himself.

Remarkable success met the efforts of the yellow book investigating committee yesterday. Evidence was adduced to show that policemen contributed to the machine campaign fund because they feared they would be discharged if they refused, and one witness on his oath stated that he had been told that he must sign the book, this statement being made to him by a lieutenant, a sergeant and an inspector. Director A. H. Leslie of the public safety department flatly refused to be sworn, or to go before the committee as a witness, falling back upon well-known criminal law, that no accused man can be compelled to make statements that will incriminate himself. Director Leslie showed conclusively that he feared the results of the investigation.

The scene in select council chamber, when Director Leslie, pale as death, his voice trembling, and shaking in every limb, refused to go on the stand, was one of the most dramatic that has ever occurred in the city legislative halls. The members of the committee were all present, and the examining of witnesses was under the charge of Select Councilman Robert H. Douglas and President Charles S. Crawford of common council.

Leslie Refused to Testify.

When the committee was called together, Mr. Douglas suggested that Director Leslie be called. The director was silent, and Chairman Harry A. Lamb, turning to him, said: "Mr. Director Leslie, you will please be sworn."

Director Leslie was instantly on his feet. Reinforced with a copy of the resolution under which the investigation is being conducted, he said that they had no right to call him. He read the resolution to the committee, then said: "I shall not at present go on the stand; I and my department have been placed on trial here, and I shall not go on the stand. It is not fair to me to ask me to furnish you with testimony that is directed against my department and myself. There is not a court in the country that would ask me to go on the stand under the circumstances. I shall not be sworn as a witness. I have not been represented here by anyone. No one has been invited to represent me, and no one has been permitted to represent me. This committee invited two attorneys to assist them. I have had no one to represent me."

An Embarrassing Question.

Mr. Douglas—Mr. Leslie, you have been here at each sitting of this committee and you have heard the testimony. Not to be unfair with you, I will tell you the question I want to ask you. It is this: Since you heard testimony here, showing that the yellow book has been circulated in the police stations, have you taken steps to stop such circulation of the yellow book? I want to know from you, if you are going to stop the circulation of this yellow book."

Director Leslie—I shall not go on the stand until you have finished hearing all the testimony. When you get through taking testimony I may go on the stand, but I will not testify until you people have finished.

President Crawford—This committee will hear testimony when it pleases, and will not cease calling witnesses until it is ready to do so. The members of this committee are your superior officers, and you cannot dictate to them. If you testify, you will testify now. This may be the last chance you shall have.

A Heated Colloquy.

Director Leslie—I am not trying to dictate to the committee what it shall do. I am simply saying what I shall do.

Mr. Douglas—If you fear the investigation, and are not prepared to meet the charges, I do not blame you for not going on the stand. If your going on the stand will show you to be responsible for this yellow book I think you are wise not to testify.

The colloquy between the director and the committeemen then became so heated that, mingled with the noise of a passing street car, nothing could be distinguished in the uproar. Finally Chairman Lamb said: "Director Leslie, the question is, will you go on the stand?"

Director Leslie said: "I will not go on the stand, but I do not want to be placed in the position of refusing to go on the stand."

"That settles the matter," said the chairman. "We have not the authority to compel you to do so."

Samuel Ansill, patrolman of No. 8 station, testified that he had been on the police force for four years and that he had contributed, but had never made a voluntary contribution.

Ordered to Sign.

He said he was convinced that his keeping his position depended upon his signing the book. He also testified that Lieut. James F. Lalus had told him four years ago that he would have to sign the yellow book. He also said that a sergeant had told him the same thing, and that Inspector Henry Whitehouse had also told him that he must sign the book. Ansill admitted that he had no actual knowledge of a man ever being discharged for refusing to sign, but he said he was always convinced that he must sign or lose his job.

Jacob Schwartz, patrolman, of Station No. 1, said that he signed the book on May 21, when Supt. McAleese called the men into his office and told them to sign. "He told us," said Schwartz, "that we were standing in our own light if we did not sign, and that if we did not sign it this time he would never ask us again."

Thomas F. O'Brien, cornerman at Sixth and Penn, reporting at No. 1 station, said that he signed the book on May 21, under the persuasion of McAleese, that 18 or 20 men signed just before he did, and that two men signed after he did.

O'Brien said he signed because he always made it a rule to do as the older men on the force did. Charles McAfee, patrolman, of No. 1 station, said he always subscribed voluntarily.

After that the committee adjourned to meet next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

TO UTILIZE RIVER BED FOR FILTERING

W. A. HOEVELER HAS A PLAN FOR FURNISHING PURE WATER.

A Paper Read by Him Before the East End Board of Trade Recently Gives an Outline of His Idea—The Objections to Be Overcome.

W. A. Hoeveler, who has made a study of filtration for many years, read an interesting paper on Monday evening before the East End board of trade. In it he said:

"I have nothing to sell the city of Pittsburgh. Sand filtration, I presume, will be admitted by most people interested in the question, to be the best and cheapest method for procuring practically pure water for all ordinary purposes, viz., drinking, steam making and general uses.

"Bear in mind above every consideration that you must not overwork the sand. This may seem a peculiar assertion, but on this point rests the success or failure of any sand filtering plant or method.

"I never knew a mechanic or other person to build a sand filtering plant (big or little), that did not work to his satisfaction when first put in operation, and generally long enough to make him feel elated, allow him to make some good tests and maybe enable him to sell filters or filter plants. The general cause for failure to procure continued good results is too much work on the sand or filtering material.

"You would not think well of a man if he needed a spade to do some necessary gardening and knew he could get it on Penn avenue in five minutes for 50 cents, but insisted on sending to a hardware man in Philadelphia for the same spade and pay the same price. Such a method seems to be applied to our filtering ideas for Pittsburgh, Allegheny and the county.

Nature Has Provided.

"I come here tonight because I believe nature has given us in the Allegheny river filter beds in excess of our wants and requirements. It abounds in sand which is generally sharp and of good quality for the purpose. It can be used at many places and there is little danger of the land or location being cornered. Very little money in the hands of competent people will establish or deny this claim, and the feasibility of the plans presented. If the conditions are proven true and the method is economical, we can have pure water for all practical purposes at a minimum cost by using the ideas I desire to bring to your attention.

"The filter beds are located in the river between each ripple. River men and boys who have used the river for bathing, etc., will understand what that means. I am talking to people who know the Allegheny river and know that it differs from the Monongahela, Ohio and most other rivers in its formation; we can use about 400 feet out the center, leaving 400 feet on each side, or 800 feet for commercial and sanitary purposes, doing no practical damage to this important waterway.

"Some rights will have to be procured from the United States and a few private properties purchased, but you will not be confined to any particular location, the location of the filter beds being one of business. I have in my mind certain ideal spots, but they can be changed to suit the cost.

"I do not want you to overlook the sunlight and the air. These inexpensive helps are very important in filtering water. I again want to bring to your notice that no matter what plan you use to obtain pure water, it is always advisable to put the least possible work on the filtering material and not ask too much from the schmutzdeckel. If this is given proper consideration clogging is very remote. You can convince yourselves on most points I bring to your notice by spending a little time in and on the water of the beautiful Allgheny.

Questions to Consider.

"Dr. Holland a few weeks ago brought to the public eye through the newspapers a point that you must keep before you when you are considering filtration, that is, the schmutzdeckel. I don't know who first applied this word to the condition, but our German friends will all acknowledge that it is very comprehensive.

"The question resolves itself down to very few points for this body to consider.

"First—How can we get the greatest number of square feet of schmutzdeckel at the least cost? A plan that will require least labor to renew the microbe and dirt catcher. A plan to put the least work on the square foot of exposed schmutzdeckel. A plan that will be able to clean its own schmutzdeckel.

"The Allegheny river has cleaned its sand bed in the past and if we don't obstruct the ways provided by nature, it is likely it will keep on doing its work in the future as it has done in the past.

"Second—How can we best use the sun and air as helps?

"Third—What plan, or method, will enable us to get water at the most favorable level to escape floating matter and precipitants?"

BOYS' BRIGADE RALLY.

It Was Held in Allegheny Carnegie Music Hall.

The Second Pennsylvania regiment of the United Boys' Brigade of America held a rally in the Allegheny Carnegie Music hall last night. The rally was attended by the officers and boys in uniform, the former occupying seats on the stage. An excellent program of speeches and music was furnished for the evening's entertainment. The addresses were made by Maj.-Gen. H. F. Spicer of Philadelphia, Col. J. H. Cudlipp of the Seventh regiment, Lancaster; the Rev. J. H. Lucas, D. D., and Lieut.-Gen. H. P. Bope, commander-in-chief of the brigade. The Lindsay colored quartet of Company G, Third regiment, furnished several selections of vocal and instrumental music and the Second Regiment band also played two numbers. During the rally the members of the regiment and audience sang "Onward, Christian Soldier" and "America."

RIVERMEN INTERESTED.

Local Boat Owners Would Much Regret Congressman Burton's Retiremest From Congress.

The news from Cleveland, the home of Congressman Theodore E. Burton, that he may refuse to be a candidate for re-election was received by Pittsburgh rivermen with the deepest concern. Local rivermen regard him as one of the best men that ever served the river and harbor committee as its chairman.

In speaking about the matter Capt. W. B. Rodgers said: "The rivermen would indeed regret to hear of Congressman Burton retiring from congress, and more especially from the river and harbor committee. He is a man of unquestionable zeal and foresight. One cannot help admire his determination in refusing to be dictated to by the local machine at Cleveland. He has at all times shown the deepest concern in local river affairs and his retirement would be a distinct loss to the waterway interests."

Others who were spoken to said that it has been Mr. Burton's desire to have the present river and harbor bill as it has been framed pass without the least semblance of jobbery, and while the bill is a large one, appropriations have only been recommended where the people will receive the best return for the outlay.

No name has as yet been selected for the craft.

THE BEET SUGAR SENATORS AGREE STILL TO FIGHT

They Decide Unanimously to Stand Out for Unamended House Bill.

TWO FURTHER PROPOSALS

Willing to Compromise on Rebate Plan or to Drop the Subject of Cuban Reciprocity Entirely—White House Statement Coming.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU, Herald Building, Herald Square, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.

The prospects of the Cuban reciprocity bill and the effect thereon of the Thurber testimony before the Cuban relations committee yesterday continued today to be an absorbing topic of conversation at the capitol.

Soon after the president reached the White House tonight Senator Platt of Connecticut, chairman of the committee on Cuban relations, called by appointment. The announcement was made at the White House that no statement would be given out tonight regarding Gen. Wood's action in giving Cuban funds for the circulation of literature favorable to reciprocity legislation, but that such a statement probably would be issued tomorrow.

The administration senators are going ahead with preparations for consideration of the Cuba reciprocity bill, to follow the isthmian canal measure. They take the position that the Thurber testimony has no bearing upon the merits of the bill and they hope that when the vote comes they will have a sufficient number of Republican votes to pass the measure in the form decided upon by the majority of Republicans.

Beet Sugar Senators Meet.

The Republican senators who are friendly to beet sugar and who oppose the proposed legislation for a reduction of the tariff on Cuban products, held a conference lasting almost two hours today and decided to continue their opposition to the reciprocity proposition. They will do this by announcing to the advocates of tariff reduction that they will cast their votes for the reciprocity bill as it passed the house of representatives, including the Morris amendment for the abolition of the differential duty on refined sugar, and that they will resist all amendments that may be offered to it.

They will propose two alternatives. One of these is to drop the subject and make no further attempt to secure reciprocity legislation; the other is to accept the rebate plan.

Today's conference was held in Senator Elkins' committee room. The committee of conciliation, consisting of Senators Elkins, Burrows and Jones of Nevada, appointed to confer with the senators of the Cuban committee, at the outset reported that they had failed to secure concessions from the opposition. The effect of the Thurber testimony was thoroughly considered immediately following this report.

Claim More Than a Majority.

A count of those present and those absent known to be in sympathy with the movement led to the conclusion that there are at least 10 Republican senators who can be depended on to stand together in any course agreed on. Counting the full Democratic vote as favorable to the house bill, the beet sugar advocates concluded that a proposition to pass that measure, unamended, would be the strongest that could be put forward. The combination of the two forces would give a total of 52 votes, or seven more than a majority.

There was objection on the part of some of the senators present to acceptance of the house bill carrying the abolition of the refined sugar differential with the reciprocity provision, but it was pointed out that by no other course are the beet sugar senators sure of receiving the full Democratic vote. The suggestion also was made that rather than see the house bill go to a vote under such conditions the friends of Cuban reciprocity either would accept a rebate plan or permit the session to come to a close without making further attempt to secure action. This line of reasoning prevailed and the decision of the conference was unanimous.

Negotiations to Continue.

It was decided to continue the conference committee with instructions to present the facts as here detailed to the Republican members of the committee on relations with Cuba and to other senators who advocate straight reciprocity.

The Republican caucus of senators, which it was announced yesterday would be held Friday or Saturday, has not yet been called, and Senator Aldrich tonight, after a conference with Senators Allison, Platt of Connecticut and McMillan, said no date had been decided on for the caucus. He still thought, however, that there would be a caucus at an early day.

It is now certain that the Democrats will attempt to make political capital out of the Thurber case and will try to draw the acts of Gen. Wood and the military government of Cuba into range of the Democratic fire. As soon as the reciprocity bill comes up in the senate the Democrats will turn their guns upon the sugar trust and insist that before reciprocity is authorized the differential due on refined sugar must be taken off. The Democrats are confident of arousing public opinion against the sugar trust and efforts to that end will occupy a large part of their attention for the remainder of this session.

Beet Sugar-Democratic Alliance.

A strong coalition between the Democrats and the beet sugar Republicans will be maintained, it is asserted, and maintained to the end, even if Cuban reciprocity fails. It is said that while the Democrats favor reciprocity they will not accept it unless the differential on refined sugar be taken off.

The following may be accepted as the view of some of the influential friends of the Cuban reciprocity bill in the senate upon Gen. Wood's authorization of the use of Cuban funds for the promotion of reciprocity:

How the Fund Was Raised.

"The details of drawing public attention to the necessity of reciprocal trade relations between Cuba and the United States were intrusted to a committee of Cubans representing the several commercial bodies of Havana and the sugar planters. These men raised funds by subscription among themselves and the planters, and they worked in co-operation with the export association of which Mr. Thurber is president.

When it was deemed advisable to send out large numbers of circulars the committee found that their funds were running out. Gen. Wood was appealed to by the Cubans and asked to use a portion of the Cuban funds for the promotion of this distinctly Cuban project. He consented, and the money was devoted to that purpose. Mr. Thurber then sought subscriptions in this country and Mr. Havemeyer gave $2,500. The friends of reciprocity say that so small a sum disproves the exaggerated claim that the sugar trust was lending powerful aid to the promotion of Cuba reciprocity.

MONEY IS NEEDED FOR THE FOURTH

CONTRIBUTIONS TO FUND COMING IN SLOWLY RECENTLY.

Chairman A. J. Logan Says Public Needs to Be Stirred Up in the Matter, as Many Thousands of Dollars Are Required.

Plans for Pittsburgh's big Fourth of July celebration become more complete every day. There is but one thing that worries the executive committee and that is the fact that contributions to the fund have been very slow in coming in recently the total being only $17,712, when almost $25,000 is needed.

"It strikes me that the public need a little stirring up on this matter," said Col. A. J. Logan, chairman of the executive committee. "The fund has by no means reached the proportions necessary to conduct the celebration in a manner befitting the importance and dignity of an occasion such as this, when we are to have as our honor guest no less a personage than the chief executive of the nation. All eyes throughout the length and breadth of the land will be upon Pittsburgh on that day and we will be expected to give a demonstration that will exceed all others. We must show our best front to the president, and we can do it if the people will come up with the necessary amount of cash.

"It takes money to do these things, and here we are within three weeks of the Fourth and several thousand dollars short of the amount we should have in order to carry out our plans. The several sub-committees have their work all planned and everything is in readiness to go ahead, but we can't budge until we are assured that we will be able to carry on these plans.

Money Is Needed.

"The members of the various committees are giving much of their personal time and attention to these matters, neglecting business interests, in fact, to insure the success of their respective allotments of work for the celebration. They are doing all they can and we cannot ask more of them.

"Now it is up to the people to furnish the funds to carry out these plans. It can be done; it's got to be done, and now's the time to do it. I know a few hotels that haven't been heard from yet; I know of several business houses and several private individuals who are also not on the list of subscribers as yet. We would like to hear from them between now and Saturday. I know if the people interested in this celebration will come to the front and help us out the desired sum can be raised inside of 48 hours. We have cut our estimates down to the lowest possible notch, so as not to make the raising of funds burdensome. It will require a total of between $23,000 and $24,000 to carry out the plans of the committee as at present laid down.

A Red Letter Day.

"We want to make the Fourth a red-letter day in the history of the city. We want the eagle to scream louder here than anywhere else in this broad land. There's no reason why it shouldn't. Let us all put our shoulders to the wheel and give President Roosevelt a welcome such as he has never had before. Let's make our display of patriotism an event of national importance and national interest, as it should be."

Arrangements were made with Chairman Robert Pitcairn of the committee of transportation, yesterday, for the movement of the Sheridan troop from Tyrone, Pa., to this city. They will leave Tyrone in a special train on the evening of July 3, and will arrive in East Liberty on the morning of the Fourth. There will be four stock cars filled with horses for the use of the troopers, and the horses will be cared for at the East Liberty stock yards. Capt. C. S. W. Jones, commander of the troop, and his men are eager to come here and assist in the welcome to President Roosevelt.

Boys to Participate.

The younger generation of soldier boys will assist in the parade in the personnel of the Third regiment, United Boys' brigade. They notified Col. Bope yesterday that they would participate. Among the subscriptions to the fund, received late yesterday afternoon, was an envelope containing $24, the contribution of several employes of the bureau of surveys at City hall.

Following are the subscriptions to the fund received yesterday afternoon:

Pig Iron Lower in Cost in Nova Scotia Than Anywhere Else in the World—Interesting Consular Report—Bounties Paid.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., June 12.—The "Iron and Steel Industry of Canada" is the topic of the following interesting report from the pen of Consul General Bittinger at Montreal, which has just been made public by the state department:

A country that has vast deposits of iron ore has a solid foundation for commercial ascendency. Few countries have more iron ore than the Dominion of Canada. It has also coal, and the immense value of these deposits has only been fully appreciated within the last few years. Americans were really the first to realize the immense resources here. They have entered and joined capital with Canadians of wealth and organized the iron and steel industry. The works are under the direction of Americans experienced in this line, and in two years the progress has been astoundingly rapid.

There are eighteen rolling mills and steel works completed in Canada. Of these, one makes steel in a special Bessemer converter, one makes Tropenas steel, and four make open-hearth steel, while two standard Bessemer steel plants and one open-hearth steel plant are being built. The annual capacity of all plants is: Standard, Bessemer, Tropenas, and special Bessemer ingots and castings, 304,400 gross tons; open-hearth ingots and castings, 537,000 gross tons; total ingots and castings, 838,400 tons; rolled products, 981,900.

Low Cost of Pig Iron.

The crowning opportunity is in Nova Scotia, where two strong companies—the Dominion Iron and Steel Company and the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company—have been established with United States capital. The ore is drawn not only from Nova Scotia, in close proximity to the coal, but also from the famous mines on Belle Island. The manufacturing is done at Sydney, and it is claimed the cost of pig iron there is lower than anywhere else in the world. Compared with the Pittsburgh cost, it represents a saving of $2.455 per ton. There is a further saving of $2 a ton freight for export, Sydney being an ocean port. Pig iron can be made here for $6 a ton, steel blooms for less than $10 a ton, and steel rails at about $12.

Steel rails and heavy sections of structural steel form a large part of the iron consumed in Canada. Up to a recent date every ton of this material was imported from foreign sources; now the country is beginning to export. The new mills at Sault Ste. Marie are producing both steel rails and structural steel. At Sydney a steel rail mill is in process of construction and steel billets and blooms are already being made. At New Glasgow, Hamilton and Collingwood a similar expansion in other lines of steel is taking place. In all of these places American capital is dominant.

The following table shows the production of pig iron in Canada since 1894:

Year.	Quantity. Tons.	Year.	Quantity. Tons.
1901	244,976	1897	53,796
1900	86,960	1896	60,059
1899	94,077	1895	37,829
1898	88,786	1894	44,791

Although the production for 1901 is about three times as large as that of the year previous, the building of new plants insures a much greater increase this year. Canada does not yet produce nearly enough for home wants, which are estimated at 800,000 tons a year.

Exports of Pig Iron.

The table of exports of pig iron is as follows:

YEAR.	Quantity. Tons.	Value.
1892	3	$ 95
1893	13	339
1895	259	6,202
1896	1,940	45,363
1897	2,627	65,555
1898	3,403	61,029
1899	2,188	50,767
1901	5,623	117,456

In the first eight months of the present fiscal year Canada has exported 68,609 tons of pig iron, valued at $661,531—that is to say, the exports for the first eight months show an increase of 463 per cent over last year. In 1897 the value of Canada's total exports of "iron and steel and manufactures of" was $1,897,195; in 1901, $3,717,587. Nevertheless, the total value of the import in this line in 1901 amounted to $27,107,419.

The Dominion government grants bounties for the manufacture of iron and steel in Canada.

Canadian bridge companies are also protected on structural steel up to 35 pounds per yard, by a duty of $7 per ton. On steel of 36 pounds per yard and heavier the duty is 10 per cent. For electric street car purposes steel rails are dutiable at 30 per cent, and the same rate is charged on all light rails up to 45 pounds per yard; but all rails outside of these two descriptions, and weighing over 45 pounds per yard, are admitted into the country free. Much higher protection is being demanded by the iron and steel interests, but the government is not inclined to raise the tariff.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, June 12.—Jack Chesbro was the bright particular star in today's game at Washington park, Brooklyn, before 5,500 spectators. He had the Hanlonites at his mercy, only two of them reaching the second station, and not until the eighth inning did a man reach third. Only five hits were made off him, and a couple of these were of the scratchy kind, especially McCreery's double, which should only have been a single. While, on the other hand Newton was hit much harder than the score shows.

O'Connor allowed none of the Brooklyns to take any liberties with him on the bases, not a Brooklynite reaching a bag on a steal, while the champions turned all kinds of tricks on Ahearn, the Brooklyn catcher, finishing up their day's work with a clean total of seven stolen bases to their credit.

Pirates Played High-Class Ball.

All the champions played nigh class ball, putting through a lightning double play. Clarke in the fourth inning made a beautiful running catch of what looked like a "Texas leaguer" back of short. After getting the ball he almost turned a complete somersault.

The champions started right after Newton in the first inning, when Lefty Davis got a free pass to first. Clarke hit to the infield, forcing Davis at second. Clarke commenced the stealing of bases for his side. He reached second by a good margin. While Beaumont was endeavoring to bring his captain home Clarke made a beautiful steal of third. Beaumont could do nothing with Newton. Wagner was greeted by his Pittsburgh friends in the grand stand. He acknowledged their salutation by "bunting" a la Wagner to deep left for three bases, chasing Clarke over the rubber. Bransfield hit for a nice single to center, scoring Wagner. Bransfield got to second on a nice steal, Ritchey closing the inning with a high fly to Dolan.

The Pirates succeeded in the second inning in filling the bases, but Beaumont raised a high foul which McCreery got after a hard run near the fence, closing the inning.

Clarke got his base on balls in the fifth, making the fourth man to reach first by that route. McCreery took care of Beaumont's hit. Clarke reaching second on the play. Clarke drew a high throw from Ahearn, reaching third safely on a pretty steal. Wagner raised a high one to Sheckard, Clarke scoring on the throw in. Bransfield hit to deep center for three bases, but by a quick return of the ball by Dolan and Dahlen he was nipped at the plate, ending the inning.

O'Connor There With His Bat.

Two more runs were gathered in the eighth, when Wagner hit safely. Bransfield and Ritchey were easy on infield hits, Wagner reaching third. Leach raised a high fly to left, which Sheckard dropped, allowing Wagner to score and the batter reached second. O'Connor brought in the fifth and last run with a neat single and Chesbro filed out.

Both Wagner and O'Connor emphatically deny the story from St. Louis regarding their jumping to the opposition there. The score:

BOSTON, June 12.—Boston won in the eighth inning today. In that inning Williams' wildness, coupled with some opportune hitting by Boston, gave the home team three runs and the game. Chicago's only run was secured on a single, a fumble and a wild pitch. Attendance, 3,106. Score:

MISS HECKER'S FAST GOLF IN TOURNAMENT

Woman Champion's Play Is All the Feature of the Annual Competition.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, June 12.—The second round of match play for the women's Metropolitan golf championship at the Essex Country club today was notable for the remarkably fast golf played by the present champion, Miss Genevieve Hecker. Her card of 77 for the 18 holes

MISS GENEVIEVE HECKER,
Woman Golf Champion, Whose Play in Present Tournament Is Sensational.

is probably the best made in this country by a woman. Miss Hecker's opponent today was Miss Ruth Underhill, who in the last two annual tournaments has met the champion in the finals. Today Miss Hecker led steadily after the second green and when the match was finished at the 12th Miss Underhill had not won a hole. She won, however, one of the bye holes in the play off.

On the other side of the tournament Mrs. William Shippen beat Miss C. G. Willis (both of Morris county) and will play tomorrow Miss Helen Hernandez of Orange, who won a close match today with Miss Grace Ellis of Baltusrol.

Summary, championship round: Mrs. William Shippen, Morris county, beat Miss C. G. Willis, Morris county, 4 up, 2 to play; Miss Helene Hernandez, Essex county, beat Miss Grace Ellis, Baltusrol, 2 up, 1 to play; Mrs. E. A. Manice, Baltusrol, beat Mrs. N. P. Rogers, 3 up, 1 to play; Miss Genevieve Hecker, Apawamis, beat Miss Ruth Underhill, Nassau, 7 up, 6 to play.

PLAY FOR WOMEN TODAY.

Mrs. O. D. Thompson Cup Event on Allegheny Course.

The only local golf offered for today is the 18-hole handicap on the new Allegheny Country club course back of Sewickley for a cup offered by Mrs. O. D. Thompson for the lowest net score.

The match players will be busy tomorrow with two interesting contests on the program. The only league match will be played on the Edgewood course between the Edgewood six and the team of the Westmoreland Country club. Westmoreland is much stronger this season, while the Edgewood team has been winning right along in the matches played so far.

The other match of the day will be played on the Schenley course between the Pittsburgh Golf club and the Cincinnati Golf club.

Cuban Giants Still Winning.

Cleveland, O., June 12.—Formal notice of an injunction was served today on Second Baseman Lajoie and Pitcher Bernhard of the Cleveland baseball team. The papers were issued by Judge Martin of Philadelphia. There is some question as to the jurisdiction of the Pennsylvania court and the matter will be decided with this case. The serving of notice is preliminary to the bringing of suit in the local courts.

Fultz's error and Bradley's single in the seventh inning gave Cleveland a victory over Philadelphia. It was the first time this season that Lajoie failed to make a hit.

DETROIT, June 12.—Errors by Capt. Casey and Yeager in the second inning followed by three hits, a base on balls and hit batsman gave Baltimore six runs and the game. Umpire Sheridan's decisions were very poor and provoked an almost constant demonstration against him from the crowd. RECORD TIME SEEMS ASSURED FOR RACE

WORK BY BOTH RIDERS PROMISES WORLD'S MARKS.

Baltimore Man Has Ridden Away Under Ten-Mile Record on Local Track but Recently—Freeman's Time for Five Miles Was Very Fast.

Judging from the time being made by the two stars on eastern tracks, as well as from the actual performance of Freeman when here last week, there is every support for the expectation that the Colosseum track—the fastest in the country—will witness new world's records for motor-paced bicycle racing tomorrow night. Albert Champion, the crack French rider, is one of the most spectacular and daring of the professional riders before the public and has just lowered Howard Freeman's record for 10 miles by two-fifths of a second.

The mark is now 14:47, but it must be remembered that this record was made on the Baltimore track and that the Colosseum is unquestionably faster. It should also be borne in mind when looking for records that Freeman in his race last Saturday night, which was spoiled by the rain, was away under his Baltimore record, when the track became too wet for fast riding in the eighth mile. When it is remembered that he went five miles in 7:11 2-5 there is ground to base hopes for something less than the present record of 14:47 for 10 miles when Freeman meets in Champion a rider who will make him ride far faster than Monroe did. Both men have been bright stars of paced racing this season, and a great race should result from their meeting.

Champion will be paced by Stone and Gateley and Hoyt and Vetter, who are acknowledged to be two of the best pacing teams in the country. Champion's riding is of the kind that appeals to the spectators, as he absolutely does not know what fear is, and can follow any place the big machine will take him.

The finishing touches were put on the Colosseum yesterday and the great track is now completed. The seating capacity of the stand is over 7,000, and the new lights which have been put in make it possible to see distinctly every portion of the track from any seat in the stand.

FIRST PRACTICE SPINS.

Pennsy's Crew on the Water at Poughkeepsie.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 12.—The Pennsylvania crews practiced on the river this morning. The four crews, 'varsity eight, freshmen eight and two 'varsity fours rowed up the river to the start, Coach Ward following them on the launch Ben Franklin. The 'varsity raced the freshmen to the boat house a distance of two miles and a half and beat them a length and a half. The freshmen finished quite tired. The river was rather choppy and it was their first experience in anything but smooth water. The 'varsity eight showed good condition. When the freshmen dropped out of the race the 'varsity continued to the finish of the four-mile course and returned to the boat house. Mr. Ward said that both crews did as well as he expected after their train ride yesterday, but he is not satisfied with their speed. He expects, however, to see improvement within a week.

THE OLD SOLDIERS' RACE.

If Room Can Be Found It Will Be Run at Schenley on the Fourth.

Gilbert Barnes, the civil war veteran, who is famous as a long-distance runner, states that arrangements have been made for an old soldiers' race at Schenley park on the Fourth, provided room can be made for it on the program.

Barnes challenges any five ex-soldiers, four veterans of the civil war and one of the Spanish, to run five miles against him, each to run one mile and the first to have a 10-yard start. Barnes requests that any veterans anxious to compete communicate with the sporting editor of The Gazette.

THE BROOKLYN DERBY PROVED EXCITING RACE

It Was Cleverly Won by Major Daingerfield, Ridden by Odom.

ARTVIS WON THE TREMONT

Ten High-Class Horses Started in the Event and the Finish Saw a Furious Drive and a Very Close Victory for the Favorite.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, June 12.—F. C. McLewee's black colt Major Daingerfield, by Handspring-Mondroit, with Odom up, won the Brooklyn Derby for 3-year-olds at Gravesend today. He was heavily played, closing at 1 to 2, with King Hanover second choice at 5 to 2, while Homestead was well supported at 5 to 1, and Emshee, the despised outsider, at 20 to 1.

They were sent away to a good start. King Hanover was first away and set the pace under a strong pull. Comin past the stand the first time he was leading by a length with Major Daingerfield second and full of running. Turning into the back stretch Odom gave Major Daingerfield his head and he bounded forward and passed the leader. Steadily increasing his lead to the wire, he won easily by eight lengths from Homestead, who ran into second place on the far turn. King Hanover was third, ten lengths back, with Emshee five lengths in the rear of King Hanover. The time, 2:37, for one and a half miles, was fair, considering the track conditions.

High-Class Horses in Race.

Ten high-class two-year-olds faced the starter for the Tremont stakes today, with Artvis favorite and also the winner.

Fire Eater was played heavily to win this event but third was the best he could do. Artvis broke about fourth, and at once went to the front, followed by Whorler. These two raced together to the stretch, where Whorler fell back beaten and White Chapel, who came from away back, challenged at the eighth pole and in a furious drive Artvis won by a few inches. The weather was warm and the track heavy. Summaries:

First race for all ages, high weight handicap, about 6 furlongs—Monte Carlo, 109, L. Smith, 25 to 1 and 8 to 1, won; St. Barmar, 109, Rice, 6 to 1 and 2 to 1, second; Eddie Busch, 118, Wonderly, 16 to 5 and 6 to 5, third. Time, 1:11 4-5. Belvino, Sweet Clover, Rockford, Khital, MacAna, Bleachen, Enright and Allard Schoek also ran.

Second race, for 3-year-olds, selling, mile and 70 yards—Shandonfield, 107, Buchanan, 7 1 and 2 to 1, won; Alack, 102, D. O'Connor, 7 to 2 and even, second; Bessie McCarthy, 108, Wonderly, 7 to 10 and out, third. Time, 1:48. Edgar Poe, Carrier Pigeon and Cryptogram also ran.

Third race, the Tremont stakes for 2-year-olds, about 6 furlongs—Artvis, 115, Doggett, 8 to 5 and 3 to 5, won; White Chapel, 115, Shaw, 4 to 1 and 8 to 5, second;

STEEL COMBINE FEARS SHORTAGE IN RAW MATERIAL

Discovers It Will Need More Bessemer Iron Than It Contracted For.

PRICES RAISED TOO HIGH

Bar Figures Also Running Away From the Association, Which Finds Itself Deprived of Authority. Structural Steel Scarce.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, June 12.—It was currently reported today that a meeting of the officials of various operating departments of the United States Steel Corporation was being held to consider the question of Bessemer iron supply. Officials of the corporation would neither confirm nor deny the report. It is generally known that a shortage of Bessemer iron exists, and it is the desire of the corporation to increase its output as rapidly as possible.

At outside plants the price is reported to have advanced from $19.75 to $21 a ton, which the steel corporation regards as excessive. About a month ago the steel corporation paid $16.50 a ton for a three months' supply.

Sites for several new furnaces have been agreed upon and within the next 12 months the corporation will be in a much stronger position from the standpoint of raw material than it is at present. The steel corporation purchases between 500,000 and 600,000 tons of Bessemer iron from the Mahoning and Shenango valley furnaces every year. The last amount purchased called for delivery in the first half of 1903, but the management of the combine have arrived at the conclusion that they will need considerably more pig iron than they have contracted for. As aforesaid it is for this reason that they desire to hasten the work of erecting new blast frunaces.

Bar Iron Prices Running Away.

The new Bar Iron association is menaced with a predicament very similar to that into which the steel plate pool has fallen. It is another case of prices running away with the pool. The association is no longer able to exercise its authority and its minimum quotation has become a purely nominal thing.

The bar iron situation is even more difficult than the steel situation, because of the fact that the Republic Iron & Steel Company, which is the largest producer of bar iron, is going its independent way as passively, if not, indeed, actively opposed, to the authority of the association or pool. There is not a mill in the country that is now selling bar iron for less than $2 a hundred pounds, although the association's minimum is nearly 20 cents lower than that price. ..... for future delivery now range from $2 to $2.25 a hundred pounds, and much higher for immediate delivery.

The American Steel Hoop Company, a constituent concern of the United States Steel Corporation, is said to be selling bar iron on a basis of $2.10 a hundred pounds "at mill," which is equivalent to $2.23 "New York."

Structural Material Scarce.

Reports from all over the country indicate that building operations are embarrassed for want of channels and beams and other structural material. This applies not only to office buildings, work on which is being conducted on a very large scale in New York, but also to the construction of industrial plants. It it difficult to see how there can be any relief in the near future. Structural iron plants are being worked to the extreme limit of their capacity, and still the demand continues cumulative and contracts are tendered in increasing volume.

New Steel Car Plant.

The directors of the American Car & Foundry Company recently inspected the new steel car plant just completed at Detroit. They are very well pleased with the efficiency of the property. The main building is 730 feet long by 90 feet wide, and there is not a piece of shafting or a belt in the entire plant. All of the machinery is run by electricity, generated in a power house 120x120 feet. Westinghouse generators are used.

Next Year's Big Iron Trade.

Rogers, Brown & Co., in their weekly review of the pig iron situation, say:

Following the movement in the steel trade, interest in the pig iron maket now begins to center in 1903 deliveries. The attitude of buyers has until now been indifferent touching next year's business, the feeling being that many things may happen in the next seven months, and that stress are briefly to be in the buyers' as in the sellers' hands. Some of the largest consumers, however, begin to feel the need of securing raw materials to cover contracts which they are making, and some considerable contracts are finding their way to furnace books for January to June deliveries. It is signidcant that all such buying is volunteered, the furnaces preferring to wait for some months before taking up next year's business.

One thing pig iron makers are assured of, and that is, higher cost all along the line. Where the increase in the cost of labor and material will end cannot now be foreseen. For this reason, it is thought best to go slow on future commitments.

One question of prime importance to the future of the market seems to be settled by the events of the past two weeks. This is whether consumption will be materially checked when the old contracts are worked out and the consumer has to pay current market rates. In pig iron it is estimated that the average current cost to foundries and mills is $3 a ton less than prices at which iron can now be bought for future deliveries. The users of finished material have been getting like advantage on their contracts. Fears have been expressed that when the whole market was brought up to the highest level there would be a check in new enterprise. The history of the past fortnight seems to dispel such doubt. The railroads are buying rails and other material more heavily even than a year ago, and a large number of other heavy lines are taking hold in a way which shows fullest confidence in the future.

NEWS FROM THE MINES

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, June 12.—It is announced that the B. B. & B. C. railroad is to build through the Slate creek country into Okanogan, Wash. This is good news for Okanogan, which as a mining district is virtually bottled up at present. The territory has been developed to a point where further exploration will not pay. With no outlet for the ores, mining has been suspended for some time. It was at first believed that Okanogan would prove a free-milling camp, and ten mills were erected before it was ascertained that the ores needed smelting. When the railroad gets in a large custom smelter will be erected at a convenient point in the district.

A bonanza strike is reported in the Governor at Ouray, Col. An eight-inch vein has been stripped for 250 feet that assays $1,500 gold to the ton. Some of the rock runs up to $40 a pound. Heretofore the strikes in this mine have been rich pockets of ore. It is believed the present one will prove continuous.

Out of 32 leasers developing the Anaconda estate at Cripple Creek, 14 are in ore and making regular shipments.

Glowing accounts are coming from the Bald mountain camp, 14 miles from Colorado Springs. A. E. Street has a three-foot vein uncovered at a depth of 20 feet that he claims averages $10,000 gold to the ton. Another strike of rich ore has been made at St. Peters Dome, near Mr. Street's claim.

Last year the New Mines syndicate of Yogo, Mont., produced 100,000 carats of cuttable sapphires and sold 5,000 ounces of stones for jewelry purposes. The aggregate value for the output was over $60,000. A new outfit of machinery has been purchased, and it is estimated that this year's output will double that of last.

The first cleanup of the new cyanide plant of the Alder Creek Company, near Deadwood, S. D., resulted in a bar of bullion worth $5,200. The run occupied 15 days and used up 850 tons of ore.

Operators at Bingham, Utah, are agitating for a 35-cent haul on ores, instead of the present 50-cent tariff. They also want coke cut down from $8.50 to $7 a ton and the tariff on lime rock reduced from 40 cents to 25 cents a ton.

The Manhattan, at Tintic, Utah, is working a vein that yields from 12 to 30 ounces silver and from $1.20 to $1.40 gold. It is off the wing below the tunnel level.

As the season advances the tonnage of the Dexter at Tuscarora, Nev., is steadily increasing. May's output was $14,000 gold, an increase of $4,500 over April.

Californians have secured 25 acres of placer land near Dos Cabezas, Ariz. The ground is said to run from 20 cents to $60 a cubic yard and is mineralized to a depth of 40 feet.

A cyanide mill with a capacity of 50 tons per day will be installed on the Second Relief near Ymir, B. C., next month.

The Metal Market.

The London and home markets for tin were decidedly lower today. The foreign market closed 10s lower for spot and £1 5s off for future. Spot closed at £130 10s and futures at $125 5s. The decline in the day about 75 points, with spot at 20.75@30.12½c. Copper ruled quiet and about steady, with standard, spot to August, at 11.70@12.00c; lake, 12.42½@12.62½c; electrolytic at 12.12½@12.25c. The London copper market eased off 2s 6d, with spot at £54 5s and futures at £54 7s 6d. Lead ruled steady, but quiet and unchanged locally, quoted at 4¼c. The London market was also ruled unchanged at £11 5s. Spelter continued quoted on the more or less nominal basis of 4¾c at New York; at London £18 12s 6d was the price. Iron showed no features of importance at home, ruling dull. Warrants were nominal; No. 1 foundry, northern, $20 50@22 00; No. 2 foundry, northern, $20 50@21 50; No. 1 foundry, southern, $20 50@21 50; No. 1 foundry, southern soft, $20 50@21 50. Abroad prices were a shade easier. Glasgow closed 54s 1d and Middlesboro at 49s 6d.

Stocks Relapsed Into Torpid Condition

DEALINGS FALL OFF ONE-THIRD IN AGGREGATE

Bull Traders Find the Market Too Dull to Be Readily Boosted.

IS NO ACTUAL WEAKNESS

Selling Pretty Well Absorbed as Soon as Offerings Are Made—Large Dealings in Reading, but Missouri Pacific Heads the List.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, June 12.—The stock market relapsed today into a torpid condition and dealings fell off about one-third from yesterday's aggregate. The efforts which were conspicuous yesterday to advance prices, and which were still in evidence in the early market today, were discontinued in face of the discouraging reception they met, and prices were allowed to fall back. There was no actual weakness developed and the selling was pretty well absorbed. In Reading, especially, in which there were large offerings, there was ready absorption and apparently a determination to support the stock. The conspicuous position of Missouri Pacific was enhanced today, and the volume of the dealings in that stock were far in excess of those in any other on the list. It was moved upwards a point at one time, followed by Texas and Pacific, but the advance met such heavy selling orders that the movement for the advance was abandoned and practically all the gain was lost.

Gossip About Dividend.

The only development to account for the strength of the stock was the continued gossip that the dividend will shortly be increased. The reaction in the market was largely due to a better appreciation of the decrease in the coming wheat crop estimate involved in the falling off in the spring wheat acreage. The transfer of Nebraska from the spring wheat to the winter wheat list involves the deduction of most of its acreage from the spring wheat estimate. The revision in the coining wheat crop estimate thus involved caused persistent strength in the wheat market. The strength of the corn market was said to be in sympathy with wheat, but it had even a more significant influence on the stock market owing to the vast importance attached to the fate of the coming corn crop in its bearing upon the prosperity of the whole country. Speculative sentiment was less hopeful today regarding the position of the coal mining controversy.

Rumors Still in Evidence.

This feeling was emphasized by rumors which found circulation that a message to Congress by the president on the subject was in contemplation. Yesterday's public statement by the operators of their position was seen to involve in effect the dissolution of the miners' union, and the irreconcilable position thus presented was felt to threaten a lengthened contest. The pressure upon Sugar was connected with yesterday's testimony before the senate committee regarding the methods pursued in the advocacy of the Cuban reciprocity policy. A notable decline in May exports of the principal domestic articles reported from Washington had a depressing effect, especially in view of the great importance of a sustained trade balance in favor of this country during the next few months on account of the heavy obligations to foreign lenders which will mature in that time. There was also a significant demand in the time loan money market for accommodations running over the period of the coming semi-annual settlement and of the later demand for currency to move the crops. The market closed dull, but steady. The movements in the bond market were irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,990,000.

United States 2s registered declined ¼ and the new 4s ½. The old 4s registered advanced ⅛ per cent on the last call.

WALL STREET FEATURES.

Total sales, 273,500 shares; par value, $1,990,000.

Missouri Pacific leads the list in the dealings on the strength of a rumor that the dividend is to be increased.

Large offerings are made in Reading, but the stock was quickly absorbed.

The general market has fallen back into its dull rut, as the operators who tried to enliven it gave it up as a bad job.

Rumors of a settlement of the coal strike are still heard, but have less influence than at first.

News from Washington causes pressure on sugar.

Southeastern Ohio to the Front

Southeastern Ohio was the only section in the lower southwest that could furnish any sensational field developments. In the new Keener sand pool, near Jerusalem, Monroe county, the Unity Oil Company drilled in its No. 2 on the Hall and Kate M. Harper farm and when a few feet in the sand the well began to flow at the rate of 30 barrels an hour. This is by far the best showing made by any of the seven wells this company has drilled into the sand in this pool. The location is 500 feet south of No. 1 on the same farm, which is still holding up at 140 barrels a day and is more than three months old. No. 1 on the Frank Peterman farm is holding up at 70 barrels and No. 3 C. E. Ketter at 80 barrels a day.

Developments in other parts of southeastern Ohio are commonplace enough. Nothing but small wells and dusters were reported from all other districts. In the Graysville development the Western Oil Company has drilled its No. 7 on the W. J. Getchell farm through the Keener sand and will not have better than a 5-barrel pumper.

On Wolf Creek, Morgan county, the Hastings Oil Company has completed its second test well on the G. D. Murdock farm and has a duster in the shallow sand.

In the Carson pool, Hancock county, Freshwater & Carson have completed their No. 2 on the Carson Bros. farm and have a show for a 25-barrel producer.

In the same district Tennant, Hochstetter & Gunsburg have drilled their No. 24 on the W. F. Henry farm through the sand and have a duster.

In the Carson pool, Hancock county, Freshwater & Carson have completed their No. 2 on the Carson Bros. farm and have a show for a 25-barrel producer.

In the same district Tennant, H. B. Lunts & Co. have completed a test well on the J. W. Whitehill farm and have a show for a 25-barrel producer.

In the Speechley sand district in Butler county, the Southern Oil Company has completed a test well on the Kammer-Rider farm and have an average well for that territory.

In the upper end of the Pine Grove district in the same county, L. S. Hoyt & Co. have completed their No. 56 on the L. S. Hoyt tract and have a 50-barrel producer, natural.

On the west side of the Fifth sand development in Gilmer county, the South Penn has completed its test well on the Arnold Moore farm and will not have better than a 15-barrel pumper.

South of Bealls Mills, Lewis county, the same company is drilling in the top of the Fifth sand at its No. 2 on the William Griggs farm.

In the Stout district, Doddridge county, No. 9 on the John A. Boyle farm has been completed and shot and is good for 25 barrels a day from the Gordon sand.

The gauges of some of the South Penn Company's producers are as follows: In the Salem district, A. H. Hilbrecht, No. 1, 175 barrels; S. C. Barnes No. 6, 250 bbls; Folsom district, Wetzel county, W. N. Cunningham No. 3, 250 barrels, No. 1 Jacob Cunningham, 100 barrels. In Marshall county, D. Boso No. 1, 105 barrels and Redfor heirs' No. 1, 135 barrels. In Greene county, No. 1 S. S. Tibby is holding up at 200 barrels a day.

On McKim creek, Tyler county, Trees & Co. have drilled their test well on the L. Hill farm through the Big Injun sand and have a duster. In the same district the Carter Oil Company's No. 16 on the J. L. Poe farm has declined to 120 barrels a day.

In the shallow sand territory in Wood county, the Frederick Oil Company drilled its No. 2 on the T. H. Locker farm through the sand and while lowering the torpedo to gauge it a shot a premature explosion took place which let down 160 feet from the top of the hole and it is quite likely ruined the well. It was showing for 5 barrels and day when drilled into the sand.

In the same district Tennant, Hochstetter & Gunsburg have drilled their No. 24 on the W. F. Henry farm through the sand and have a duster.

Pittsburgh Brewing Common Rose Easily on Heavy Buying

THE BOOM IN BREWING WAS THE FEATURE

Common Stock Rose Over a Point and Closed Very Strong.

PREFERRED ALSO HIGHER

Window Glass Was Dull and Weaker, but Rallied at the Close—Steel Securities Were Dull and Barely Steady.

Speculation took a new turn in the local security market yesterday, the interest shifting from Window Glass and the steel stocks to Pittsburgh Brewing Company shares. Brewing common was the leader in activity, sales reaching nearly 3,000 shares, while a net advance of more than a point was recorded for the day. The close was strong and at the top, and the stock gave every evidence of going still higher, or at least of holding its own, the demand at the close being good. The opening was quiet at 27¼ and it was not until the second hour that the upward movement got well under way. At 27½ inside interests were heavy buyers and before the close new buying orders appeared and sent the prices up above 28. The preferred rose about half a point to 45½ and the bonds advanced to 114, but trading in neither was heavy. The movement appears to be based on nothing more than favorable though unofficial reports of earnings and the possibility of an increased dividend on the common stock.

Window Glass was much less active than on Wednesday, sales falling off to 1,250 shares. The tendency of the stock was downward, though the decline was checked and a fair rally before the close resulted in the net loss for the day being only ⅜. The preferred sold unchanged at 92½ and Plate Glass also sold unchanged at 118. Steel stocks were rather slow, very slow, in fact. Crucible shares were the object of only a very languid interest and both common and preferred lost ⅛. United States Steel common was unchanged at 39¾.

In the coal group the feature was Pittsburgh Coal common, though only a single sale was posted. However, offerings were very bright and after a trade at the unchanged price of 24⅛ bids were advanced to 24½ before the close. The preferred was easy. River Coal preferred had a light sale at 42¼@42⅝, while the common was unchanged at 12⅝.

In the banking group there was little of interest beyond a continuation of the rise in Exchange National, which sold up to 100 or twice par on sales of 100 shares. Federal National was easier and Real Estate Trust steady.

G. L. McFarland bought Brewing 6s at the advance.

City Deposit Bank advanced one point to a new high mark at 174 bid.

For the 10 months ending with April the exports of manufactures were $365,820,859, against $330,307,627 for the corresponding 10 months of the preceding fiscal year.

STOCKHOLDERS GAVE PLAN THEIR APPROVAL

United States Steel Corporation Replies to Suit Against Conversion of Stock Into Bonds.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEWARK, N. J., June 12.—The United States Steel corporation filed an answer today to the suit brought by Miriam Barger, of Sullivan county, N. Y., to restrain the company from retiring $200,000,000 of preferred stock and issuing bonds instead. Tomorrow the constitutional points raised in the bill will be argued. Meanwhile the rule to show cause, granted by Vice-Chancellor Emory last Monday, acts as a stay.

The answer avers that the corporation, by virtue of the law under which it exists, has the right to make, alter or amend its by-laws, subject always to the vote of the stockholders, as was done in the present case.

The bill denies that it was ever the intention of the defendant corporation, or its officers, to make the new bonds convertible into common stock at any price or in any manner whatsoever. It claims that the action of the directors in retiring the preferred stock was voted upon and assented to by nearly all the capital stock of the corporation.

In regard to the contract with J. P. Morgan & Co., the answer declares that the contract was approved by more than a majority of the stockholders, not including stock registered in the name of J. P. Morgan & Co. or any member of or representative of that firm, or any subscriber to said syndicate, or any officer or director of the defendant corporation. In other words the 2,061,576 shares belonging to the persons mentioned were excluded. Of the 8,124,433 shares remaining, 5,642,912 shares were voted in approval of the contract. Of the balance, less than 13,000 shares were voted in opposition.

MEETING WAS ENDED.

Wholesale Liquor Dealers Brought Their Sessions to Close With a Banquet Last Night.

Covers were laid for 300 at the banquet of the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' association at the Hotel Henry last night, and nearly every seat was occupied. It was the ending of the two days' session of the association's seventh annual meeting, the best ever held.

Business was ended soon after noon yesterday, and after lunch 40 carriages lined up in front of the hotel, and the delegates, their wives and friends put in the afternoon driving about the residence streets in the East End and in the parks. Some of the delegates took long trolley rides to the suburbs.

One of the important matters settled yesterday was the selection of a place of meeting next year. There was considerable rivalry between the delegates from Buffalo, Louisville, Cleveland and Cincinnati. There was a little sentiment about the selection of Cincinnati, as the new president, J. W. Freiberg, is from that city.

W. J. Sunstein of Pittsburgh was again selected as a member of the executive committee. He is also a member of the board of control, and of the press committee. The other members of the executive committee are Louis Gerstley, Philadelphia; Samuel Grabfelder, Louisville; August Graf, St. Louis, and John Morrin, Kansas City. Mr. Sunstein is chairman.

The press bureau of information was the principal matter discussed yesterday. A majority of the members want the association to do nothing in politics except so far as may be necessary for self-preservation. Fire will be fought with fire. If in any state the friends of prohibition attempt to pass legislation adverse to the manufacture and sale of liquor, political influence will be sought and used as freely as necessary.

The main object of the bureau is to keep the members of the association posted as to what is being done in the different states. A committee was appointed to have the matter in charge, and arrangements were made for the necessary funds.

President J. W. Freiberg presided at the banquet last night. Toasts were delivered by Mr. Freiburg, the retiring president, W. A. Broderick; Philip Hamburger, W. J. Friday, A. J. Sunstein and many other prominent members. The menu was an elaborate one, and it was not until a late hour that coffee and cigars were reached.

All Cereals Are Higher in Chicago

GRAIN PRICES PUSHED HIGHER BY THE BROKERS

Trade Is of Little Importance, Except There Is Some Activity in Oats.

NEWS SLIGHTLY BULLISH

Cables on Wheat Indifferent, but Receipts Are Light—Cash Demand Is Small—Provisions Close Lower in All Products.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Chicago, June 12.—Bullish sentiment put grain prices up today. Trade was of little importance save in oats, where there was good activity. The scarce news, however, was of a slightly bullish turn, and at the close July wheat was ¼@⅜c up, July corn ½c higher and July oats ½c higher. Provisions were pushed down in most products and closed 7½c higher to 10c lower.

Wheat opened bullish, with little news upon which to argue strength. Cables were indifferent, but receipts were small; there was more wet weather in several localities in the west, and there was continued talk of reduced stocks. Cash demand, however, amounted to little. Yet the crowd felt bullish and bought. This worried the fairly good-sized short interest, and July, after opening ¼@⅜c up at 72@72¼c, advanced to 72½c. There was still some excitement in Minneapolis and prices there advanced. Later the Liverpool cables reported an advance in English futures on bad weather; French markets also were higher.

Wheat Closes Firm.

The close was rather firm, July ¼@⅝c up at 72@72½c. Local receipts were 15 cars, one of contract grade; Minneapolis and Duluth reported 164 cars, making a total for the three points of 179 cars, against 256 last week and 446 a year ago. Primary receipts were 230,000 bushels, compared to 402,000 last year. Seaboard clearances in wheat and flour equaled 277,000 bushels. The seaboard reported 20 loads taken for export.

Corn was dull but firm all day. Trade neglected this pit, but the strength in wheat and the small acceptances offset the favorable weather so much that support by the big bulls was not necessary. Prices advanced at the opening, but when wheat lost some of its strength corn eased off and July closed steady, ¼c higher, at 63¼c. Much of the early strength was based on the argument that although receipts were liberal at 312 cars, the percentage of contract grade was small. Crop reports are not particularly bearish, especially those from Iowa and Illinois.

Lively Day in Oats.

Oats had the exchange pit of the floor. Shorts covered briskly early, there was a strong demand from commission houses and as there was little pressure to sell July new jumped from 38¾c at the opening to 40¾c. Receipts were very light at 88 cars, with very little stuff contract grade. The cash demand was steady. Profit taking on the advance was plentiful and eased the demand so that much of the advance was lost. There was, however, marked independence to the pit, and July new closed firm, ½c up, at 35¾c.

It is said packers' interest tried to push provision prices down. Hogs at the yards were weaker and the natural conditions favored a break, but after a little dip at the opening the packers took up the offerings and again advanced prices. There were few shorts in ribs, who covered and caused an upturn, but after that was over the packers found the pit so dull that they could not have unloaded pork or lard on any one save at lower prices. July pork slumped to $17 57½ and closed 10c down at $17 60; July lard closed 5c lower at $10 30, and July ribs 7½c up at $10 45, after selling at $10 55.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat 20 cars, corn 355 cars, oats 105 cars, hogs 28,000 head.

DOCTORS ASSERT BROWNING'S BILL IS EXORBITANT

Pittsburgh Physicians Regarded Mr. Magee's Disease as Incurable.

OPERATION ONLY CHANCE

George M. Von Bonnhorst Says the Subject of Rates Was Not Talked of Between the Doctor and Mr. Magee on His First Visit.

Almost the entire day was given up to an examination of physicians in the Magee estate audit yesterday. Dr. C. C. Lange said $10 for an examination and $5 for a treatment were reasonable charges if treatment were given once or twice a week; for every day the rate was high. The bill of $190,000 he did not consider reasonable. Judging from the testimony he regarded Mr. Magee's disease as incurable. A patient suffering from such a disease, he said, would be completely under the domination of the physician who could give him relief.

On cross-examination Dr. Lange said the fees of an expert were not regulated by any system, but depended upon the agreement between patient and physician.

Dr. J. C. Wilson of Philadelphia, in answer to a hypothetical question covering a case like Mr. Magee's, said the fee of $190,000 was unreasonable and unprecedented. The witness knew Dr. Browning and had treated Mr. Magee as a physician, but not as a surgeon.

Dr. G. B. Sweeny of the South Side hospital said the $190,000 fee was unreasonable. He believed $5 for a treatment of 15 minutes was proper.

Dr. John J. Buchanan of the West Penn Medical college thought the charges given right, but the $190,000 fee wrong. He had seen Mr. Magee in Philadelphia. He was asked what his ailment was, but did not give a positive answer. He said there was no permanent relief for a patient suffering as Mr. Magee did. He had made no examination of Mr. Magee, his visit not being of a professional nature.

Rates Were Exorbitant.

Dr. Wharton Sinkler of Philadelphia was called. He did not know Dr. Browning, but considered from the evidence that the rates charged were excessive and exorbitant.

Dr. C. B. King of Allegheny testified that from a professional standpoint Dr. Browning's bill is unreasonable. As to the disease from which Mr. Magee suffered the witness said, taking a hypothetical case, death would ultimately result.

Dr. J. W. McFarlane, a surgeon at the West Penn hospital, said the only successful treatment of a cancer is its removal. The immediate effect of an opiate would pass away in 48 hours, said he. He said that it would be necessary for a physician to see a patient, suffering from a cancer, once or twice a week. He considered Dr. Browning's bill excessive.

The next witness was Dr. John Milton Duff of this city. He said that from the testimony he considered that Mr. Magee was suffering from a malignant disease. He thought that a doctor had two courses in such a case, one to treat him to prolong life and the other would be an operation with a hope of saving his life. A patient suffering from a cancer could receive as proper treatment, under certain circumstances, from a nurse as from a physician. He thought Dr. Browning's charges very unreasonable.

Von Bonnhorst's Story.

George W. von Bonnhorst was called. He said he and Mr. Magee had been on intimate terms for 25 years, that he frequently accompanied Mr. Magee on his trips, and always roomed with him. The witness said that he was with Mr. Magee when he first visited Dr. Browning. He declared the senator and Dr. Browning did not have a conversation as to rates, as was testified by Miss Garrett. He never saw a bill from Dr. Browning or heard Mr. Magee speak of one. Mr. von Bonnhorst declared that he did not know of Mr. Magee having opened an account for Dr. Browning; that during Mr. Magee's illness he, the witness, looked over Mr. Magee's correspondence at least once a week, and that he wrote checks for the decedent off and on, but never saw any papers relating to the doctor.

Here Mr. Wilson wrote a question on a piece of paper relative to J. I. Shaw's recent testimony and submitted it to the witness, who wrote an answer in return. The witness never heard Mr. Magee speak of Mr. Weidner as "Old Pete."

Upon cross-examination the witness said Mr. Magee improved under Dr. Browning's first treatment.

Mr. Rodgers wrote a question on paper, which he wished to submit to the witness. It was objected to on the ground that it was not cross-examination. The court sustained the objection.

PLEADED SELF DEFENSE.

Colored Man Tried for Shooting One of a Pursuing Crowd—Criminal Court Cases.

In the criminal court yesterday Thomas Wade, colored, was tried on a charge of felonious assault and battery made by Martin Flatherty.

From the testimony Flatherty, the defendant, and several others were playing pool in a room on Fifth avenue near Soho street on April 4. A quarrel started, during which, it is alleged, Flatherty and his companions abused Wade and struck him several times. When Wade left the poolroom witnesses testified that Flatherty and his friends followed him, still apparently trying to get him to fight. Wade went up Soho street and was still followed. As he passed Allliquippa street he turned and told those following to go back or he would shoot them. They still followed and Wade pulled his gun and fired, the bullet striking Flatherty in the left chest. He was taken to the Mercy hospital. A sealed verdict will be returned.

Eugene J. Reed pleaded guilty to the larceny of $220 from Ida Anderson of No. 646 Fifth avenue, and was sentenced to the workhouse for five months.

Arthur Brown pleaded guilty to the larceny of some diamond rings and a pearl brooch, valued at $200, from L. V. Jeffrey of No. 5914 Walnut street,, East End, and was sentenced to the workhouse for nine months.

Harry Oppenheim was acquitted of a charge of felonious assault and battery preferred by David Wedmenski.

NOT GOOD IN SURGERY.

Trustees Make This Claim in Refusing Degrees to Medical Students.

Answers were filed yesterday to the mandamus proceedings brought by F. Kurtz Addy against the board of trustees and the faculty of the Western Pennsylvania Medical college, and the Chancellor of the Western university of Pennsylvania. The defendants were required to show cause why they should not grant to him a degree of doctor of medicine. Addy claimed that he had taken the required course and successfully passed the examination.

The defendants deny that Addy has fulfilled the requirements for graduation, and having the degree conferred upon him. It is stated that in his final examination in surgery he made a very low percentage; that he otherwise showed a lack of proficiency in surgery, and that the instructors, believing this, protested against his graduation to the dean of the college, who presented the protest to the board of trustees.

It is stated in conclusion that Addy and five others failed to reach the regulation standard in the branch of surgery and that the trustees acted for the best interests of these pupils and the college.

MURDER CHARGE IGNORED

Grand Jury, However, Found True Bill Against M. F. Picon for Manslaughter.

The grand jury adjourned yesterday until June 18. A true bill for involuntary manslaughter was found against Manuel F. Picon for the killing of his wife, Marie Laura Picon, at their home on Mt. Washington on the morning of December 25. It appears that Mrs. Picon had arisen from bed and gone downstairs. Her husband hearing a noise in the dining-room took a flobert rifle and went down to investigate. He did not know of his wife's going down, and, seeing some person, he fired, as he supposed, at a burglar. A minute later he discovered he had shot his wife, who died on December 28. The bill for murder against Picon was ignored.

Other bills were returned as follows:

True bills—Assault and battery, Mike Bradie, I. R. Hood; felonious assault and battery, Anna Sanders; larceny, Winston Cole; conspiracy, J. C. Cavigan et al; forcible entry and detainer, William Meyers; selling liquor illegally, Catherine McAnnally (2).

Ignored bills—assault and battery, James Fay, William Watson; unlawful assembly and assault, William Watson, et al.

LEGAL BRIEFS.

The will of Daniel Perrett of Allegheny was filed. An estate worth $7,500 goes to his widow.

By the will of Rudolph C. Oehmler, late of Pittsburgh, an estate worth $52,000 goes to his widow.

Beverley W. Rice of Eldred, McKean county, filed a petition in bankruptcy. His liabilities are $8,877 and assets $100.

Hiram K. Shehan, a millworker of Homestead, filed a petition in bankruptcy. His liabilities are $7,480 05 and assets $100.

The jury in the traverse of the lunacy proceedings against Albert Pitcairn retired yesterday afternoon and when court adjourned had not reached a verdict.

John H. Wittmer took out letters of administration on the $2,500 estate of George Ziegenthaler. The inventory and appraisement of the estate of Alice C. Lazear shows a valuation of $38,400.

Executions were issued as follows: William P. Mack vs. John E. F. Logue, $760 85; S. W. Ray vs. the Acme Tanning Company, $2,495 76; Sepora Porter vs. Daniel B. Stevenson, $4,985; Frank P. Howley, use vs. W. E. Hildebrand, $4,000.

A bill in equity was filed by William Holmes for the Crown Wall Paper Company against Eli R. Dowler for a specific performance of an agreement. The plaintiff declares the decedent was to sell them the stock for $11,000, of which $5,500 was to be paid in cash, but that Dowler refused to make a deed for it.

George R. Long of this city filed an answer in the United States district court to the objections raised to his discharge from bankruptcy. He denies that he concealed property and says he kept no book account because he did not know how. He was in business large enough to warrant him employing a bookkeeper.

James W. Friend and Harry T. Friend, executors of the estate of Rebecca J. Friend, filed their report of the personal property. They charge themselves with $114,390 91. Of this $59,018 represents the amount of a settlement with James W. Friend. The balance due upon the sale of Third avenue property is $25,000. Credit is claimed for $31,454 61.

Loss of appetite can be restored, failing health be renewed, and strength can be restored to weakness through Dr. D. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge.

READY TO START THE CRUSADE OF DISINFECTION

Director A. H. Leslie Will Begin as Soon as Councils Give Word.

HE WILL BE ECONOMICAL

Process of Disinfecting Will Cost Less Than Half What It Did Under Old Methods—Action Is Promised by Obstructionists in Councils.

The department of public safety is in readiness for work of disinfection as soon as the money is appropriated by councils. Director A. H. Leslie has corps of men already drilled and the apparatus is in readiness. The machine leaders in select councils, smarting under the castigation of public opinion, promise prompt action in the matter, and the consummation of The Gazette's fight for a clean city and proper precautions against the spread of disease seems very near at hand. The action of councils will probably be promptly approved by Recorder J. O. Brown.

Director Leslie believes that, including the cost of the disinfectant, the labor and all other expenses, he can do disinfecting at about $7 a room of ordinary dimensions. It is believed that this disinfecting will begin no later than next Tuesday if Recorder J. O. Brown promptly signs the ordinance.

"The cost of disinfecting a room," said the director yesterday, "depends greatly upon the size of the room and the extent to which the room has been permeated by disease germs. Of course, it costs more to disinfect a large room than a small one, for the simple reason that a greater amount of formaldehyde is required. A room thoroughly permeated with disease germs will need more disinfection than a room that is more free from them. I believe, however, that we can be economical in this work, and I am sure that we will do our best to keep up the work as long as possible before the appropriation is exhausted.

For Three Diseases.

"We disinfect houses that held either of these three diseases: Smallpox, scarlet fever and diphtheria. Of course, we have been doing some disinfecting in cases of smallpox, but we had not enough money to disinfect in the cases of other diseases. But it now seems that we are to get $7,500 for this purpose, and we will be able to thoroughly cleanse all buildings that have housed these diseases.

"We are able to get a brand of formaldehyde that costs us about 40 cents a pound. The best costs 80 cents a pound, and one can get a preparation that purports to be formaldehyde at as low as 15 cents a pound, but it is not the kind we want. After a patient with one of the three diseases mentioned is removed from the room the room is at once thoroughly fumigated and disinfected with formaldehyde. It is then sealed, so that no one can tamper with its contents. When the officer believes that the room has been thoroughly disinfected the 'culture' is removed and City Bacteriologist Dr. E. G. Matson examines it. If the germs have not all been killed the disinfection is renewed until that result is attained.

No Contract Work.

"The work of disinfecting will no longer be done by contract, but under the direction of the health bureau, and several additional employes will be needed for the purpose. The employes that do this work must lose some time, as they must remain near the room to prevent any one tampering with it until the disinfection is completed. I am getting together apparatus for this purpose and am organizing several disinfection corps. As soon as we get the money the work will go on."

According to the figures quoted by Director A. H. Leslie the disinfecting in the future will not cost as much as it cost the city in the past. Fred W. Eggers, who had the contract, received $15 a room. Many physicians say it ought to be easy to get the work done at about $5 a room.

The finance committee at its meeting yesterday afternoon approved the ordinance transferring $7,500 from the contingent fund to the health fund, to provide funds for disinfecting purposes, and directed that it be returned to select council with an affirmative recommendation.

Lambie Yields to Pressure.

This necessitated a temporary suspension of the rules, as the rules of the committee require it to report all of its business to the common branch. President John S. Lambie, smarting under the criticism of the people, has called a meeting of select council for this afternoon to pass the ordinance, and President Charles S. Crawford of common council left yesterday afternoon for a special meeting of that branch for Monday evening for the purpose of passing the ordinance. If Recorder Brown signs the ordinance promptly on Tuesday morning the disinfection can begin on Tuesday afternoon.

Another ordinance which President Lambie has promised his branch will pass is the ordinance transferring $10,000 from the contingent fund to the health fund for the purpose of erecting a temporary addition to the municipal hospital. This ordinance has been passed by common council and will be messaged to the select branch today. If the select council passes this latter ordinance today it will have to do so without the consideration by its rump committee.

WAS A BANNER YEAR FOR ASSOCIATION

Executive Committee of Hospital Saturday and Sunday Association Heard Reports.

The executive committee of the Hospital Saturday and Sunday association met yesterday and fixed the amounts to be paid to the associated hospitals, according to the free resident patients. After the meeting General Agent Samuel Harper sent the money to the hospitals.

This has been the banner year of the organization. The total amount distributed in the year ending June 1 was $5,700, one hospital alone receiving within a few dollars as much as all of them were given six years ago. The distributions for the year were as follows:

Hospitals.	Days.	Amt.
West Penn	31,748	$1,750
Homeopathic	27,034	1,500
Allegheny General	21,240	1,175
Fah Hospital for Children	7,201	400
South Side	6,758	378
St. Johns, Allegheny	4,913	275
Presbyterian, Allegheny	1,411	147
Free Dispensary, office room	.....	75
Totals	100,405	$5,700

A comparison with previous years shows the steady manner in which the contributions have grown. In 1896 the total was $1,815 31; 1897, $1,800 43; 1898, $2,167 65; 1899, $2,200; 1900, $2,200; 1901, $3,825; 1902, $5,700. Each day in the past year 275 persons were cared for free of charge in the associated hospitals.

When General Agent Harper was elected, on March 2, 1900, to fill the unexpired term of Mr. S. H. French, deceased, there was but $500 to the credit of the association, and the distribution day, June 1, but three months away. By an extraordinary effort on the part of the ladies' association and the new general agent, $2,200 was scraped together and distributed. Last year this was run up considerably, and this year the record was made. Mr. Harper gives the credit to the ladies' association, which he highly praises in his report, but the members of the association think that his good management is largely responsible for the excellent results achieved.

FIRST CUBAN MINISTER.

Quesada Arrives in Washington and Will Arrange Today to Present His Credentials.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—Gonzalo de Quesada, Cuban minister to the United States, arrived late this afternoon with his family. He is established temporarily in a hotel, but soon will take a house and establish a legation. Carrillo y Aldama, grandson of a famous Cuban patriot who sacrificed a fortune for the Cuban cause, has been nominated for second secretary of the legation, but has not yet been confirmed. The first secretary has not yet been named. Mr. Quesada will call at the state department tomorrow to arrange for the presentation of his credentials to President Roosevelt.

President Estrada Palma, he said, is carefully going over the budget with a view to keep the expense so much below the revenues of the island as to permit the carrying out of his chief desire, the development of agriculture.

Count Rochambeau Says He Is Delighted With His Visit.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The Count and Countess Rochambeau, who arrived here several weeks ago to attend the unveiling of the Rochambeau statue at Washington, sailed for France on the steamship La Lorraine today.

"I cannot say too much of the magnificent reception which has been given to myself and the countess since we have been here," said the count on the steamship. "Never did I expect such flattering treatment, and I hope some day to be able to do something in return."
